CONGRESSMEN ARE

Many Think, However, That Roosevelt Will Be Compelled to Run Again.

SECOND CHOICE DOUBTFUL

West More in Favor of Renomination Than East-Some Think the President Should Be Forced to Accept, Against Wishes.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Nov. 20 .- As public men continue to gather in Washington, more and more is heard about Presidential politics. It is noticed that the majority of Republicans from the West are favorable to the renomination of President Roosevelt. This sentiment is not very general with men from other sections. The following interviews have recently appeared in various Eastern papers, and show the diversity

Senator Sutherland, of Utah, says: "Utah will no doubt send a delegation to the next Republican National Conven-tion which will be favorable to the re-nomination of President Roosevelt. There is some sentiment in the state in favor of Secretary Taft, but whether it is sufficient to elect a delegation that would vote for him in the convention is another matter. For President Roose-velt, however, the sentiment in favor of his serving again is almost tan-tamount to a demand that he do so. If he will accept, he will get the votes of Utah. If he still declines to accept, and there is a general movement in the con-

West want him to run again; I do not mean the politicians, but the average men in the community. They believe that the policies that he has inaugurated should be carried out, and that he is the best man to carry them out. Much may happen to change the conditions during the next few months, but I believe that they will be the same, as far as the over-whelming demand for the renomination of the President is concerned." Ex-Congressman Joseph C. Sibley, of Pennsylvania, says: "Immediately after his election, Mr. Roosevelt issued the following statement: "'Under no circumstances will I be candidate or accept another nomination."

Roosevelt May Run in 1912. This declaration has been often re peared by him. To question his sincerity is to doubt his integrity. The last extended convergation I had with him, just before his departure for Oyster Bay, last June, confirmed me in the belief that he meant precisely what he said on that subject, and it occurs to me that those who are strengously insistent to the contrary are doing him no honor, and are such friends as those from whom one might well pray for deliverance. Four or eight years from now President Roose of no unwritten law, will again be free to accept public service, and doubt-less ready patriotically to respond to any Congressman J. A. T. Hull, of Iowa, Force It on Roosevelt.

"Rossevelt will be renominated, forced to accept the nomination, and elected Fresident for four years more. Bryan will be the nominee of the Democrats, and the country will see the hottest campaign in history. The trend of political sentiment is all to Roosevelt, although the situation will be complicated if Hughes should carry the New York delegation, and he is gaining strength rapidly. With Roosevelt out of the race, Speaker Cannon stands as good a chance for nomhation as anyone."
Representative Edward B. Vreeland.

of New York, says: "There is no pronounced favorite-son movement just at present in New York State, and there will be nothing of this kind until the people are cer-tain that the President will not run again. It is the general belief that if the President is nominated by the convention he will be obliged to accept. So far, neither Governor Hughes nor any of his intimate friends have made any move that can be construed into an effort to capture delegates. The Governor evidently intends to maintain this attitude, and refuses to seek anything. So far as the up-state Republi-cans are concerned, they would be for Roosevelt as between Roosevelt and Hughes. As between Hughes and an outsider, they would be for Hughes. I am not posted as to what the other portions of the state would do as be-tween Roosevelt and Hughes." Senator Warner, of Missourl, says:

Missouri Wants Taft.

"I am for Taft; and believe that the delegation to the convention from the State of Missouri will be for him. Should Secretary Taft be nominated, he would be elected. I have no doubt What the Issue of the campaign will be in toe far off to say."

Senator Cullom, of Illinois, suys:
"Of course, Mr. Cannon is in the race, Not only is he in the race, but race. Not only is he in the race, but he will stand a good chance of getting the nomination when the time comes, unless the people have indicated in a decided manner they want some one else by the time the convention is called. Mr. Cannon would not in that event permit his name to be use Representative Scott, of Kansas,

I think that Kansas will be for Senator Carter, of Montana, says: Will Stick to His Statement.

"I accept in perfect faith the declaration of President Roosevelt, and do not regard him as a candidate for re-election in any sense. The future has too much in store to warrant any present prediction as to the man to be named by the Republican convention." Ex-Senator Allee, of Delaware, says: "I am not at liberty to tell what the President said to me, but I do not mind saying that I called to tell him the Republicans of Delaware are anxlous for him to run again. Until we hear from him that he will not run, we will consider him in the race. If he runs he will, of course, be elected." Ex-Governor Frantz, of Oklahoma.

