illness of Admiral Evans Greatly Mars the Festivities.

BANQUET BY AMBASSADOR

Admirals and Other Officers Visit Brazilian Minister of Marine and Diplomatic Colony at Petropolis—City Gives Welcome.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 13.—Swinging lastly at their anchors, the American battleships early this morning seemed as though they were enjoying a well-earned rest after their run of 200 miles and more from Trinidad. They lay under the green hills of Rio, in the shadow of Mount Corcovado, that looks right down into the city. Soon the streets took on a lively appearance as thousands made their way down to the edge of the water, where they could watch the ships and the launches dashing in and out.

Evans Too Ill to Celebrate. Entertainments have been arranged for almost every hour of the day and some of the hours of the night as well, but the fact that Rear-Admiral Evans, commander of the fleet, is ill is causing the deepest regret. The Brazilian officials deplore this the more, as they wished to make this visit the occasion for marked attention to the Americans, but Admiral Evans is suffering from rheumatism and it is feared he will be unable to appear at the festivities, and without his presence, these must lose something of their character.

Banquet at Petropolis. Today Admirals Emery, Thomas and Sperry, accompanied by the captains of all the battleships, paid a visit to the Minister of Marine, Admiral Alencar, who returned the visit on board Admiral Evans' flagship, the Connecticut. Later the American officers went to Petropolis, the home of the diplomatic corps, 21 miles distant from the capital, to attend the reception of the fleet, which is being given in their honor by the American Ambassador, Irving B. Dudley. They were accompanied on their trip to Petropolis by many high Brazilian officials and by representatives of the various legations, who on Saturday came into Rio for the purpose of greeting the American officers on their arrival. Among these was the attaché of the Argentine legation, who extended cordial greetings on behalf of his country.

Dr. Stokes Takes Charge. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—Dr. Charles Francis Stokes, U. S. N. Surgeon, arrived here last night from San Juan, Porto Rico, to take command of the hospital ship Relief, which is now being overhauled and outfitted at the Mare Island Navy-yard.

SUICIDES FOLLOW STORM

Five Bostonians Kill Themselves and One Dies by Violence. BOSTON, Jan. 13.—A number of cases of suicide were reported in Massachusetts last night following a storm by stormy and depressing weather conditions. Five persons, including four men and one woman, took their own lives. A sixth died in a hospital, and a seventh of violence. In Lynn, Charles A. Payson, a shoemaker, was found dead from gas inhalation in his home. Decease was caused by ill-health in given as the cause.

William F. Hayden, of Whitman, killed himself in his bathtub by cutting his throat. He had been suffering from melancholia. Joseph H. Crulskank, of Holyoke, committed suicide by shooting in a fit of despondency over ill-health, and Richard S. Lewis killed himself with a revolver bullet for the same reason in Fall River. Mrs. Emma Parker, a widow 23 years old, killed herself in Wagoner, by an interview with a young man to whom she was engaged. Mrs. Parker came from Beloit, Wis.

The body of Nestor Aoki was found in the yard at Pittsburgh tonight. A scalp wound was discovered at the back of his head, but it could not be determined whether this was caused by a fall or a blow.

SMOKES TO LAST MOMENT

New Mexico Murderer Goes to Death Without Fear. DEMING, N. M., Jan. 13.—Martin Amador was hanged in the county jail here today for the murder of his common-law wife. He went to his doom without the least evidence of fear, smoking a cigarette until the Sheriff was ready to adjust the black cap. Magisteno Sabolles, who was to have been hanged at the same time as Amador for killing a child in an attempt to shoot the man he thought had won his common-law wife, had his sentence commuted to life imprisonment.

THE DAY'S DEATH RECORD

Emmett R. Olcott, Lawyer. NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Stricken with apoplexy, Emmett R. Olcott, 62 years old, one of the best known lawyers in this country, on international questions, dropped unconscious on the sidewalk near his home last night and died before the arrival of medical aid. Mr. Olcott was born in New York City. He was associated for a time with the firm of Coudert Brothers, and later he became a member of the firm of Olcott, Mestre & Gonzalez. Immediately following the Spanish-American war, Mr. Olcott drafted the code of railroad laws in Cuba, during the time that General Leonard Wood was governor. Later these laws became permanent.

Rabbi Bernhard Felsenthal. CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—Rabbi Bernhard Felsenthal, said to be the oldest Jewish theologian in the United States, recognized as one of the world's greatest Hebrew scholars, died last night after 93 days' illness. He was 98 years old.

IN FULTON'S HANDS

He is on Subcommittee on Schuebel Appointment. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 13.—The action of the Senate Judiciary committee in today referring the nomination of Chris Schuebel to a subcommittee composed of Messrs. Fulton, Knox of Pennsylvania and Clarke of Arkansas, means that no action will be taken until the protests against Mr. Schuebel arrive and are considered. It is not likely that the subcommittee will take action this week.

