MOVEMENT OF HOPS

Shipments From Oregon to Date Are 75,000 Bales.

LARGE QUANTITY REMAINS

Only a Few Transactions Reported in the Market—Growers Will Meet at Woodburn Saturday to Elect Union Director.

Shipments of hops from this state from September 1 to December 31 amounted to 75,000 bales, the movement by months being as follows:

| | Bales. |
|---|---|
| September | 5,734 |
| October | 19,937 |
| November | 19,329 |
| December | 30,000 |
| Total | 75,000 |

As no tabulation has yet been made of the quantity remaining in the state, accurate figures on the 1907 Oregon crop cannot be given. Dealers of this city still cling to their former estimates, which range from 120,000 to 130,000 bales for the entire state. Of the hop shipments since the season opened about 5000 bales were of the 1906 crop. Taking an average of the dealers' estimates of the 1907 yield, or 125,000 bales, the withdrawal of the quantity of new hops above noted would leave some 55,000 bales of 1907s yet to be moved out of the state. The holdings of 1906s still in Oregon are estimated at about 12,000 bales, making a total of 67,000 bales of old and new hops available. In Washington some 75,000 bales of 1907 hops are unsold, together with 35,000 bales of olds. In the two states there are a total of 78,000 bales of all growths yet to be disposed of.

The hop market is not very active at the present time, but there is a possibility of considerable business in the near future. Among the latest purchases reported was the Gebbie lot of 145 bales of old and new hops at Cornelius, secured by O. Weidner & Co. The J. W. Seavey Hop Company bought 150 bales at Silverton, 93 bales at Hillsboro and 100 bales at Eugene at prices ranging from 5 to 6 cents.

A number of growers in Yamhill County have made up a pool of 2000 bales, which were sent East with J. J. Metzler as their selling agent. Mr. Metzler arrived in New York yesterday.

A hopgrowers' meeting will be held at Woodburn January 4 for the purpose of electing a director of the Pacific Coast Hopgrowers' Union for the districts of Woodburn, Gervais, Silverton, Mount Angel, Monitor, Elliott, Prairie and Needy Prairie. Captain George Pope, who issues the call for the meeting, requests all growers of the districts to be present.

WESTERN WOOL IN EASTERN MARKETS

Fine Oregon Staple Is Closely Cleaned Up—Territories Active.

According to the latest mail advices from Boston, there has been but little doing in Oregon wools in that market. Fine staple is well sold up and what is left is quoted at 23c. Eastern clothing wools are offered at 18 to 19c, to cost clean 66 to 67c, but are not in special demand. Valley wools are offering at 25 to 26c, for Nos. 1 and 3, and at 27c for No. 2.

In territory wools, a few transactions of large size were reported in the last week at prices below the market for good wools. The sales were forced and are not a criterion of what good wool will bring under ordinary market conditions. About 600,000 pounds of fine and fine medium clips, in the original bags, including Utah and Idaho, have been cleaned up on the scoured basis of 58c.

New Mexican scoured wools are also lower, about 300 bags of year's growth selling at 58c, and there was a rumor of the same quality being sold at 55c. Such wools sell only under pressure and the outlook for short clothing wools generally is not bright, although a steadier market is looked for after the financial crisis is wholly passed.

A sale of 30,000 pounds of fine medium Montana clothing is reported at Boston at 23c in the grease, to cost 60 to 62 c clean, and several small transactions at 18 to 21c are reported in clothing wools, the scoured basis being placed at 63 to 65c for fine and 60 to 63c for fine medium.

EGG MARKET WEAKENS STEADILY.

Some Shading of Price Is Reported—Poultry Is Firm.

The egg market is weakening from day to day under larger arrivals and the easy tone is intensified by the holding back of buyers. The general quotation yesterday was 32½c, but it was said this figure was shaded in some instances.

Poultry of all kinds continues very scarce and as the demand was good, the prices of the first of the week were again quoted.

Dressed meats were strong with block pork and packers quoted a shade higher.

Butter Prices Not Uniform.

Conditions are again somewhat mixed in the local butter market. Some of the city creameries are long and others short of supplies, and prices, therefore, are not uniform. It was reported yesterday that one of the creameries had advanced to 40 cents, but this was denied at the creamery office. One or two other creameries, in the meantime, dropped to 35 cents. The rest of them held at the old quotation of 37½ cents. Front street was liberally supplied with out-of-town butter, a good part of it second-grade, and the feeling in that quarter was very weak.

Higher Wheat Prices Quoted.

The advance in the European grain markets gave wheat prices a firmer tone in the local market yesterday, and dealers quoted prices a cent higher than Tuesday. So far as could be learned, business was of small proportions, but if the foreign markets continue to show strength, there is likely to be a considerable buying movement in this section.

Good Demand for Fresh Produce.

