DISCHARGE SPECIAL POLICEMAN MAHER

Guilty of Conduct Unbecoming an Officer, Declare Commissioners.

INSULTED FALLEN WOMAN

Patrolman Matt P. Murphy Severely Reprimanded for Neglect of Duty—One Member of Force Comes in for Praise.

Ed Maher, a special policeman, who has walked a downtown beat on Morrison and other prominent thoroughfares for two years, was discharged by Police Commissioners Greene and Sabin last night on his own testimony. In stripping him of his authority, the commissioners told Maher that no man could wear a star in Portland who would use language toward women such as that admittedly used by Maher.

After Maher had admitted having used most shocking language toward a woman in the West Coast Oyster Parlors, early on the morning of December 19, because she told him he "looked like a priest," Commissioner Sabin said:

"Well, Mr. Maher, I can say that the woman, no matter what her station, was not greatly mistaken. You admit using the language charged against you, which will cost you your star. That's the way I look at it. Just because, as you have asserted, she was a fallen woman, you had no business to use ungentlemanly language in her presence."

"No officer can wear a star in this city and use such language as you used, if we know of it," commented Commissioner Greene. "You're not the kind of policeman we want."

"All right," hotly replied Maher, and left the room in a rage.

"Will Fire Whole Bunch."

"Have we any more special policemen down town?" asked Commissioner Greene of Chief Gritzmacher. "If we have, we'll fire the whole bunch."

Chief Gritzmacher replied that Maher was the last downtown special policeman.

After Maher left the committee-room, Patrolman Suittor, a member of the second relief of police, testified that Maher had been hampering him on his beat, which was the same as Maher's. Suittor swore that Maher, when he first went on the beat, tried to get him to neglect his duty, and later invited him to drink in a saloon. Suittor said he refused both times. Later, Suittor said he caught waiters in the Jewel Oyster House selling liquor contrary to ordinance, and threatened to arrest the proprietor. Upon hearing of this, Suittor said Maher declared he would have him discharged if he ever molested the place again. At another time, Suittor declared, Maher accepted money from a rough crowd of youths who were disorderly on the street.

Patrolman Matt P. Murphy was also on trial last night, and was severely scored by Commissioners Greene and Sabin. Murphy went to Mount Tabor one night without reporting to his captain, and at another time was charged with loitering in a livery stable while on duty. The accused officer explained his conduct by saying he thought he was doing good police work in each instance.

Explanation Not Accepted.

"Your explanation don't go with me at all," said Chairman Greene, after Patrolman Murphy finished. "I have to say that I think you are an incompetent policeman; that you don't know your business, and that you are not the kind of policeman we desire to have on the force. You don't seem to have any idea of discipline at all."

Mr. Greene's language was called forth more particularly because of the accused officer's attitude toward Sergeant Cole, who swore to the complaint against Murphy. Murphy told the committee that he did not consider it any of Sergeant Cole's business, and declared Cole had lied. He further expressed a willingness to prefer a counter charge against the sergeant.

In striking contrast to the first two cases, was that of Policeman George Adams, who patrols an Albina beat on the first relief. He was presented with a fine gold watch and chain as a token of the esteem in which he is held by the residents of his district. It was the question as to whether the committee should allow the officer to accept the gift that caused the matter to come up for discussion. After some talk, it was decided to permit him to accept the watch and chain, which is to be officially presented to him for the people on the beat by Chief Gritzmacher, with the compliments of the police committee.

BABIES ON EXHIBITION

Special Display and Sale at Eilers Piano House.

Lovers of the beautiful should make a point to inspect the finest display of grands and baby grands that has ever been made in the West, now being shown at Eilers Piano House. This is a special exhibit and sale of the choicest instruments, made by the foremost makers of the world and is a gathering never before duplicated in any American piano establishment.

Noteworthy in the present display may be mentioned the famous Chickering "Quarter Grand," as well as Chickerings of larger size, the hand-made Art Hazelton, the splendid Sohmer, the beautiful Bush & Gerts, several superb Lesters, of Philadelphia fame, and Chicago's magnificent high art product, the Kimball, as well as many of the glorious Weber make, the piano of today, possessing the wonderful whole tone which has captivated a Rosenthal, a Paderewski and all the great grand opera stars. Those interested in the purchase of a Grand or Baby Grand should by all means see this display and take advantage of this sale.*

VOTE TO STAND BY GUNS

Union Ironmolders Resolve to Fight Employers to Finish.

