PASTORS DISCUSS FUNERAL. 125.-"Is It Proper for the Officiating Clergyman to Accept a Fee for his Services at Funerals?" was the subject discussed at the regular meeting of the Presbyterian Minlaters' Association yesterday morning at the First Presbyterian Church. The ques-tion was discussed informally as only the presbytery has authority to take action in uch matters. It was brought out at the meeting that the almost universal custom among the ministers of the Presbyterian Churches is to accept a fee when it is offered, but there is no understanding among them as to the amount, and if no compensation is offered, nothing is said about it.

WILL CONSIDER BRIDGE QUESTION .- The United East Side Push Clubs will hold a meeting tonight at the Sargent to consider further the bridge question. Parks will also be discussed. the club met in the waiting-room. E. I. Naghel, the president, presided. Ben Riesland, of Woodstock, addressed the meeting at length upon the advantages of annexation. He said that the agita-tion should be started at once, so that a vote could be had at the next June election. It meant, he said, that a reservoir and park would be located on the top of Mount Scott and a pipe line laid to supply all the southeastern district with Bull Run water for all purposes. The need of securing an ample water supply was set forth by Mr. Riesland with much force, and seemed to meet with favor force, and seemed to meet with favor by all present. Practically all present favored annexation as soon as it can be brought about. The district includes about 10,000 people. GRAND OPERA plays an important part in this week's bill at the Pantages, for the Rusticana Trio, late of the Metropolitan Opera Company, of New York, is the feature act. To music lovers and those acquainted with grand opera, this bill will appeal as something out of the ordinary, and will be much ap preclated. Just before this feature act comes another singing act, and it can be truly said that this is the real feature of the bill. Davis and Walker, two Southern darkies, who have performed before King Edward, present a very clever act, a realistic imitation of the once popular cake walk. This nair draw down the cake-walk. This pair draw down the applause of the house, and although their work cannot be called art, as that of the Rusticana Trio, yet it pleases the public, and that is about all the average vaude-

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25 .- Government Inspectors of Hulls and Bollers Bolles and Bulger will hold a searching investigation into the causes lead-ing up to the loss of the three little girls, Reta and Ada Schotte and Flossie Burkman, from the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamer President on the voyage of that vessel to this port from the North. This was decided upon today by Supervising In-spector Bermingham, and as soon as communication can be had with Captain Cousins, of the President, the Inquiry will proceed. No official report of the disaster which overtook the three little children on the run down the Coast of the President was filed with the Government officials, and it is because of this fact that an investigation was begun. One report has it that the mate of the President warned the children, who
