AFTER MANY YEARS, POOR FARM AT LAST PROVIDED.

Will Save the County Much Money and Is Expected to Become Self-Supporting in a Few Years.

GRANTS PASS, Or., Dec. 15 - (Special.) After distributing the paupers of the county for a number of years here and there to various persons at miscellaneous prices, averaging annually $4276.54 for the last six years, the County Commissioners now have ready to be occupied on the 28-acre tract two miles north of town a well-constructed building two stories high with brick foundation for a poorhouse.

The structure contains 20 light and alry rooms with many modern conveniences, such as bathroom, wardrooms, and other accessories. A portion of the building will be used for a hospital ward when emergencies arise. It will be heated by a furnace from the basement. In time past the county has been at an exorbitant ex-pense, when a physician was ordered to visit patients 30 or 40 miles in the southern part of the county, frequently necessitating two or three days' absence, as well as creating livery hire, hotel bills and mileage. Under the present system all of these expenses will be eliminated.

SECOND TRIAL OF EDITOR HAR-DEN BEGINS IN BERLIN.

Further Sensations Promised in Effort of Von Moltke to Vindicate Himself in German Courts.

BERLIN, Dec. 15 .- The effort of Count Kuno von Moltke to vindicate himself in the trial which resulted from accusations made by Maximilian Harden, editor or Die Zukunft, having falled before the minor court, the case will now be taken up by the State's Attorney before a crim inal bench of five judges.

The second trial of Herr Harden will begin tomorrow and fresh revelations are awaited with tense expectancy by the public, because it is believed that much new testimony will be brought out concerning the so-called Camarilla surround-ing the Emperor. Prince Philip zu Enlenberg, Count von Moltke's divorced wife, Frau von Elde, and her, son, Lieutenani yon Kruse, are among the witnesses who shall be called. It is by no means cer-tain that the judges will allow the testimony to take a range wide enough to elicit political secrets of court or any-thing that may touch directly the person

The causes that have brought about a hew trial are somewhat obscure, but it has been regarded by the sober part of the community that Count von Moltke was not well supported in the first trial, and the case was limited to the legal issues. The powerful classes have felt that they were compromised by the proceedings and the verdict of the lower court. The officers of the corps resented the broad assertion against the morality and honor of the Army, and strong royalists felt that the principle of monarchy had lost prestige. The Conserva-tives generally regarded the country as having been damaged in foreign eyes.