There was a very fair demand yesterday for such kinds of fruit and vegetables as were available. The only arrivals was a car of sweet potatoes. Three cars of bananas are reported due next Tuesday, and a mixed car of oranges and tangerines is rolling. Celery is almost cleaned up.

Bank Clearings.

Bank clearings of the Northwest cities yesterday were as follows:

| | Clearings | Balances. |
|---|---|---|
| Portland | $ 938,500 | $135,721 |
| Seattle | 1,334,451 | 182,871 |
| Tacoma | 1,021,833 | 62,234 |
| Spokane | 1,063,336 | 183,771 |

NET GAINS SHOWN

Stocks More Than Recover the Early Losses.

TALK OF HARRIMAN SUIT

November Statement of Reading Shows Increase in Net Earnings. Improvement in the Money Market—Copper Is Higher.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Prices moved over quite a range today, but the market was narrow, measured by the extent of the numbers interested in it. Dealings were largely professional and reflected the readiness of the operators to turn quickly from one side of the market to another. The professional element sold freely at the opening and then rebought later in the day to cover short contracts, largely because the earlier selling had induced but little liquidation. The early decline was largely influenced by the news over the holiday of the application for receivers for the Seaboard Railway on account of its inability to meet the fixed charges due on January 1. The causes given for the plight of the property, especially the legislative pursuit of railroads in some of the Southern states and the stringency of the money market, are of such general application to railroads in that territory that they were generally responsive to the news.

Even more effect was produced on speculative sentiment by the reports from Washington, not without official sanction, that a suit would be actively pushed by the Government along the lines of the Northern Securities suit to force a dissolution of the Harriman railroad merger. There has grown up an assumption in some quarters of the financial world that a state of truce would obtain between the Government and the great railroad corporations as a measure of policy in view of the depression growing out of the financial crisis. Intimation of a plan looking to the segregation of the Union Pacific investments in the hands of a separate company was believed to assure the removal of objections of the authorities to the present condition. The Harriman railroad stocks, therefore, shared with the Southern group in the early depression.

The rise in prices which occurred toward the close of the year was persistently distrusted by the professional element, which was inclined to assume today that with the passing of New Year's day the occasion for supporting values would disappear. This view was fostered by the general note of conservatism in annual financial reviews as to the rate of recuperation to be expected in the general situation, a certain amount of commercial and industrial liquidation being commonly accepted as necessary before effective recovery may be looked for.

The downward course of railroad earnings also came in for special consideration. In this respect, the November statement of the Reading showed an exception in the increase of net earnings over those of last year and that stock led the recovery in the market. The strength of the market again became general as the day progressed.

The improvement of the money market also gave satisfaction, the early high rate of 20 per cent yielding steadily in the later dealings. Larger offerings of time funds were reported also, although rates in that department yielded but little. The dwindling premium on gold practically disappeared today. So long as the premium existed it was felt that an obstacle remained to be overcome to the establishment of normal banking conditions.

The reduction in the Bank of England's official discount rate from 7 to 6 per cent also marked the passing of one of the extraordinary measures which were signals of abnormal conditions. The lower bank rate is expected, however, to become more effective in holding up the London discount market, as the discrepancy in the bank and market rate has become so wide that borrowers would not resort to the bank. The weekly return of the Bank of France was weak and indicated the likelihood of an early call on the London market to return advances made to it by the Bank of France.

Copper rose again in the New York Metal Exchange, and this was a factor in lifting the price of stocks. Substantial net gains were shown at the end of the day.

Bonds were heavy. Total sales, par value, $1,911,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

CHICAGO DEMAND HEAVY

Small Receipts, Good Seaboard Clearances and Forecast of Light Argentine Shipments Are the Leading Bullish Factors.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The wheat market was strong all day and at times the demand greatly exceeded the offerings. Trade in oats was quiet, but the market was strong in sympathy with wheat and corn. May was ⅛c higher at 54⅝c, sold off to 54½c and then advanced to 55¼c. The close was at 54⅞c.

Provisions were firm on the strength of grain and a decline in the number of hogs killed at Western packing centers. May pork closed up to 22½c, lard was 20c higher and ribs 7½c up.

Women Smoke in Public.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—So successful was the plan of allowing women to smoke in the public dining-rooms, introduced at one of the prominent Broadway restaurants for the first time in New York New Year's eve, that another of the famous Broadway eating places has followed suit. It is expected that several more of them will fall into line immediately, but the big hotels and restaurants on Fifth avenue will not.

Polish Priest Denounces Kaiser.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Several hundred leading Polish-American citizens of Chicago were roused to enthusiasm by a speech of the Rev. Francis Gordon, pastor of St. Stanislaus Polish Catholic Church, in which he protested strongly against the alliance between the United States and Germany proposed by Professor John W. Burgess in an address to the Germanic Society of Chicago, Monday night. He denounced Emperor William for his attempts to Germanize the Poles and said: "Even the children are prosecuted and persecuted to an extent which may well rank Emperor William with Herod of infamous memory."
