Woolmen Severely Criticise Administration of Forestry Laws.

OPPOSE LEASING OF RANGE

Oregon Association Elects Officers and Passes Resolutions-Next Annual Session Will Convene at Heppner-Re-clects Burgess.

THE DALLES, Or., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—Owing to unconcluded business, the Oregon Woolgrowers' Association, which has been in session here since Tuesday last, and was to have closed last night, did not adjourn until today

Adjournment, was then taken until the next annual meeting, which was appointed to convene at Heppner the third Tuesday in November, 1908. Just previous to adjournment, the following officers were elected for the coming

J. N. Burgess, Pendleton, re-elected president; George J. Currin, Heppner, vice-president; Dan P. Smythe, Pendleton, treasurer and secretary; executive ton, treasurer and secretary; exchanges beard—H. C. Rooper, Antelope; William Slusher, Pendleton; J. C. Moore, Dayville; William Rettle, Fossil; George Perry, Heppner, and J. J. Hoke, Medical Springs.

The sentiment of the convention was unanimously in favor of a large delegation attending the meeting of delegation attending the meeting of the National Woolgrowers' Association at Herena, Mont., on January 16, 17 and 18, and the executive board was advised to issue credentials to any one desirous of attending that meeting. It is afficipated that two Pullman cars will be chartered at that time for the Prescott. use of delegates.

Forestry Laws Attacked.

the administration of forestry laws fell in for a large amount of discussion. The general forestry policy of the Government was commended, but severely oriticized on account of the hardenip and injustice to sheepmen arising from the incompetency of sub-ordinate officers in the field. This This ordifate officers in the field. This criticism against two supervisors, namely Supervisor Schmidt, sof the Wenaha reserve, and A. S. Creeland, of the Western Division of the Blue Mountain Reserve, was so great as to warrant the convention in asking the Forest Bureau for their removal.

The supervisor Schmidt, sof the Mashington He lived his entire life in the same ward in Olympia. He is survived by a wife and one son, John, aged 7, and by his father, two brothers and two sisters.

The recommendations of President Burgess, in his opening speech, regarding advisory boards, was adopted. These boards, formed in each division of the reserves from the allottes therein are for the purpose of co-operating with the forest officers in charge; to hear any complaints that sheepmer may make, and, if possible, to adjust them with the supervisor or, failing in this, to properly present them to the Forest Bureau at Washington. The East and West Divisions of the Blue Mountain Reserve, also the North Di-vision of the Cascade Reserve, already have these boards. Monte B. Gwinn, of Pendleton, being the member of the first-named board to represent Maiheur and Harney Counties (with two members from Umatilia and two from Morrow Counties to be named). F. Davenport, Wheeler County; P. J. Sherman County: P. Rellley and James Bannon, Crook County, forming the board for the Western Division of the Blue Mountain Reserve, and William Ketchum, The Dalles; H. C. Roper Antelope; John Karlan, Bake Oven Frank Gabel, Wapinitia, and E. Sparks, Sisters, that of the Northern Division of the Cascade Reserve. The Southern Division of the Cascade and Middle Division of the Blue Mountain Reserve, as yet, have no boards.

Oppose Leasing of Ranges.

Following are a few of the resolu-tions adopted by the convention; thons adopted by the convention:

Indorsement of the present import tariff on wool, woolen fabrics, etc., that the boundary lines of the National forests be sgrveyed and plainly marked before the opening of the next grazing season; that the Forest Service increase the pay of its employes to the end that competent men may occupy its posts, that the association strenuously oppose leasing of public domain or placing it under sonitrol of the Foresty Department; that the Assicultural Department that the Assicultural Department is unred to establish pathological stations in the range states for the study and extermination of disease among focks and herds, that the convention heartily indores the work of the Burvau of Animal Industry in cradicating scab, and that sheere thanks he extended to Dr. S. W. McCure, United States Inapector, for his untiling efforts in the work.

WEBB ELUDES CAPTURE Man Wanted for Heppner Murder Slips Out of Burns.

BURNS, Or., Nov. 14 .- (Special.)-There is little doubt that the man badly wanted in Morrow County for murder spent several days in Burns the past week and escaped capture through the connivance of men who boarded at the same house with him and knew his identity. The man is George Webb, alias Webb McAlister, who is alleged to have killed E. F. Zaspel near Heppner about Octo-ber 1, and robbed him of over $200 in greenbacks. Sheriff Richardson obtained information leading him to believe the fellow was in Burns, and made an investigation but was temporarily thrown off the scent. A few hours' delay thus brought about enabled McAlister. Webb, to make his escape and get out of the country, but Sheriff Richardson sent inquiries in every direction, with the result that a clew to the fugitive came in from the region several miles southwest of Burns, and the Sheriff and City Marshal Anderson have gone to the Silver Lake and Warner Valley country to hunt him up. McAlister is about 40 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches tall, has a low, flat nose, blonde hair and one of his feet is somewhat crippled. He is a card-crank, with seven-up as his favorite

HOQUIAM, Wash., Nov. 14 - (Special.)-William Meyer, cook on the schoone Fred J. Wood, had a narrow escape fron being burned to death on the vessel lying at anchor at the lower harbor today. As it was, Meyer sustained burns which may end fatally, and is in the local hospita in a precarious condition. Meyer had attempted to light a fire in the galley stove, using kerosene, when his cloth-ing became ignited. He rushed into open air and was soon enveloped in a mass o

THE MAN WITH DISEASE

Should learn—and the sooner the better -that what may seem a trivial disease very often has most serious and far-reaching effects. The man who tries to be his own doctor is always the patient that later comes to the specialist with the chronic, stubborn, deep-seated case, which is the hardest kind to cure. I cannot hope that all men will accept my statement that the quickest, the safest and the pert specialist in Men's Diseases at once, but the intelligent man will readily be convinced of the value of this advice upon investigation.

The Lending Specialist,
