MAYOR'S ORDER JARS SPOKANE

Goaded by Demands for Law Enforcement, City Will Be Closed Tighter Than Drum.

HOT SHOT FOR COUNCIL

Chief Ren Rice Denounced Becaus Saloonmen Are Not Jailed-Variety Theaters and Low Resorts Must Now Shut up Shop.

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 7 .- (Special.)-Spokane saloonkeepers, influential and otherwise, who sell liquor on Sundays, are to be thrown in jall. Variety theaare to be thrown in fall. Variety thea-ters are forbidden the privilege of allow-ing women on their floors where liquor is sold, and are, therefore, practically put out of business; and the Main and Yale blocks, where now are located nearly all the immeral women of Spokane, are to be Waiting until quarters are provided in the city jall where they may serve their sentences, are 45 saloonkeepers of Spokane. They have appeared in the municipal courtroom from day to day but because the city jall is overflowing with the court of the city jall is overflowing with the city is a server of the city is a court of the city jall is overflowing with the city is a court of the city jall is overflowing with the city is a court of the city is a court drunk vagrants, suspects and more dangerous criminals, the rumsellers have Hot shot was fired at the City Council seeting tonight. Councilman Pratt, who self-constituted champion of the moral-y element, denounced the Chief of Po-ce, Ren Rice, who, he declared, had lice, Ren Rice, who, he declared, had deliberately ignored his aworn duty in allowing sentenced criminals to roam the streets on parole. The saloonkeepers, be it understood, had been fined $25 each, but they formed a pact to refuse to pay the fines and reported to the chief for incarceration. These whisky dealers include W. S. Norman, who runs the largest first-class hotel in Spokane and Ta-est first-class hotel in Spokane and Tacoma, and other men prominent in fraternal society circles.

Pratt demanded that Chief Rice either obey the mandate of the court or resign his office. Thereupon Mayor Moore, who recently put the slot machines out of business, announced he would tighten the lid as it has never been tightened before. The immoral women are given until February I to vacate, and the variety til February 1 to vacate, and the variety aters are given one more night in which to arrange their establishments, if they so elect, into beer gardens sans

FIGHT ENDS CELEBRATION

Austrians Observe Christmas With Deep Drinking and Bloodshed.

As the result of a fight following a drunken orgie indulged in by a party of Austrian laborers in the saloon of Schastian Natscher, at First and Davis streets, yesterday afternoon. Stanley Muirkerchefk, & years old, is at his home, 184 East Russell street, nursing a buffet wound. Djuro Stankovich, aged 20, and Mike Senna, aged 28, are in the City Jall and the police are seurching for a man known only as Moussaer, who did the shooting.

Yesterday was Christmas, according to the Austrian calendar, and Natscher's saloon was crowded most of the day with convivial Austrians. The trouble came at 4 o clock in the afternoon. Stankovich became unruly and interrupted a pool game in progress in the next room and several of the men came into the barroom fighting. Stankovich attempted to get behind the bar and Senna, the bartender warped him away. Later Stankovich same back and tried to force his

At this stage of the proceedings. Natscher, the proprietor came in and ordered the men out of the place. Maussacr sided with Stankovich. They made a rush for Natscher. Moussaer pulled a gun and fired five shots, breaking glassware on the bar but missing Natscher. One shot struck Mairskerchefk, an innocent bystander. Stankovich made a ruch at Senna, who struck Stankovich over the head with a bottle. Moussaer ran out and escaped. The police were called and the three arrests followed.

Mairkerchefk's wound was dressed by Dr. Ziegler, the city physician, at the police station. It was found to be only slight and he was permitted to go head. The police have a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon against the bartender.

MAP OF THE EAST SIDE TERRITORY IT IS PROPOSED TO ANNEX TO THE CITY OF PORTLAND.

Residents in the southeastern suburbs of Portland have prepared maps of the territory it is proposed to annex to accompany the petitions when they are signed up and placed before the Ciry Council. The territory is embraced in sections 7 and 8, 17 and 18, in which are Woodstock, Tremont Place, Chicago, Tremont Park. In the district are two miles square of territory, with an extimated population of 12,000. The territory includes all the settlements on the Mount Scott railway from Anabel to Gray's Crossing. Petitions are now being circulated in the district and it is expected to get the required number of signatures of legal voters, in a short time. If the Council acts favorably, the people of the terirtory will have an opportunity to vote on the question corporation, which is to settle Eastern people on lands in Eastern Oregon.

Mr. Laber's relations with the members from a lack of shipping facilities. About of the executive committee of the Board of Trade are known to be cordial, and much regret has been expressed by them at his decision to sever his official connection with the organization.

Mr. Laber has been secretary of the Board of Trade for nearly three years and during that time has given entire satisfaction to its officers and members. It now has a membership of nearly 400 and is considered one of the most influen-tial bodies of the city.

The meeting of the Board which was the to have been held last night was post-poned until Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the questions of the ship registry and closing of the draws in the bridges crossing the Williamette will be discussed. A meeting of the executive committee will precede the regular meeting.

Eugene Needs More School Room.

Eugene Needs More School Room.

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—The Eugene public schools opened yesterday with an increased enrollment in the grades and a number of applicants for the high school. But the new students for the high school have been asked to report the first week in February, when the second term's work begins. On account of the large increase in attendance at the public schools, the board will be compelled to erect another school building before the Fall term opens.

from a lack of shipping facilities. About three months ago, he explained, the two steamers that had been running between Portland, Astoria, Bay City and Tilla-mook were withdrawn suddenly and em-ployed for other purposes by their own-ers. In the meantime other boats have been substituted, with the result that 350 tons of freight, consisting of miscel-laneous supplies, and consigned to the business men of the two cities on Tillamook Bay, have accumulated at Astoria. Shut off in this way without any notice, the merchants at Bay City and Tillamook find their stocks about depleted, with no meaus for shipping in additional supplies. Mr. Prevost was sent to this city to take up the matter with the Manufacturers' Association and make some provision for relieving the situation on the Tillamook coast. A committee was appointed to investigate the complaint.

At last night's meeting the Manufac-turers' Association further considered the enforcement of quarantine regulations at Astoria. Correspondence was read from the Astoria Chamber of Commerce, which has agreed to favor the location of an outlook at a sub-station at Point Adams. but the organization opposes the removal of the quarantine station from that city to Fort Stevens, as has been proposed by the Manufacturers' Association. The latter organization concurred in the sug-gestion of the Astoria commercial body gestion of the Astoria commercial body for an outlook at Point Adams, but still-maintains that the quarantine station should be located a. Fort Stevens and will take the subject up with the proper authorities at Washington. The annual election was held by the board of directors last night, and resulted in the re-election of the old officers, as follows: President, Fletcher Linn: vice-president, Oscar E. Heiniz: secretary, S. B. Vincent: treasurer, W. H. McMonies. Colonel David M. Dunne was nominated for president but declined and insisted on the re-election of President Linn, whom he nominated. President Linn asked to be excused from accepting the presidency for the third term, but the declination was disregarded and his election resulted unanimously. As the official head of the organization, President Linn has been an earnest and enthusiastic worker in every enterprise that has come before the Association, having for its purpose the making of a greater for its purpose the making of a greater
