ARTS AND CRAFTS SOCIETY TO MEET.— The Society of Arts and Crafts is now sending notices to its members for its first social meeting which will be held today in the workshop at the Fair Grounds. It has been found that enough good articles in leather, metal illuminsting, stained glass, wood carving, photography, and textiles, including weaving, needlework, etc., can be collected for a good exhibit, but on account of the nearof the holidays before arrangements half been completed it was decided at a meeting of the directors to postpone the exhibition until later. The society has en fortunate in being able to secure Miss Wuest, the superintendent of the art department of the public schools, for the lecture, the subject of which will be "Baskerry." The talk will be illustrated by specimens of work done by members of the Portland Raffia Club. To many It will be a surprise to see that this branch of handlersit has been carried so far, not alone in the workmanship, but also the vegetable dyes that have entered into the color schemes. The meeting is for members and invited guests. It is hoped that a number of charter and other members who have neglected to qualify will do so and will be present

AID SOCIETY TRUSTEES MEET .- The reg ular monthly meeting of the board of trustees of the Boys' and Girls' Aid So-ciety was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the chambers of Judge Glibert, when there were present Judge Williams, F. E. Beach, Dr. T. L. Ellot, Judge Gilbert, Robert S. Farrell, Mrs. Levi White, Mrs. C. R. Templeton, Mrs. H. H. Northup and Superintendent Gardner. The superintendent in giving his report spoke of the kindly feeling evinced throughout the entire state by the large throughout the entire state by the large donations both from the public schools and private citizens. These donations consist of potatoes, canned fruit, apples, cereals, canned goods, and in fact a little everything, as well as $495.06 in cash, as matter of the sudden taking away of Judge A. L. Frazer was spoken of and resolutions of regret and condolence were passed and ordered spread on the minutes of the meeting.

DENIES RELATIVES ARE DESTITUTE -- W. W. Hepburn, a contractor residing at 1061 East Yambill street, whose daughterin-law and grandson, according to a dispatch from Pittsburg, are destitute, denies the story, declaring that the son's mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Mason, of Pittsburg, is wealthy. According to the dispatch, Hepburn's son, a telegraph op-erator, deserted his wife and 5-year-old son, leaving both destitute. About two weeks ago, Hepburn telegraphed to the Pittsburg police asking for their assist-ance in finding the family, and in reply received a telegram stating that the mother and child were found in destitute circumstances. A newspaper dispatch followed, confirming the story. Hepburn says that he had disowned his son for the marriage but nevertheless will send for the woman and child and give both a comfortable home if they need it.

W. C. T. U. WEDNESDAY TEA.-Mrs. E. H. Roper conducted the devotional ex-ercises at Central W. C. T. U. Wednes-day afternoon. Mrs. Loia Baldwin gave a stirring talk on the work of the Trava stirring talk on the work of the Travclers' Ald Society, now under the charge of the Y. W. C. A. Over 5000 women and PHONOGRAPH LAW NOT DISTURBED.-An attempt to amend the present ordinance regulating the conduct of phonograph parlors in the downtown district, failed at the session of the license committee of the City Council yesterday afternoon. It was sought to make the law read so that dealers in those noisy machines and similar devices could turn their instruments loose in freer fashion, but the present ordinance restricting them to the hours of 7 A. M. to 10 P. M. was left unchanged.

FUNERAL OF SIMON ABRAHAM.—Simon Abraham, for years the proprietor of a barber shop in the Esmond Hotel, died barber shop in the Esmond Hotel, died yesterday noon at the Good Samaritan Hespital. Accused of Stealing $20.—Charged with the larceny of a $20 gold piece, William Scott, a North End habitue, was arrested last night by Patrolman Annund-son, on complaint of George Ketchum, a laborer. According to Ketchum's story, he, in company with a party of friends, had entered Frank Dougherty's saloon, on Third street, and asked the bartender to change a twenty-dollar bill. The barto change a twenty-dollar bill. The bar-tender took the money, looked in the till, and seeing that he could not break the piece, threw the $20 piece back on the bar. At this, Scott, who is said to have been loitering about the saloon, reached over on the bar, picked up the money, and ran out of a back door. Ketchum and his friends followed, and at Fourth and Burnside streets pointed the fellow out to Patrolman Annundson, who promptly placed him under arrest. He was taken to the station, and searched, but the "twenty" was not found on his person. He was booked, however, on a charge of larceny, and later was balled out by his friends. Scott will appear before Mu-nicipal Judge Cameron this morning to answer the charge.

JUNILES SINGERS AT Y. M. C. A.-Inspite of the rain the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium was well filled last night when Slayton's Jubilee Singers began the entertainment of the evening with the "Song of the Vikings," and entertained songs, impersonations, and imitations of various instruments. Among the latter was an imitation of the cal-liope rendered by the male quartet, and of the banjo and violin. "When the Darkeys Had a Jubilee Day? was much appreciated by the audience; and throughout the entertainment the singers were often called back for the third time by the repeated rounds of applause. John Philip Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever" was the closing number. The personnel of the troupe is as follows: Miss E. P. Helms, prima donna; Mrs. M. Clemens, second soprano; Mrs. M. Clemens, second soprano; Madam C. Brown, contralto: R. Lewis, male soprano and impersonator; Ed Goodbar, first tenor; Don Wormley, baritone; William La De Acklin, basso; and O. W. Sanders, plantet ers, planist.

