Imported Lingerie a Fourth Less See the superb window display. Come to the second floor and find exhibited and on sale the largest and most exquisite assortment of fine underwear ever brought to the Pacific Coast. All the past week we've been busy checking off a large shipment direct from Europe. These goods were due here over two months ago, but delay in transportation and in the local custom-house has held them up until now. The season is well advanced and the selling must, of necessity, be more rapid than had they reached us on time; therefore, we offer the entire line at one-fourth below the regular price. These garments are rare examples of artistic handiwork, marvels of dainty embroidery and original design. The materials are Persian lawn, linen or fine nainsook. They're embroidered by hand in very elaborate designs or in dainty bow knots, in fleur de lis effects or polka dots. Some are trimmed in real Normandy, Valenciennes or Point de Paris laces. Here is an opportunity for women of discriminating taste to stock up their wardrobe at much less than usual cost. As examples of the savings to be found:

DIVISIONISTS REQUEST REVIEW OF COURT DECISION.

Aberdeen Attorneys Propose to Carry Contest to United States Court if Need Be.

ABERDEEN, Wash, Dec. 3.—(Special.) — The attorneys representing those who have favored and fought for the division of Chehalis County are not going to give up until the Supreme Court listens to a petition asking for a review of the entire proceedings con-nected with the case.

A petition is now being prepared for a petition is now being prepared for a presentation to the court asking for a full raview. The attorneys on Grays Harbor are agreed, and they have had the opinions of outside attorneys that nied that the case will then be taken to the United States Supreme Court.

The decision to take the case once more to the Supreme Court has awakened new interest here in county divi-sion, which was supposed to have been settled, at least for some time. The Chehalls County Commissioners have audited the bill of W. H. Abel for $500), the amount agreed upon for fighting county division through the Supreme Court. The bill is allowed, pending action in the Superior Court of a hearing on an injunction brought by Samuel Benn, of this city, to prevent payment.

The money cannot be drawn on until the injunction proceedings are settled and the court has so far fixed no time for taking up the matter. It is the purpose of Mr. Benn and those interested with him to fight the proposed payment, if necessary, as far as the Supreme Court.

Want Federal Inspector.

MEDFORD, Or., Dec. 3 .- (Special.) -full review. The attorneys on Grays Harber are agreed, and they have had the opinions of outside attorneys that the Supreme Court Justice who decided that the legislative enactment is unconstitutional are untenable on all points which they considered. It is understood that if a rehearing is detary of Agriculture asking that he appoint a fruit inspector for duty here. G. W. Taylor was named to succeed Alfred Weeks as County Fruit Inspector the latter having found his business in-terests such that he could not devote the required attention to it.

Finds Them Obeying Law.

HEPPNER, Or., Dec. 3 .- (Special.)-E. D. Trumbull, deputy commissioner and factory inspector, who has been in Morrow County the past two weeks inspecting factories of all kinds, reports the mills in good shape and says the owners are not in the least antagonistic to the law. He has examined every sawmill in the mountains tributary to the place and the planing and flour mills in this city, besides the print shops and foundries.

MEDFORD, Or., Dec. 3.—(Special.)—
The State Railroad Commissioners have been invited by the Medford Commercial Club to meet in this city at the close of the meeting to be held in Ashland on the 3th inst. During the meeting here the business men will make a plea to the representatives of the Commission for the restoration of the night trains recently removed. WITNESS SAYS HE LED BODY OF ARMED MEN.

Witness Against Powers Tells Remarkable Story of Goebel Murder Conspiracy.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Dec. 3.-At the opening of the trial of Caleb Powers, the commonwealth put Robert Noakes, railroad conductor and labor leader, of Rosaville, Ill., on the witness stand. Noakes was jointly charged with Taylor. Powers and Finley, with being accessory to the assassination of Governor Goebel. but escaped indictment, it is alleged, by turning state's evidence.

Noakes testified that under the direction of Finley and Powers he took a posse of men to Frankfort in November, 1899, while the state election board was in ses-sion for the purpose of intlinidating that body. He said he had instructions to see before leaving that he had received $3000 justice was had, or to hang the election and promise of pardon for jumning his
