

DOES NOT OPPOSE

Senator Heyburn in Sympathy With Roosevelt.

FREE TO CHANGE HIS MIND

His Privilege to Become Candidate for Renomination if He Thinks Conditions Demand—Indorses Policies of the President.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Nov. 15.—The attitude of Senator Heyburn with regard to President Roosevelt has been a subject of much interest throughout the West since the publication of his views in these dispatches a short time ago. To correct the erroneous impression the Senator has given out an authorized interview in which he makes plain his position.

Senator Heyburn was asked this direct question: "Is it true, as reported, that you would oppose the renomination of President Roosevelt if he were a candidate?" The Senator's answer was as follows: "I would not. If he were a candidate for renomination I would heartily and cheerfully support him for nomination and election. I estimate men by their averages, in their performance of duty, and I think President Roosevelt has made a very high average in patriotism, wisdom and efficiency in the performance of his duty."

Free to Change His Mind. "Whatever I have said at any time or place in regard to the use of President Roosevelt's name as a candidate for renomination I would not change. He would not be a candidate. Until he makes some declaration to the contrary, I do not think that without discrediting him in the eyes of his constituents, I recognize the fact that he is at liberty, should he consider the circumstances warrant him in doing so, to change his views in respect to being a candidate, and thus leave the party free to nominate him for another term."

In Sympathy With President. "The policy of the Government rests, under the Constitution, entirely with Congress, and the policy of the laws enacted by Congress within the Constitutional limitations. The duty and powers of the Executive branch of the Government are clearly defined by the Constitution and the laws, and the manner of the enforcement and administration of the law is also clearly defined by law. The Executive can neither add to nor subtract from the law without violation of duty. The Executive and the Executive for an efficient and vigilant execution of the law, but we have a right to expect nothing less."

LABORERS ARE BUNCOED. Swear Out Warrants for Arrest of Employment Agents. "The Senator replied: 'Only this: Such charges have been made only through ignorance of fact or through desire to create an antagonistic impression against myself. I recognize the sympathy with the President and the enforcement of the laws of the land, and his efforts to punish those who violate them. I am not in harmony with his views and action in regard to the protection of forest reserves, but Congress has relieved him of that responsibility. The future responsibility of the forest reserve policy rests with Congress.'

Decries Gambling in Stocks. Asked for his views on the financial situation, Senator Heyburn said: "The action of the Government in the conditions where stocks and bonds will represent real values in property will make existing conditions impossible. Real values of property are not affected by the fact that stock quotations have fallen. Betting on the quotations of securities of legitimate purchase or sale of securities representing real values in property is not gambling. The remedy for existing evils can be found in the enactment of the measure I have twice introduced in the Senate providing for Governmental supervision and control of the relation between the real value of interstate corporations and property and the face value of stocks, bonds and obligations of such corporations. The existing conditions are a natural result of unrestrained issue of securities and the inflation of prices regardless of real values, which tempts values of securities in which there should be no gambling. I see no necessity for either an extra session of Congress or any present change of currency laws."

CITY RICHER BY $1056

Long-Forgotten Deposit Found in Suspended Bank.

The City of Portland has become so wealthy that a little matter of an escaped attention. Yesterday City Auditor Barbur reported to the Executive Board that he had discovered that this amount of $1,056 in the suspended Merchants National Bank to the credit of the city as a special deposit, the balance on hand of the Morrison-street bridge construction fund. Mayor Lane remarked that he did not know of the existence of this balance until the Auditor directed his attention to it. He had thought the account closed under a previous city administration.

Salvation Army Rescue Home, PORTLAND, Nov. 15.—(To the Editor)—The officers of the Salvation Army Rescue Home, of Portland, desire to thank the many friends who have so kindly for the past 12 years helped them to help the outcast ones, many of them in their teens, often more sinned against than sinning.

Our home for the unfortunate provides for them not only protection, shelter and care, but teaches them to help themselves as well. Housework and needlework are taught in the home, and when the inmates leave, situations are found for

MRS. GLASS FAINTS AGAIN
Breaks Down When Arraigned for Murder of Husband.

