LIES FIVE DAYS

American Bark Acme Has a Thrilling Voyage Across the Pacific.

LIFEBOATS GOTTEN READY

Crew Works Night and Day With Scarcely Any Rest to Keep Ballast in Proper Place-Captain Orders the Masts Cut Away.

ASTORIA, Or., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Ly-ing five days on her beam ends, with her ing five days on her beam ends, with her lower yards in the water, her crew working night and day to stow the shifted ballast, her three top-gallant masts and upper gear cut away to right the vessel, and her lower gear triced up to enable her to reach port, was the tale of exciting experiences brought by the big four-masted American bark Acme, which limped into the Columbia River this afternoon, 32 days from Hlogo, Japan. That the vessel was not lost is due to

That the vessel was not lost is due to the excellent seanthuiship and judgment of her master. Captalis A. F. McKay, and the incessant work of his crew. Notwithstanding the terrible experience, the vessel arrives with all well on board and with her hill apparently uninjured. The Aeme sailed from the Japanese port on October & She carried 1200 tons of sand ballast, well tamped and covered with shifting boards. In addition to this there, was 150 tons of rock ballast that is carried permaiently under the

that is carried permanently under the limbers. A good breeze was picked up almost immediately, excellent time being made and everything looked promising for a fast trip across until the evening of Friday, November 1, when the wind, which had been blowing strong from the northwest spitch to the northwest, shifted to the northeast, al-most dead ahead. This caused a nasty cross sea, and as little headway could be made, sail was shortened and the ves-

Ship Lurches to Starboard.

Suddenly, at 4:30 on the morning of November 2, the sixth day out, the bark without a moment's warning tripped on a luge sea and lurched to the starboard onto her beam ends, with her lower yards in the water. So severe was the shock that the shifting hoards were torn up and the ballust thrown against the deck and then shifted to the starboard side. Even the rock ballast under the limbers was thrown out, and one of the chronometers was pitched from its case.

mas thrown out, and one of the chronometers was pitched from its case.

Immediately the alarm was sounded and all hands were sent below, where they worked like trojans in a futile effort to stow the ballast and right the vessel. The bark, however, kept gradually settling and was in imminent danger of turning turtle, so at 2 o'clock that atternoon Captain McKay gave orders to cut away the backstays, and the three topgallant masts and the upper gear were allowed to go by the board.

Lifeboats Got Ready.

In the meantime, Captain McKay, feeling certain that his ship was doomed, had provisioned all the boats and every preparation was made to leave the craft at a moment's notice. The loss of the masts and yards so lightened the hark that the work of reatowing the ballast could be proceeded with, and after five days and nights of labor, with only short vals of rest, the crew succeeded in righting the vessel, patching up the broken rigging and the crippled craft proceeded on her way.

proceeded on her way.

Notwithstanding rough weather was encountered all the way across and in spite of her crippled condition and the delay of six days in which no headway. was made, the Acme made the run across the Pacific to the mouth of the river in 31 days, whereas 25 days is considered a remarkably quick passage. She sighted the lightship last evening, but as a heavy gale was blowing and a high sea running, she stood off shore again, com-ing in this morning, when she was picked up by the tug Wallula. Pilot Wood placed on board and towed into port.

Standard Oil Property.

The Acme is a steel yessel of 287 tons net register and is the largest salling vossel which ever entered the Columbia River. She is owned by the Standard Oil Company and comes to load lumber for New York. So far as known her hull is uninjured, but she may go on the drydock for examination.

YOUNG BROWN PUT IN JAIL

Supreme Court Decides Patricide Can Be Detained by Sheriff.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Nov. 26.—(Special.)

Tom Brown, who killed his father,
Charley Brown, at the family home about U miles west of Chehalis three years ago, is now in the custody of Sheriff Deggeller in the Lewis County jall. A jury in the Superior Court found Brown "not gullty by reason of insanity." At that time Judge Rice, instead of furning the young wan level of the committed to the custody of Sheriff Henry Urhuhart under a staté law governing such cases. Brown's a state law governing such cases. Brown's attorneys took an appeal to the State Supreme Court asking for a writ of habess corpus, but that body sustained the pesition of Judge Rice. Then application was made to Judge C. H. Hanford of the Federal Court for a writ of habeas corpus and this was granted and young Brown released. The attorneys for the state appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States and the latter body decided against Judge Hanford's court an order was entered formally dismissing Brown's was entered formally dismissing Brown's application for a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Hanford ruled that Brown should be left in the custody of the state. How-ever, Brown was at that time and had for months been at liberty. His arrest by Deputy Sheriff King at the Chehalis depot on Thursday evening was largely by chance. Young Brown had until a few days ago been working in a British Co-lumbia logging camp and only last Wednesday had come to Chehalis to see his mother. The officers learned that he his mother. The officers learned that he was in Chehalis and Mr. King picked him up at the depot just as the young man up at the depot just as the young man in the several municipalities totals $2,980,152, and is listed as follows: McMinnville, Judge Rice, Brown is to remain indefinite-ly in the custody of the Sheriff of Lewis County. What legal steps will now butaken to secure his release is problematical.