Union ironmolders met last night in their hall in the Alisky building and took concerted action on the present strike. All agreed to stand firm and refuse to return to work until the nonunion men now at work are discharged and the "open shop" abandoned by employers in this city. The men refused to return to work yesterday morning in the four shops of the city where nonunion molders had been put to work. In eight foundries no attempt was made yesterday to enforce the open shop rule.

The shops now being boycotted by union molders are the Willamette Iron & Steel Works, the Portland Iron Works, Smith & Watson's and the Columbia Steel Company.

"The nonunion men are fighting our fight for us," said a union molder last night. "These men imported are strikebreakers and are not mechanics. They cannot do good work and any company employing them will lose money on the work they do, for a large proportion of the castings will be unfit for use. The nonunion men brought here for the purpose of putting the open shop into effect are a bad lot. They would desert the employers if we would pay them to do so.

"No matter how long we have to fight this thing, our men are loyal and not one will go back to work until this thing is settled right."

COUNTY IS MAKING MONEY

Report of Clerk Fields Shows Margin of $27,318 Profit for 1907.

Although the receipts of County Clerk Fields' office were $3316.19 more in 1907 than they were in 1906, the report of Mr. Fields, just issued, shows that the expenses were $48.39 less during the year just closed than during the previous year. This is a gain of $15,763.87 over the expense which the county was put to in 1901 to maintain its business. During 1901 there was a dead loss to the county of $22,796.52, the receipts being $23,618.83 and the expenses $47,415.35. During 1906, however, the county made a profit of $23,953.98, with receipts of $55,653.85 and expenses of $31,699.87. The profit to the county in 1907 was $27,318.56, the receipts being $58,970.04 and the expenses $31,651.48. This profit would have been much larger except for the 60 days of enforced idleness among the county employes during the bank holidays.

The report for December also shows the falling off in county profits, for they were but $1581, while in 1906 they amounted to $2029.85. In December, 1901, the county was put to an expense of $2576.81, its expense being more than twice as much as the receipts.

The receipts for December, 1907, were as follows: Circuit Court department, $318.95; County Court department, $1334.75; recording department, $1952.30; total, $3606. The expense for supplies was $433.15, and for salaries, $1,651.15, or $2084.30 in all.

In 1906 the Circuit Court department of the county received $1168.40; the County Court department, $1097.15, and the recording department, $2424.90, or a total of $4,690.45. In the same month $284.35 was spent for supplies, and $2276.25 for salaries, or $2960.60 in all.

The receipts for the last month in 1901, however, were only $2259.95, $706.35 of this being taken in by the Circuit Court department, $583.75 by the County Court department, and $969.85 by the recording department. Supplies cost $459.42 during that month, and salaries amounting to $4372.34 were paid, making a total expense of $4831.76.

CHAIRMAN ISSUES CALL

Democratic State Committee Will Meet Here January 18.

The manner of choosing delegates to the State Democratic Convention will be one of the matters to come up at the meeting of the State Democratic Committee, at the Imperial Hotel, January 18. The call for this meeting has just been issued by Chairman Alex Sweek. About 33 delegates from all parts of Oregon will attend. The election of a new state committee will also come up.

Whether the convention system will be resorted to in electing the delegates to the state convention, or whether the direct primary system will be used, is one of the problems to be settled. Further than these matters, Democrats say, there is nothing definite on the programme.

Clarke Confers With Levey.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—Francis B. Clarke arrived in Tacoma today from St. Paul, to confer with C. M. Levey, third vice-president of the Northern Pacific, whom he succeeded as president of the Portland & Seattle Railway. A conference was held at Northern Pacific headquarters building. Accompanying him to Tacoma, is F. A. Piel, who was formerly in Mr. Hill's office at St. Paul.

TAX LEVY FINALLY MADE 14.2 MILLS

County Commissioners' Board Fixes Rate 1.8 Mills Less Than Last Year.

YIELD SUM OF $3,182,200

Attempt Made to Keep Levy to 14 Mills, but Expenses Additional to Those of Last Year Must Be Provided For at This Time.

