STEALS MILK; GETS 30 DAYS

Seattle Man Declares the Pangs of Hunger Tempted Him.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Thirty days in the County Jail was the sentence meted out today to Albert Bittie as punishment for stealing a bottle of milk worth 7 cents. Bittie declares that he was starving and that he has had nothing but a few crusts of bread to eat for two days. This morning he saw the milk in the doorway of a restaurant and could not overcome the demands of his hunger and took it intending to drink it as he ate a crust of bread he had in his pocket. Just as he was about to take a drink from the bottle he was hailed by a policeman and in his fright dropped the bottle.