WILL NOT CLOSE THEATERS

Seattle Mayor and Prosecutor Will

Not Act-Ministers Chagrined. SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 28,-(Special.)-Despite the fact that the Supreme Court-of the state has decided that the Sunday closing law, as applied to theaters, is constitutional, playhouses of Scattle are in no danger of being closed. Today a com- Hanan shoes sold at Rosenthal's, mittee of pastors representing the ministe-rial association, called on Mayor Moore with the request that he take action in

The Mayor declared that he was not engaged in enforcing the state law and made evasive answer to the charge that he was energetic enough in enforcing the same laws against the saloons. He referred the committee to Prosecuting Attorney Mackintosh, who sidestepped in turn and declared that the Mayor had police at his command and is the man who should take the initiative in enforcing the state law in the clear limits. the state law in the city limits.

The ministers are chagrined. The Mayer is worried and the prosecutor indifferent for his term of office expires in the Fall.

The theatrical men and the theatergoers are, however, jubilant.

WANT SUBTREASURY AND MINT

Seattle Senator to Make Fight in Congress This Session.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 26.—(Special.)— Inited States Senator S. H. Piles will ask the United States Government to estab-lish a subtreasury in Seattle and will in-sist that in the same connection a Mini be erected here to handle the millions of gold pouring through the Seattle assay office annually.
Calvin S. Vilas, assayer in charge of the Seattle office, has taken up the establishment of a subtreasury with Senator Piles and will supply him with the data necessary for making the fight in Congress. It is believed a proper presentation of facts will induce Congress to locate a Mint and aubtreasury in Seattle. It is pointed out that in express charges on gold dust shipped through the assay office, the Government is paying more than $40,000 a year, and this sum would

NEW SYSTEM OF SCHOOL REGU-LATION ADVOCATED.

Superintendent Ackerman Explains Advantage-Baker Will Get Teachers' Convention.

LA GRANDE, Or., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The State Teachers' Association held a very interesting session today. State Superintendent Ackerman, in a very solic address delivered before the convention, advocated that the regulation of the schools of the county be intrusted to one School Board for the entire county, instead of a School Board for each school district, as under the present system.

President P. L. Campbell, of the University of Oregon, spoke entertainingly upon "The Development of Ideals." Interesting papers were read by Naomi R. Stengel, of the Weston Normal School, upon "The Teaching of Phonetics," and Edna Davidson Woorden upon "Kindergarten Principles in Primary Work".

mary Work."
The association listened to two in-structive addresses by Henry D. Sheldon, of the University of Oregon, upon the subjects, "The New Movement in High-School Science," and "Interest: Its Place in Education." A principal feature of the day's proceedings was an address delivered this evening at Stewart's Opera-House by President W J. Kerr, of the State Agricultural College.

Tomorrow will occur the election of officers for the ensuing year, and designation of the place for holding the next convention. Baker City appears to be in the lead for the next place of meeting, and as it is a custom to select the President from the county where the session is held, this honor will probably fail upon J. A. Churchill, Superintendent of the Baker City schools, or County Superintendent Smith, of Baker City.

City Valuations in Yambill.

-County Clerk Jones has completed the from Rathdrum, Idaho, before court confootings of the assessment roll for 1967 venes here tomorrow, but, even should covering the incorporated cities and they not be here, the examination of

CAME TO OREGON BY OX-TEAM IN 1853.