The total tax levy for Portland was fixed at 14.2 mills yesterday when the Board of County Commissioners met and named a levy of 1.4 mills for the county, .9 mill for the county roads, and .1 mill for the Library. The levy last year was 16 mills, on a property valuation of $181,000,000.

The total levy is divided into the various state, county and city levies as follows: State, 1.6 mills; state schools, 1.4 mills; county, 1.4 mills; county roads, .9 mill; library, .1 mill; Port of Portland, 1.2 mills; city, 4.6 mills; school district No. 1, 3 mills.

The total amount of assessable property in Multnomah County is $223,000,000, and the amounts which will accrue to the different funds when the taxes have been paid this year, have been figured by Assessor Sigler with the following results: Total tax, $3,182,200; state, $375,000; state school, $326,400; county, $326,400; county roads, $209,800; library, $23,300; Port of Portland, $273,000; City of Portland, $991,300; school district No. 1, $657,000.

Try to Keep to 14 Mills.

An effort was made by the Commissioners to figure the tax levy down to 14 mills, but they found it impossible, as however, were only $2259.95, $706.35 of this being taken in by the Circuit Court department, $583.75 by the County Court department, and $969.85 by the recording department. Supplies cost $459.42 during that month, and salaries amounting to $4372.34 were paid, making a total expense of $4831.76.

TAX LEVY ON PROPERTY IN CITY OF PORTLAND IS FIXED AT 14.2 MILLS

The County Court at its meeting yesterday morning fixed the tax levies for state and county purposes. The total levy for property in the City of Portland is 14.2 mills. The following table gives a comparison of the tax levies and the revenues available for 1907 and 1908:

	1907. Mills.	1907. Yield.	1908. Mills.	1908. Yield	Increase '08 over '07
State	2.000	$ 361,800	1.6	$ 373,000	$ 11,200
State school	1.900	343,700	1.4	326,400	*17,300
County	1.800	325,600	1.4	326,400	800
County roads	1.175	212,500	.9	209,800	*2,700
Library	.125	22,600	.1	23,300	700
Port of Portland	.800	141,000	1.2	273,000	132,000
City	5.700	949,900	4.6	991,300	41,400
School District No. 1	2.500	421,700	3.0	657,000	235,300
Total	16.00	$2,778,800	14.2	$3,182,200	$401,400

*Decrease.

The state and state school levies are fixed by law; the county, county roads and library are fixed by the County Commissioners; the city levy by the City Council; the Port of Portland, by the Port of Portland Commission, and that of School District No. 1 by the taxpayers of the district on recommendation by the School Directors.

three elections are to be held this year which they were not obliged to figure on last year, and this additional expense will amount to between $30,000 and $25,000, according to County Clerk Fields. Besides this the Burnside bridge repairs, the construction work on the detention home, and the repairs to the Armory must all be provided for, and it will be necessary to pay out $50,000 more in salaries this year than last, by reason of the action of the last Legislature in raising the salaries of county employes. The increase amounts to about $4000 a month. Seven months' salaries under the advanced scale were paid last year.

Out of 54 school districts 30 have made levies. The tax will be 5.4 mills in those school districts outside the Port of Portland where no school tax has been levied, and as the Port of Portland levied a tax of 1.2 mills, the tax for those districts levying no school tax, but which are within the Port of Portland will be 6.6 mills. The levies for the various school districts of Multnomah County are as follows:

Twenty-six Different Rates.

It will be seen from the above that the County Clerk will have 28 different rates to figure on in extending the tax roll. This work will begin next Monday, and is facilitated by the use of a list for each one of the 26 rates. Upon these lists the amount of tax due is set down opposite the figures designating various property values. Thus, if a given piece of property was assessed at $150, and was in School District No. 3, where the rate is 7.1 mills, the Deputy Clerk upon glancing down the property value column of his list for District No. 3 will find that the tax upon this property for the year is $1.065 and would so set it down upon the tax roll.

EXHIBIT OPENS MONDAY

Work of Architects to Be Shown at Art Museum.

Architects are taking a lively interest in the first annual exhibition of the Portland Architectural Club, which will open Monday and will continue until January 18. Elaborate preparations have been made for the event, 100 exhibitors having contributed a total of 500 pieces for exhibition.