Augusta Glass, accused of having murdered her husband, Abraham Glass, last Sunday afternoon, fainted when taken into the Municipal Court yesterday forenoon for arraignment. After Glass' death from a pistol bullet in the back, the woman went into hysterics and fainted when questioned by the police about the tragedy. At the hospital, when questioned, she fainted again, and only meager details of the tragedy are obtainable from her. She adheres to the story that Glass committed suicide.

Since the tragedy of Sunday Mrs. Glass has been at St. Vincent's Hospital. Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock she was taken to the court where she was taken to the court for arraignment. Reaching the police station she was shown the way to the anteroom of the court, where she sat in company with Dr. Mary Egan, who has been attending her since her nervous breakdown following Glass' death. A few minutes later Mrs. Glass was called into court. The accused woman fell to the floor, seemingly in a faint, and an hour was required to revive her. It was then necessary to take her into the court. Deputy District Attorney Haney and Judge Cameron stepping out of the courtroom and receiving her plea of "not guilty."

The woman was then assisted downstairs and driven to the County Jail, Chief Gritmacher declining to furnish an officer to guard her at the hospital any longer.

Mrs. Glass is a petite brunette of the Russian type. Her dress yesterday was a simple black affair, and black which the Glass family is said to have lived after coming here from San Francisco two weeks ago. She wore an expensive seal skin coat and black dress and hat. It has been decided by the District Attorney's office to hold her for the murder of her husband. The man was shot from behind. There is no evidence that anyone had been about the place other than Mrs. Glass, and it is known that furious quarrels had taken place between the man and the woman at the time of the shooting.

LABORERS ARE BUNCOED

Swear Out Warrants for Arrest of Employment Agents.

Crooked operations of local employment agents is a matter that has again been taken up by the authorities. Four warrants of arrest being issued yesterday in consequence of complaints made by four loggers. The men were taken to the City Jail in a remote section of Douglas County. They were told that the Myrtle Creek Lumber Company would hire them at a good salary. The loggers, I. Christensen, agency a round sum for looking them and expended $15.65 for tickets.

INNOCENT MAN ARRESTED

Detectives Try to Convict After It Is Plain He Is Guiltless.

Realizing that the carnival of petty crime rampant in Portland demanded some sort of showing from the police department, two Chief Gritmacher's star "detectives" tried to fix guilt upon an entirely innocent man in the Municipal Court yesterday afternoon. They had arrested J. A. Shinn, a thrifty salesman, the basis for the arrest being that the man once served in the penitentiary for implication in a fraud scheme since released as prosperous. That a man might profit by one misstep and turn his energies into profitable fields, never occurred to the sleuths. They had to arrest someone. Shinn had been in the penitentiary, so they took him in. Not only that, but they persisted in trying to convict him after it had been made plain he was entirely innocent. Anxiety to discredit at least one victory over the thieves to the stupid plain clothes aggregation now drawing salary from the city, led them to lose sight of the possible innocence of their unfortunate victim.

Talk to Men

ON Contagious Blood Poison

By DR. TAYLOR, The Leading Specialist

On account of its frightful hideousness Syphilis or Contagious Blood Poison is commonly called the king of all venereal diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted. Once the system is tainted with it, the disease may manifest itself in the form of scrofula, eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, eruptions or copper-colored spots on face or body, little ulcers in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, swollen tonsils, falling out of the hair or eyebrows, and finally, a leprosy-like decay of the flesh and bones. If you have any of these or similar symptoms, you are cordially invited to consult me immediately. If I find your fears unfounded I will quickly unburden your mind. But if your constitution is infected with poisonous virus I will tell you so frankly and show you how to get rid of it. My special treatment for Contagious Blood Poison is practically the result of my life work, and is indorsed by the best physicians of America and Europe. It contains no dangerous drugs or injurious medicines of any kind. It goes to the very bottom of the disease and forces out every particle of impurity. Soon every sign and symptom of Contagious Blood Poison disappears completely and forever. The blood, the tissue, the flesh, the bones and the whole system are cleansed, purified and restored to perfect health, and the patient prepared anew for duties and pleasures of life.

Dr. Taylor, The Leading Specialist

Don't throw this announcement away. Cut it out; put it where you can find it, and if what I have to say to you today is not of GREAT interest, watch for another talk.