LEBANON, Or., Nov. 26,-(Special .- Mrs. J. H. Palmer, who died at the home of her daughter, in this city, November 19, was born in the State of Virginia, July 1, 1825. Her maiden name was Catherine N. Graves She moved with her parents to Missourt in 1834 and in 1841 in that state was married to J. H. Palmer, who died at Mt. Angel in 1894. In 1853 with her husband and family she crossed the rains by ox-team and in like Paul of that year settled in Marion County, Oregon, where now is the town of Mt. Angel. She was buried at Silverton by the side of her husband. She was the mother of 11 children, seven of whom survive her. These are: G. W. Palmer, Kiona, Wash.; H. L. Palmer and Marion Palmer, of Silverton; Mrs. M. Cleaver, Lebanon; Thomas Palmer and Edwin Palmer, Portland, and E. B. Palmer, Uniontown, Kan. One brother, J. P. Graves, of Silverton, also survives her.

Conflicts With Fair Date.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Nov. 26 .-(Special.)—Serious concern is felt here at the proposal to hold a great live-atock show in Portland hext year on some date between September 15 and October 1, reported in telegraphic dis-patches, as the date would necessarily interfere with the interests of the State Fair held in this city during the Task of Securing Jury From Panel Starts.

WILL CONSUME MUCH TIME

Regular Venire Has 35 Names and Special of 100 Names Will Be Ordered-Pettibone Not Well Yet, but Ready for Trial.

buiSE, Idaho, Nov. 25.—The work of obtaining a jury for the trial of George A. Pettibone, charged with complicity in the assassination of ex-Governor Frank A. Steinenberg, will begin in District Court here tomorrow morning, Judge FOUGHT INDIANS IN HARNEY COUNTY IN EARLY DAYS.

The Late Reuben Kiger, CORVALLIS, Or., Nov. 26.— (Special.)—Reuben C. Kiger, a well known citizen of this city for many years, died November 25, of cancer of the stomach, He was born April 29, 1838, in Ohio. At 7, he went with his parents to Illinois, and crossed parents to litinois, and crossed the plains to Oregon in 1861. He settled in Corvaills where he had since resided, except several years spent in the stock busi-hess in Harney County. He was married to Miss Minerva Morgan, a descendant of General Mergan, of Revolutionary fame, in November, 1866. The survivors in the family are the widow and two sons, John and Richand, and a daughter, Miss Mi-nerva Giger. Twenty-five years age Mr. Kiger figured in the In-dian troubles in Harney County, when his home was burned and his stock driven off by the red-skins, while he and his family narrowly escaped.

Fremont Wood announced from the bench today that there would be no further delay. It is expected that Clarence Darrow and James H Hawley, chief counsel for the baby company of the state, and have taken the honors away from old have taken the hono talesmen will proceed.

*******************

It was announced this morning by Judge Wood that the jury-box would be filled this afternoon by members of the regular panel, but it was agreed between attorneys that no objection would be raised to postponing this action until tomorrow. and the court acted on their suggestions. The regular venire consists of 35 names, and when these are disposed of a special venire of at least 100 will be ordered.
Attorneys on both sides agree it will require a longer time to obtain a jury in this case than for the Haywood trial, when nearly a month was consumed in this preliminary work.

Pettibone the Go-Between.

Pettibone was indicated with William D Haywood, secretary-treasurer; Charles H. Moyer, president, and Jack Simpkins, member of the executive board of the Western Federation of Miners, in March, 1906, for the murder of ex-Governor Frank Steunenberg at Caldwell, Idaho, December 30, 1906. He was arrested at Denver at the same time as Moyer and Haywood and brought to Idaho, follow-ing the confession of Harry Orchard, in which he admitted killing Steunenberg with a dynamite bomb and charged he had been hired to commit the crime by the Federation officers. Petitione had no official connection with the Western Federation, but has been an honorary member since his arrest. It is charged by the state that Pettibone was the official the state that Pettibone was the official to-between of the "inner circle" and their alleged hired assassins.

After the acquittal of Haywood applica-tion for bond was made for Moyer and Pettibone. The state refused to consent to Pettibone's release, but Moyer was al-lowed ball in the sum of $23,000. The trial of Pettibone was set for October 1, but was continued several times because of

Many Lawyers for Defense.

