

MORE MONEY FOR COLUMBIA BAR

MacKenzie Recommends Appropriation to Complete the Jetty.

CONTRACT FOR CELILO

Deepening Channel From Portland to Sea—Improvements in Upper Willamette, Columbia and Snake Rivers.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.—In his annual report made public today, General MacKenzie, Chief of Army Engineers, recommends that Congress, at its coming session, appropriate the $1,700,000 which was authorized last session to complete the jetty at the mouth of the Columbia River.

General MacKenzie also believes that $50,000 or $100,000 should be expended putting new boilers in the dredge Chimoak, which is now unusable.

Speaking of the improvement of the channel from Portland to the sea, the report says:

"There has been no time during the year when a vessel could not safely load at Portland to a draft of 24 feet."

Sufficient money is on hand to continue this improvement and build a new dredge to replace the Loak, which is nearly ready for the junkpile.

Dredging has so far increased the depth of this channel by eight feet.

Celilo Canal and Willamette. The last river and harbor bill authorized the appropriation of $500,000 for the Celilo Canal.

General MacKenzie recommends that Congress provide for the construction of a revetment opposite Albany and for the extension of the existing revetment at Independence in the Willamette River.

Improvement of the Upper Columbia and Snake Rivers is proceeding and the work will be finished by the time the Celilo Canal is completed.

Work on Puget Sound. General MacKenzie also recommends an appropriation of $400,000 to complete the dredging of the Puyallup waterway, Tacoma Harbor.

Estimates for Fortifications. Estimates of appropriations aggregating $22,461,911 are made by General MacKenzie for fortification work during the fiscal year 1908.

The modern works of defense now constructed represent an expenditure of approximately $28,000,000 for engineering work alone.

River and Harbor Estimates. General MacKenzie's report deals also with the question of the improvements of rivers and harbors.

For works already begun, $25,142,744; Mississippi River Commission, for carrying on works under its charge, $2,000,000; expenses California Debris Commission, $15,000; presentation of deposits in New York harbor, $15,300; and the enlargement of Governor's Island, New York, $73,000.

At the last session of Congress a river and harbor appropriation bill was passed carrying a large amount of money and authorizing the War Department to enter into contracts for various projects.

The estimates submitted by General MacKenzie include the following amounts asked for, these being in some cases in addition to large unexpended balances now on hand:

California—Deep-water harbor at San Pedro Bay, $10,000; San Luis Obispo harbor, $10,000; Oakland harbor, $250,000; Columbia River, between the foot of the Dalles Rapids and the head of Celilo Falls, $200,000.

Mouth of Columbia River, $1,500,000. Washington—Grays Harbor and bar entrance, $400,000. Alaska—St. Michael's Canal, $150,000.

New Destroyer for Japan. VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 12.—Mail advices from Tokyo state that a new destroyer, the best of her class in the world, will be built at the Japanese Navy yard for the Japanese Navy.

WAR TO THE KNIFE

Labor Federation Will Fight Manufacturers.

RAISE FUND FOR PURPOSE

Van Cleve Takes Up Gage Thrown Down and Will Kill Boycott and Blacklist—Make the 8-Hour Day Universal.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 12.—That there will be war to the knife between the American Federation of Labor and the National Association of Manufacturers was evidenced today at the session of the Federation of Labor here.

The Federation has already taken the aggressive by looking to the establishment of a fund to fight the manufacturers through its executive council. The charge is that undue pressure is being brought by the manufacturers of the country against organized labor, to the detriment of the latter.

The manufacturers combat this in a statement made today by James Van Gleage, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, in which he holds that the object of his association is to put labor unionism on a basis whereby they may be held responsible for the latter.

As an instance he called attention to the pending suit in New York City against the Pressman's Union, alleging the breaking of contracts by the union.

Will Fight to Finish. On the issue made by Mr. Gompers today in seeking funds to fight the suit brought by Mr. Van Cleve as president of the Buck Stove & Range Company, of St. Louis against Mr. Gompers and the Federation's executive council, the Manufacturers' Association comes out flat-footed with the statement that it will fight the boycott and the blacklist to the finish.

The Federation authorized Mr. Gompers to appoint special committees for the consideration of aggressive steps toward the establishment of a universal eight-hour day, and to raise a fund to fight the Manufacturers' Association, the committees to report at present sessions.

Mr. Gompers was also authorized by resolution of the Executive Council and unanimous vote of the Federation to appoint a third special committee to provide ways and means for the increased circulation of the American Federationist, the official organ of the National body.

Rights of Navy-Yard Men. A resolution was presented by James O'Connell, of Washington, calling for a report by committee of a bill to be presented to the next Congress giving the same relief at law to employees in the United States navy-yards who may be disabled by accidents, or to the heirs of navy-yard employees who may be killed while in the pursuit of their occupation, as persons employed by private corporations.

Another resolution was presented by Mr. O'Connell asking Congress to legalize the half-day holiday on Saturday during the months of July, August and September, which employees of all Government navy-yards, individual stations, Governmental factories and arsenals have enjoyed by proclamation during the last two years.

The important features of the annual report of the executive council were on the revocation of the brewery workmen's charter, because of their alleged refusal to relinquish jurisdiction over the firemen and teamsters; and the report of the court proceedings which have been brought at Washington through the Manufacturers' Association restraining the members of the executive council from placing the goods of a certain stove concern on the "we-don't patronize" list.

This, the report declares, was an effort by the "arch enemies of labor, after the failure to disrupt all labor unions, to discredit the discretion, the honesty and integrity of the American Federation of Labor and its officials and to deprive them of the freedom of speech and of the press and of their personal liberty."

Funds Needed for War. The report declared that the Federation is without sufficient funds to meet the war that the Manufacturers' Association will be able to put forth, and asked for action by this convention for raising the same.

The Federation has only a per capita fund of 10 cents per year for meeting all expenses, and emergencies.

Upon behalf of the electrical workers, attention was called to the alleged discrimination and unfair treatment by the American Telephone & Telegraph Company.

Denver, Toronto and Cleveland are in the field for the 1908 convention, with Seattle bidding for 1909.

People don't like to be considered stupid even if they are. There are many persons who persist in drinking coffee, year after year, have spells when they feel like thick idiots.
