MAN WHO ATTEMPTED SUICIDE RECOVERING.

Says Infatuation for Woman Who Came Between Him and His Faithful Wife Is Ended.

William Burner, who attempted suicide when called upon to choose between his wife and Mrs. Maggie De Reign, by shooting himself through the body, on North Sixth street. Saturday night, will probably recover from his wound. The man, who occupies a cot at the Good Samaritan Hospital, is getting over his infatuation for the De Reign woman. He has prom-ised to be faithful to his wife, who has watched faithfully at his bedside ever since he was brought to the hospital. Burner has not been told that Mrs.

downfall. In giving her side of the case,

"I have known Maggie De Reign since I was a little girl, she having formerly lived near the farm on which I was raised, and while I knew William, my husband, was inclined to run around while in his cups, I did not know for a long time that he was intimate with Mrs. De Reign. The statement that Mrs. De Roign acquired a taste for liquor through her association with my busband is not so, for she was in the habit of drinking heavily seerval years before she became acquainted with William, and De Reign himself is responsible for her acquiring the habit, for he placed liquor at her disposal in their own home.

"My home is not the first one Mrs. De Reign has broken up, and her husband seemingly does not care for how many more domestic troubles she is responsible. "A few days before the Saturday night affair, I had brought William face to face with Mrs. De Reign and at that time gave him an opportunity of choosing between us, and at that time he chose me. Saturday, when I heard that he was not at his place of employment. I summoned Mr. Magnusson, a friend of my husband, and he accompanied me on a hunt for him. While walking up Sixth said nothing for several seconds, and the pulled the revolver and shot himself.

"He informed me afterwards that he had no intention of shooting Mrs. De Reign and that he knew she had made a fool of him and wanted to end it all. I am sorry to learn of her unfortunate condition, which I think has been brought about by drink. She told me on one occasion that she could not get along with out strong drink, and her daughter in-forms me that while Mr. Burner and she were on the trip to Aberdeen, they drank together continually, and I don't believe that my husband was in his sober sense at any time during that period, for as soon as he got sober he came back to his home and the children."

LAND TRANSFERS NORMAL

Totals Again Foot Up to Figures Made Before Holidays.

As was predicted by real estate men, the records of transfers at once assumed the normal totals at the close of the holidays.

Burner has not been told that Mrs.

De Reign has been committed to the asylum as insane, and will likely not be apprized of her fate until he is stronger.

Mrs. Burner, when seen at the hospital last night, said that she desired to correct a statement attributed to the husband of the De Reign woman, who was