"President Roosevelt will be forced to accept a second nomination for the Presidency, and will be re-elected. The report that I will run for Congress against Con-gressman McGuire is untrue." Representative Woodyard of West Vir-

Another Leader a Mistake.

The people of my part of the country not believe any other man than Roosedo not believe any other man than Roosevell can so ably carry on the various reforms which the President has instituted, and believe that it will be a mistake if another leader is selected at this crucial time. Most people believe, also, that Mr. Roosevelt will find when the proper time comes that he will have to take the nomination, because of the general feeling that he is needed. The feeling of which I speak is not the feeling of the state leaders or the country leaders, but of the people at large. I believe this feeling of the people is common in other states, also, and that it is a mistake to believe that the Roosevelt talk is the work of party leaders alone." work of party leaders alone."
Governor Curry of New Mexico says:

Roosevelt Cannot Be Defeated.

"There is not a man in the whole country or any combination of men that can defeat President Roosevelt west of the Mississippi in case he might show the slightest inclination to be a candidate. Indeed, I am of the opinion that the people of that section will have President Roosevelt whether or no, and that party lines will be obliterated if they can force him to be a candidate. There does not now seem to be a second choice for the Republican nomination. If the people are absolutely convinced that the President will not make the run, which they will learn only after he has said so on the convention floor, I am sure that they will throw their votes to his candidate, who-ever this may be." Representative Langley of Kentucky

"I have long been a student of the life and teachings of George Washington, and I am satisfied that if he were alive today he would rescind what he said about a man holding the Presidential office three terms. He would have believed in hang-ing on to such a good man forever if he had seen Roosevelt."

West Strong for Roosevelt.

Should he not be a candidate, and should there be no such movement, it is difficult to say what the state delegation would do. Portland Company Plans Plant on Little White Salmon.

Electric power is to be brought from the Little White Salmon River, in Wash-ington, to Portland, where it will be used for the varied purposes to which elec-tricity is put. The Portland Rallway, tricity is put. The Portland Rallway, Light & Power Company owns a valu-able power site there and will develop it as the needs of the city requires. The as the needs of the city requires. The power site was purchased years ago by the old City & Suburban Railway Company. It came into the possession of the present company through the consolidation of the old companies. The site comprises a tract of land of over 2500 acres. President Josselyn, of the Portland Rallway, Light & Power Company, returned yesterday from a visit to the property for the purpose of inspecting it and deter-mining its possibilities, having never seen it. He said upon his return yesterday: "I am very much pleased with the prop-erty and find it will easily develop from 25,000 to 30,000 horsepower. The water will have a head of approximately 1100 feet. It lies about 60 miles from Portland and is another reserve power site that will be developed by our company as soon as be developed by our company as soon as the demand warrants it. The White Salmon country is settling up very fast and with the completion of the North Bank road, it will be a very prosperous and growing fruit district. We have already been besieged to sell a part of the tract we hold to fruitgrowers."

The transmission of this power to Portland presents no unusual difficulties, although the generators will lie 66 miles though the generators will lie & miles away and two rivers will have to be crossed to bring the power into Portland's business district. The White Salmon power site offers high voltage with comparatively small outlay and the com-pany can therefore afford to lose a small amount of electricity in transmission. Youngest Telegraph Manager.

HIS FIFTIETH MILESTONE

George Berry, Veteran Stage-Manager, Given Birthday Surprise.

At the end of the third act last night at the Star Theater George Berry, stage manager of the French stock company, was "arrested" by Charles Conners, the policeman in the play, and marched to the footlights to receive a huge basket of flowers. Suspended from the bas-names of every member of the company, who swarmed out from the wings and surrounded the astonished actor. Manager Richard E. French then made his appearance and said:

"George, you have been in my company for 20 years, and ought to know by this time that it is contrary to my ket was a string of cards bearing the company desire not only to thus pub- dressed the audience licly congratulate him and to wish him many returns of the anniversary, but with these flowers and with this handsome cane which they have asked me to present to him, ask him to accept them as tokens of their esteem."

With that Mr. French stepped forward, grasped Mr. Berry by the hand rules to have flowers passed over the and presented him with a fine goldfootlights. But on this occasion I headed walking stick. The packed shall make an exception, for this is your first offense. I will inform this audience that George Berry is 50 years old today, and his associates in the