MR. U'REN TO BE SPEAKER.—It is announced that W. S. U'Ren, of Oregon City, will address the Initiative and Referendum League at its meeting tonight at Carpenters' Union, corner Grand ave-nue and East Pine streets. Mr. U'Ren has been closely identified with the initiative and referendum from the start. Comtive and referendum from the start. Com-pletion and adoption of the new constitu-tion will be the business on hand. That instrument was read section by section, and the main portion approved at the last meeting. After the constitution is adopted officers are to be elected and committees appointed. All interested in the purposes of the league are invited to attend the meeting tonight.

KEEP THE PRICE DOWS .- Don't you feel t is your duty to keep the price of meat lown? Don't you feel it is your duty to feed your family on the purest and fresh-est of Oregon meats when they are cheaper than cold-storage meats? You'll say yes. Then trade with the Frank L. NEVER HEARD OF PLACE

Account of Automobile Ride After Theater the Star Brands as Gross Fabrication and Slander. Hopes to Appear Tonight.

MADAME SCHEFF'S STATEMENT.

Monday night. I have heard of a place by that name in New York, but if there is such a place pear Portland I have never heard of it. I have never made it a part of my life to go out to parties or dinners after my performances. Sometimes, it is true, I have called at the home of friends, after the close of my night's work. It hardly seems cred-ible that I should be called upon to defend myself against such a charge. I have felt since I came to America that the American gentleman stood for all that is honorable and would ever defend a woman. I have yet no reason to change my mind. Why brand all men because one has made

The foregoing statement was made ast night by Madam Scheff as she lay on a sick bed in her rooms at the Portland Hotel. That she was a sick woman was easy to determine—sick not only at heart, but physically as

FRITZI SCHEFF.

Madam Schoff received a representative of The Oregonian in her rooms at the Portland Hotel last night and for the first time since she started on the tour in "M'lle Modiste" consented to a personal interview. That Madam Scheff was ill it needed no physician to prove. Just to have listened to the voice that has charmed and delighted thousands was enough to have given the direct lie to the story of a night at Claremont or even in the society of con-vivial friends.

"It almost seems impossible that I should be called upon to deny such a statement," said Madame Scheff last night, "for I am sure that such a thing could not be said about any member of my company. I have always counted so much on the chivalry of the American public that I cannot believe they will believe such a story about me. If critics had said that I had not sung well, or had found fault with my performance, that would have been for. I may not have agreed with then to be charged with neglecting my are is something that I cannot comprehend.

"I am delighted with the reception that was accorded to Miss Morrison. I am proud to know that my understudy was capable of taking my place. But I wonder if those who read that shame-ful story stopped for a moment to think that I have played the part of M'lle Modiste for 100 nights without missing a performance, and that when I do not appear in the part that I lose money. This is just putting forward the mer-cenery side of the case. Oh, if the people only could understand how this has hurt me, they would, I know, weep just as bitterly as I have.

"I will admit that, in a measure, I am a public character from the time that the curtain goes up on a performservice. All of the special features as ance until it goes down on the final act. This is a 1 _ t of my life, and I assure you the best part of it. It would be strange, indeed, if I had no private life, but I want to say that none of my priinstrumental selection. Miss Ruth Pick-thorne will recite. Refreshments will be served. All interested in the work of the club will be made welcome to the ple. It took the waiter a long time to serve me, and I scolded him, saying that I was tired and wanted to retire." GUTTER TO BE LEVELED.—The inconvenient and unsightly gutter on Sixth street in front of the Postoffice building is to be leveled up by laying a drainpipe and covering it with crushed rock and concrete. The work is to be commenced this morning by the contractors, Marshall Brothers, at a cost to the city of $33. The work was necessitated by the great inconvenience whigh the gutter was to the mail wagons in getting to and from the Postoffice.

CAE HITS DELIVERY WAGON.—Purely

Unlike most stars would have been, she was genuinely pleased with the ability that Miss Morrison displayed in taking her part and was enthusiastic in her praise. Madame Scheff, in case she can get Mr. Dickson's permission, will sing tonight.

HAMLIN, TENOR, IS COMING

Sings Here Dec. 12 and Seat Sale Opens Tuesday Morning.

That rara avis of the musical world, a really great tenor, will be heard here December 12 under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn Coman. George Hamlin, who has been creating such a furore of enthusiasm on two continents during the past two seasons, is now reaching the zenith of his fame. His voice is a magnificent organ of great compass and appeal-ing power that wins all hearers. Its purity and delicious freshness are un-dimmed by time, for he has all the exdimmed by time, for he has all the ex-uberant vitality and reserve force of early manhood. It is rare indeed to have such an opportunity to enjoy a great artist before he has reached the turning point in his career. Hamlin's art is now in its ripest perfection. The sale of seats opens Tuesday morning, December 17, at the Heille box office.

PIANOS AT COST.

Reed French Make a Christmas Offer Worth While.

No more fitting Xmas present can be nade than a plano. In this day and age a piano is not a luxury. It is as much a necessity as arithmetic or grammar. Everybody knows this. The prettiest present we can give a friend is to give him something that in-creases his knowledge; a yearly subscription to a magazine or a set of books; a course of study in some correspondence school, or a piano. These are things that last in one's life and means much more than a frivolous present.

Reed French Piano Company ordered a heavy stock of planos for their holiday that they are offering everything they have in stock, at cost, provided the cus-tomer will pay at least $100 DOWN AND THE BALANCE WITHIN SIX to any one having the funds on hand to buy a piano; a $400 REED FRENCH PI-ANO MAY BE HAD FOR $200 or a $300 PIANO MAY BE HAD FOR $225. These instruments are absolutely the finest it is possible to make for the money.

This is a serious bid for business, and is prompted purely and simply to get quick money; for it, we will give a plane at absolute cost.

See us tonight! The Reed French Piano Company, Sixth and Burnside street.