Pettibone still is in poor health, but insists that he is able to stand trial. With two exceptions the same attorneys will be engaged in the Pettibone trial as in that of Haywood. Edwin F. Richardson, of Denver, who was chief counsel for Haywood, has retired from the case, and Clarence of Therew of Chicago, is now attorney of Therew of Chicago, is now attorney of retired from the case, and Clarence Darrow, of Chicago, is now attorney of record for the defense Ki Perky, of Boise, has been added to the long list of defense attorneys. Others who will appear in behalf of the dafendant are. Excongressman Edgar Wilson, of Boise; Peter Breen, of Butte; John F. Nugent, of Boise; Frederick Miller, of Spokane, and Leon Whitsell, of Wallace. James H. Hawley again appears as leading counsel for the state. Senator Borah is now at Washington and will remain there until after the convening of Congress, when he will return to assist the prosecution. he will return to assist the prose he will return to assist the prosecution.

Prosecuting Attorney Van Duyn, of Canyon County, where the crime was committed, and W. H. Stone, of Caldwell, will appear for the state.

YORAN PRAISES COMPANY E

Cottage Grove Boys Presented With Trophy Won in Marksmanship.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Nov. 26.— (Special.)—Six privates of the Fourth Regiment, Company E, contested at the Armory here last night for the vacan-cles as Corpbrais, the winners being Horace Cochrane, Fred J. Bartels, James H. Potts and Earle Simmeral.
Colonel George O. Yoran and Major C.
C. Hammend, of Eugene, were delegated as judges. Their decision was that

A Voice From The Stomach

A Bloodless Fight Between a Tablet and a Habit-The Tablet Wins.

aná a Habit—The Tablet Wins.

At the age of 22, Ciarence had good digestion. He had gastric juice that could dissolve doughnuts and turn appleskins into good blood corpuscles.

At the age of 24 he began to be profuse about the waist and lean backwards. He also began to cultivate several chins. In his new-found pride he began to think it his duty to gorge himself on everything, the good and the bad, for appetite feeds en appetite—and every good thing is abused.

His pictures showed that he took on weight after he put also collar on.

At the age of 25 Clarence married and went to boarding. On top of all this, he attended oyster suppers and wine dinners, which reduced the size of his collar from 16½ to 15. With still abiding faith in the strength of his stomach he gulped his meals, and chewed them afterwards.

At the age of 28 Clarence began to hear an inward voice—a warning from the stomach. After each meal, he would feel bloated—and belching became a habit.

He began to be a light eater—and a heavy thinker. He tried to think out came a habit.

He began to be a light eater—and a heavy thinker. He tried to think out a cure, for now he would sit down at his meals absolutely disgusted at the thought or sight of anything to eat.

He would sit down at his meals without the trace of an appetite, just because it was time to eat.

He would often feel a gnawing, unsattafied "still-hungry" feeling in his stomach, even after he was through eating, whether his meal was wall cooked or not.

eating, whether his mean was cooked or not.

And he suffered a good many other things with his stomach that he could not explain, but that made him grouchy, miserable, out-o'-sorts and generally sour on everybody and everything.

everything. Finally he read an account, some-Finally he read an account, something like this, about the truly wonderful results obtained from Stuart's Dyspepsia. Tablets in all cases of stomach trouble, dyspepsia, and so on. He bought a 50c box at the drugstore, and took the whole box. When he started, he had little faith—and leas appetite. When he finished he had absolute faith—and more appetite, and more good cheer. Things began to taste different and better to him.

Now he has no more dyspepsia, no more indigestion, no more loss of appetite, brash, irritation, burning sensa-more indigestion, no more loss of appetite, brash, irritation, burning sensation, heartburn, nausea, eructations, bad memory, or loss of vim and vigor. Remember, one ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest for you 000 grains of food, just as it did for larence.

This relieves your stomach of the work of digesting until your stomach can get strong and healthy again. Your stomach has been overworked Your stomach has been overworked and abused. It's fagged out. It needs

Let Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do the work of your stomach. You will be surprised how fine you'll feel after cating, and how husdously good every-thing will taste to you.

Heed the call of the stomach now!

There's a world of good cheer in one hox of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets,— at any drugstore, 50c.

Send us your name and address to-day and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Mar-shall, Mich.

the entire six contestants proved such the entire six contestants proved such a high state of efficiency that they all were entitled to promotion, and the other two were placed on the list for advancement. Captain J. C. Johnson then formed his company and Colonel Yoran presented them the trophy, a silver cup, for winning the state prize in marksmanship. He spoke a few for some years. While I regret their loss, I glory in your achievement." After the exercises the company gave a banquet to their visiting officers

OUTMAN FOUND NOT GUILTY

Salesman Proves He Has Legal Residence in City of Pullman.

