ergan, was fast.

Captain Lonergan has practically decided on the lineup. As yet, there is some doubt about Clark participating and in the event that he is unable to enter the game, George Alexander will play the halfback position held open for the famous Oregon punter. Dr. Paul Rader will be at his old position of fullback, and Captain Lonergan at one of the halves. Bert Flikington guard positions and "Stump" Stott and George McMillan will play the

With Pratt and Walker at tackles, Multnomah will be especially well prepared to meet the strong Seattle players. Wells and Dowd. In the Seattle game, when Multnomah was defeated, the work of Dow Walker was especially commented upon by the Seattle Press, and while they naturally favored Wells as the representative of the home town, they were compelled to the home town, they were compelled to recognize the giant Multnomah tackle for the excellence of his attack as well as defense work. Wells and Dowd are strong players and it will require all the ingenuity of the local pair to offser their work against the Winged-"M" this afternoon

ATHLETES FROM FAR NORTH

Meet Multnomah.

What promises to be the champion basthe North and will play against the Mulmomah team in the club gymnasium tonight. Twelve young men, husky as young polar bears, arrived in Portland yesterday and registered at the Imperial Hotel. Last night they played in Vancouver, Wash., against the Vancouver. Athletic Club team and won by a score of 21 to 11. This makes the fourth clean victory the Brotherhood team has scored since leaving Nome, and it has yet to meet defeat. Monday the team hopes to play another game in Portland, probably with the Y. M. C. A., but the details are not yet settled. Tuesday the Alaskans will play Oregon Agricultural College. esterday and registered at the Imperial play Oregon Agricultural College

BIG TRADE OF PLAYERS MADE

New York National Exchanges Five

Club football squad participated in the final practice yesterday previous to meeting the Seattle Athletic Club eleven on Multnomah Field this afternoon. All candidates were out and practice, under the watchful eyes of President McMillan and Captain Lonergan, was fast.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—One of the largest exchanges of players ever recorded in major league baseball was effected at the conclusion of the National League meeting here today, when the New York National League team exchanged Frank Bowerman, catcher; Cecil Ferguson. Men for Three of Boston's. Bowerman, catcher; Cecil Ferguson, pitcher; Daniel McGann, first baseman; George Browne, right fielder, and either William Dahlen, shortstop, or John Hannifan, sub, for Fred Tenney, first baseman; Thomas Nedham, catcher; Al Bridger and the forest of the Boston National well, shortstop, all of the Boston National League team. The exchange was effected by John McGraw, manager of the New York Club, and Joseph Kelly, the new manager of the Boston Club. Late to-night a representative of the Boston Club said that Dahlen would be accepted but not Hannifan.

With the passing of Bowerman, Mc-Gann, Dahlen and Browns, there remains Gann, Dahlen and Browns, there remains but a fragment of the famous ball team familiarly known as the "Glants," who captured the pennant after fighting close to it for four or five years. Devlin and Seymour are the only fielders remaining who were in the old aggregation. Several of the nitchers including Mathewson and who were in the old aggregation. Several of the pitchers, including Mathewson and McGinnity, and Bresnahan, catcher, remain, and of these it has been said that McGinnity was likely to be aisplaced. There has also been some talk of trading Bresnahan, but in view of today's changes, the plans regarding him will probably be dropped.

Many baseball enthusiasts will figure that Boston got the better of the deal, but McGraw differs with them. All he would say tonight, when questioned regarding the wholesale cleaning was that time would show that he had the best of the deal. It is more than likely that internal dissensions were largely responsible for the changes made by McGraw. The men he had secured from Boston. Tenney, Needham and Bridwell, are thoroughly seasoned players and have stood close to the front rank in their respective posithe front rank in their respective posi-

Sullivan of Butte. SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 13.-An unexpected termination to the main event of the evening in the S. A. A. C. tourna-ment here tonight came in the knockout of Eddle Johnstone, Spokane's crack amateur, by Gene Sullivan, of Butte. The latter was apparently beaten and all but out, when he suddenly caught Johnstone off his guard with a terrific right swing to the jaw. Johnstone was several minutes recovering.

Al Hammond, of Spokane, was given the decision over Earl Ritchey, of Portland, at the end of four fast rounds. Pete Moe, of Butte, was given the decision over Louis Orie, of Spokane, on a foul.