Those promoting the exhibit have in mind the establishment of a circuit of architectural exhibits to be held annually in the principal cities of the Northwest. This would have many beneficial effects, chiefly the establishment of higher standards of architecture, and the education of the public in what is good in architectural design.

In the first annual exhibit the work of leading architects will be shown. Besides drawings there will be art tiles, terra cotta, garden pottery and the general accessories of the architect's art.

The exhibit will be held in the galleries of the Museum of Fine Arts, at Fifth and Taylor streets. The jury of awards has been selected and will be made up of W. B. Ayer, I. N. Fleischner, Mrs. Hugh Hume and Joseph Jacobberger.

In the exhibit will be seen the designs of several handsome new Portland buildings, including the new Y. M. C. A.-Y. W. C. A. home. Some 200 invitations have been issued to a private view of the exhibit on the night of January 6. The public at large will be admitted on all other occasions.

MRS. CHARLES HILL DEAD

Burns Received by Accident Prove Fatal to Sellwood Woman.

Mrs. Charles Hill, of Sellwood, who was terribly burned New Year's morning on returning home from a masquerade ball, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital at 11:45 o'clock last evening as the result of her injuries. Mrs. Hill was dressed to represent "Winter" and was wearing a costume of gauze covered with loose cotton. Her husband, in lighting the house lamp, dropped the match so that it set fire to her dress, and she was enveloped in flames. Her husband, after a heroic effort, succeeded in extinguishing the flames, and in so doing was himself severely burned.

It was not believed at the time that the burns would prove fatal, but yesterday it developed that Mrs. Hill was injured more severely than was expected.

At the Theaters

What the Press Agents Say.

"WOODLAND" MAKES HIT.

Savage's Production at the Heilig Tonight and Tomorrow.

The attraction at the Heilig Theater, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight and tomorrow night, at 8:15 o'clock, will be Henry W. Savage's production of Pixley & Luder's beautiful bird fantasy musical-comedy, "Woodland." The fact of its being a Savage company is a guarantee to Portland theater-goers of an excellent and finished performance. Last night's big audience enjoyed every minute of this tuneful offering and were loath to stop encoring the many catchy melodies and witty sayings. A special price matinee will be given tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon. Seats are selling at theater box-office for the entire engagement.

"THE CRISIS" AT THE BAKER

Only Three More Performances of Winston Churchill's Play.

The immense popularity of Winston Churchill's novel, "The Crisis," is fully demonstrated this week at the Baker, where some of the largest audiences of the season have attended to witness the Stock Company's presentation of the play, which is James K. Hackett's dramatization of the book. The production given of it is well worthy of the high-priced organizations that have played it through the country.

Teddy Bear for Some Child.

Some child will be made happy at the Empire tomorrow afternoon, for the one under 12 who guesses nearest to the actual number of persons in the audience will be given the handsome Teddy bear now on exhibition in the down-town window. There is an amusing song in the farce "Are You Crazy?" which is pleasing large audiences at the Empire this week:

"A Man of Mystery."

Good detective plays are always wanted and one of the best is found this week at the Star Theater, where the French Stock Company is presenting "A Man of Mystery." This is the story of a detective's chase for a noted criminal, who is a hypnotist, and who uses this power to overcome his victims and force them to help him in his crimes.

"A Man's Broken Promise."

The talk of the town is "A Man's Broken Promise" at the Lyric this week, in which the Allen Stock Company is distinguishing itself anew. It is one of the most sensational melodramas ever written and is calculated to keep the attention of any audience from start to finish. It is the show hit of the week.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Seat Sale Opens Today for James T. Powers in the "Blue Moon."

This morning at 10 o'clock, at box-office the Heilig Theater, Fourteenth and Washington streets, the advance seat sale will open for Schubert Brothers' production of the big musical play, "The Blue Moon," with the famous comedian, James T. Powers, and an excellent supporting company of principals, together with a large chorus. This magnificent attraction will be the bill for four nights, beginning next Sunday, January 5, with a special price matinee Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Powers' side partner in fun is Clara Palmer, a dainty little Miss, renowned chiefly for excellent voice and naivette.