COLFAX, Wash. Nov. 28.—(Special.)—After being out 20 minutes, the Whitman County jury found W. D. Outman not guilty of illegal voting, Outman, who travels for W. H. McMonies, & Co., of Portland, voted at Pullman the last election, having formerly lived there. The case was brought before the Whitman County grand jury and an indictment was found against Outman, the only indictment found during the session.

Outman's firm wired him at Coos Bay of the indictment. Outman then wired Sheriff Ratliff stating he would reach Colfax without delay, which he did, and gave bond. Trial was set for November 15 and Outman again appeared, but trial was postponed until November 25. The state presented very weak evidence. The local saloon people of Pullman backed the prosecution, but failed to prove that Outman had lost his risidence at Pull-man, though his duty as a salesman called him away.

Mr. Outman stated that the case had cost him a great loss of time and expense of $200.

Mrs. Samuel Batdorf.

OREGON CITY, Or., Nov. 26.—(Spe-ial.)—Mrs. Samuel Batdorf died last night at the Harrington Home Hos-pital in Gladstone, aged 32 years, after an illness of one week, of pneumonia. She is survived by a husband and a little daughter. Her home was in Wil-

Underwear, 20 per cent off— Hewett, Bradley & Co., 344 Washington at

FRESH AIR NEEDED

Medicine is not of much use to cure consumption. Fresh air and clean living are the essential forces to combat the dread white scourge. Every precau-tion should be employed to pre-vent the germs from settling on the lungs, and coughs and colds should not be neglected. To break up a cold quickly and cure any cough that is curable, mix a half ounce Virgin Oil of Pine with two ounces of glyc-erine and a half pint of good whisky. Shake well and take a teaspoonful every four hours. Five ounces of tincture of Cinchona compound can be used instead of whisky with the same

This mixture will usually break up a cold over night. Care should be exercised to use only should be exercised to use only the genuine Virgin Oil of Pine, which is prepared in the laboratories of the Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, O., and put up for dispensing, only in 45-ounce vials, each securely sealed in a round wooden case. It is better to purchase the different incredibility separately and mineral control of the cont ingredients separately and mix them at home.

ITISTIME

Christmas time is approaching, and you are wondering how you can live through the agonies of "What shall I give to him?" and "What would be appreciated by her?", etc.

EVERYBODY likes magazines. They make the best Christmas presents. Every month they will reach your friend, and bring to his attention your thoughtful kindness.

MAGAZINES are the most inexpensive SATISFAC-TORY Christmas gifts obtainable.

We have arranged combinations so that you may secure the best magazines at greatly reduced rates.

Don't Worry, But Order Now

REVIEW OF REVIEWS, $3.00 a year SUNSET MAGAZINE, 1.50 a year COSMOPOLITAN 1.00 a year SUCCESS MAGAZINE

Total, $7.00

THREE PREMIUMS,

ALL FOR

WITH OUTING, . . . $4.35 WITH WORLD TODAY, . $3.65 WITH McCLURE'S, . . 3.65 WITH AMERICAN, . WITH READER, . . . 4.35 WITH METROPOLITAN, . 3.65

The Review of Reviews is the absolutely necessary magazine for the American home. It will be especially desirable the coming "election year," and anyone desiring to know what the world is doing should have it each month. Dr. Shaw's "Progress of the World" and the timely cartoons are invaluable.

Sunset Magazine is the leading magazine of the West. It has chosen for its field this land of opportunity, and every Western home should have Sunset on the reading table. The coming year Sunset will have a large number of splendid stories by well-known authors.

No list is complete without the Cosmopolitan. At enormous expense the Cosmopolitan has secured for the coming year the leading writers of the country, "master workmen," who will contribute leading articles on subjects of special interest. Correspondents in the various "centers of the world" will give the readers of the Cosmopolitan the benefit of their experiences.

Success Magazine has been fitly termed the "Great Home Magazine," for every member of the family. Each issue contains a volume of splendid reading of interest to everybody. Leading authors favor Success with their best stories. Every issue contains a leading article which takes a high place in the magazine world for the month.

YOU WILL RECEIVE FREE, a portrait engraving of President Roosevelt, and two beautiful color engravings of California views, one of Santa Barbara Mission, the other of Yosemite Valley. These three pictures are all mounted. Each one of them will make an attractive Christmas gift.

ORDER FROM

SUNSET MAGAZINE

202 Flood Building, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

> Or 508 Wells-Fargo Building, PORTLAND, OR.

AGENTS WANTED