SEAT SALE OPENS TODAY.

Florence Roberts to Appear at the Marquam Next Week.

The seat sale for the Florence Roberts engagement opens at the Marquam Theater at 10 o'clock this morning. The play that has been selected for Miss Roberts' opening is the New York Princess Theater success, "Zira," written by Henry Miller and J. Hartley Manners, and based on incidents in Wilkie Collins' famous novel, "The New Magdalen." This will be played Wednesday and Thursday, January 8 and 9. The playwrights have added to the thrilling plot wrought by the brilliant novelist, a new and enchanting dialogue, strong situations, vivid emotional scenes and a new treatment of this most remarkable story.

The latter half of Miss Roberts' engagement, Friday and Saturday, January 9 and 10, will be devoted to "Sham," a New York society comedy, which will be presented for the first time on any stage.

"Soldiers of Fortune."

Sunday matinee next, Richard Harding Davis' noted drama, founded upon the adventures of a party of Americans in South America, "Soldiers of Fortune," will open at the Baker for the week. This is a play many have been waiting for, and the week will be a most important one at the popular playhouse. The love story of Robert Clay and Hope, the youngest daughter of a wealthy mineowner, is a beautiful one.

"At the Old Cross Roads."

Of all the numerous stage creations that pass muster with theatergoers each season there are only a few that linger in the memory as something far above the ordinary. Such a play is "At the Old Cross Roads," which will be presented here all next week at the Empire Theater. It is a very taking story of Southern life and the romance was written around an actual occurrence.

"The Transgressor" Next Week.

The stellar attraction at the Lyric next week will be Ralph Stuart's successful comedy, "The Transgressor," in which the Allen Stock Company will appear to splendid advantage. It is said to be one of the funniest plays ever written, and with the most popular members of the Allen Company in the principal roles it cannot fail but be popular. Opening performance Monday night.

New Melodrama.

There will be a new melodrama at the Star Theater the coming week, when "A Child of the Slums" is to be produced. This will be its premier in this city. The play will be elegantly and appropriately staged and played by the popular French Stock Company.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS

Cheerful Specialties.

Cheerfulness is the keynote of the vaudeville entertainments at the Grand. Tom and Edith Almond are entertainers from across the pond. They have a reputation in dear old London and they are bringing to Portland the same act that made good in the old country. It is a novelty musical act, with dancing trimmings. The Musical Bells have a harmony turn which is one of the brightest parts of the bill.

Crowds Visit Pantages.

Packed houses, tumults of applause—that is the show of public approval the New Year's bill at Pantages is receiving this week. You will say it is the best vaudeville show you ever saw, barring none. Dooley and troop in their comedy act, Harrington the phenomenal ventriloquist, the inimitable Buncth and Rudd, the Browns, Miss Lizzie Wilson, and so on through the list the acts are unsurpassed by anything that ever came this way.

VERY SIMPLE HOME TEST

TO FIND OUT IF THE KIDNEYS ARE INACTIVE.

Highly Recommended Home Prescription Which Anyone Can Prepare.

There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart, when death follows.

Pains across the back, frequent, painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

A simple test of the urine is to void a small quantity in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment or white, fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and the sufferer should mix it at home: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

KUBELIK

and his Knabe Piano

will be heard at the Heilig January 9th and 11th. The public has gone wild over this great artist. Never has an artist received a greater ovation than that given Kubelik during his recent tour through the Eastern cities.

Kubelik uses the Knabe exclusively. These beautiful pianos can be seen in our parlors.

FIRST LYNCHING OF YEAR

Negro Shot by Mississippi Mob in Daylight.

BROOKHAVEN, Miss., Jan. 2.—The first lynching of 1908 occurred here today when a mob in broad daylight took a negro away from police officers and shot him. The negro, whose name was Kan, was accused of killing a policeman at Oakvale, Miss., on Tuesday night. The negro had been arrested as a suspicious person, but he came to Brookhaven looking for medical treatment for a gunshot wound in the abdomen.

The mob got him away from the police by using a lasso, which was thrown over the negro's neck as the officers hurried him to jail. After the lynching a negro who saw the body said it was that of Coot Aulman, accused of killing a policeman in this vicinity December 19.