The appointment of Mr. Fulton as chairman of the subcommittee indicates the friendliness of the Judiciary committee to him and gives Mr. Fulton immediate control, though Mr. Knox and Mr. Clarke may not be a majority. Mr. Knox has been very friendly to Mr. Fulton since he entered the Senate, though he fought Mr. Fulton when Mr. Fulton and Mitchell joined hands to prevent the sending of F. J. Heney to Portland. At the same time Senator Bourne has been assiduously cultivating Mr. Knox for a few months, so Mr. Knox will be called upon to decide between two friends. Mr. Clarke is a Democrat, under no obligations to either Senator, and will act as he believes the facts justify.

Senator Fulton and Representative Hawley were today shown an interview with Mr. Schuebel published in The Oregonian of January 8, in which he was quoted as saying: 'Fulton and Hawley assured me that should I be appointed, I would receive no further opposition from them.' Mr. Fulton emphatically declared he made no such statement to Mr. Schuebel, but did tell him he would support the man chosen by a majority of the delegation, whether he was in a majority or not.

Mr. Hawley declared Mr. Schuebel was either mistaken or misquoted, for he had given him no such assurance. All he told Mr. Schuebel was that he would not oppose Mr. Schuebel on personal grounds.

OREGON PENSIONS GRANTED

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 13.—According to notices issued by the Pension Bureau today the following residents of the Second Congressional District were allowed pensions: Jehiel T. Swartz, Baker City; Benjamin M. McKittick, Arlington; Francis M.

REDUCE PULLMAN RATES

PETITION OF LOFTUS SHOWS ENORMOUS PROFIT. He Tells Interstate Board How Stock Has Been Watered to Hide Great Earnings.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—George S. Loftus, of St. Paul, accompanied by Senator La Follette, filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission today a petition asking for a reduction of 25 per cent in the lower-berth rates of the Pullman Company, and the fixing of rates for upper berths at one-half the lower-berth rate. The petition avers that the Pullman Company has invested $28,000,000, while it is capitalized for $125,000,000, and its net earnings are approximately 29 per cent per annum on capitalization in addition to a surplus, and that each car, accepting the company's estimate of its cost, pays for itself every two years.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The coal-carrying railroads, which are required under an act of Congress to dispose of their coal properties by May 1, next, have submitted to the Attorney-General a proposition looking to a postponement of the date of enforcement of the law on account of the recent financial disturbance. The proposition was submitted through R. W. DeForest, of New York, general counsel of these railroads. The railroads represent that, owing to the financial situation, if they carry out the law it will result in sacrificing their property at prices greatly below its exact value. The proposition has been taken under advisement by the Attorney-General.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Senator Bourne introduced a bill appropriating $500 for the relief of the heirs of Thomas J. Miller for the loss of the 'Enterprise' on the Columbia River, destroyed by troops during the Bannock Indian War. The Senate adopted the Ankeny resolution calling on the Secretary of the Navy for a report on cost of the two submarine torpedo-boats for Puget Sound and one for Grays Harbor.

PREVENT HASTY MARRIAGE

New Catholic Marriage Laws to Be Announced After Easter. BALTIMORE, Jan. 13.—Cardinal Gibbons said today that the new laws relating to marriage in the Catholic Church, which have recently been issued by the Holy See, will not change in any important particular existing laws in the church in this country. The new laws are aimed to prevent hasty and ill-advised marriages. The new regulations will, it is said, be announced after Easter.

RAISULI JOINS NEW SULTAN

Will Not Release MacLean—No Change in French Policy. PARIS, Jan. 13.—A special dispatch to the Matin from Tangier says that Raisuli, the noted bandit, has joined Sultan Hafid and that he still persists in his refusal to give up Calid Sir Henry MacLean, except by order of the new leader. A dispatch from Rabat to the Matin says that the Sultan's return is terror-stricken by the news that Sultan Hafid is proclaimed Sultan. The Matin reports that conferences between Premier Clemenceau and French representatives at Berlin and Tangier make it practically certain that there will be no necessity of modifying the French policy in Morocco.

Dispatches received last night by the government from Rabat announce that the army of General Gerardi, chief of the Sultan's army, which was encamped outside of the city, has been called within the walls. This is causing great anxiety to the Europeans, who fear the soldiers of Abd-el-Aziz.

There has been published here a statement from an inspired source to the effect that the French government has decided to confine its action in Morocco to assuring the security of the Algerian ports and the maintenance of order at the ports in accordance with the Algerian act.

No loan will be concluded with Mohammed Sid el Mokhr, who has come from the Finance Minister to Abd el Aziz assuring security pending further developments. Philibert has 11 ships on the Moroccan coast, and General de Armada, the military commander, has about 9000 men, including seven batteries.

RECTOR HELD IN CONTEMPT

Rev. Canon W. S. Chase, of Brooklyn, Out on Suspended Sentence. NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Rev. Canon William S. Chase, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, was today found guilty of contempt of court by Justice Marean of the New York State Supreme Court. The justice announced that in view of the fact that the accused was a rector, and as the court had no desire to humiliate him, sentence would be suspended.

Canon Chase was summoned before the court because of the publication of an interview with him in which he questioned the legality of an injunction granted by the justice restraining the Brooklyn police from illegally interfering with the operation of the moving picture show on Sunday.

Northwestern People in New York

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—(Special.)—Northwestern people registered at New York hotels today as follows: From Portland—H. C. Peck, at the Brompton. From Seattle—W. I. Dudley and J. S. Cohen, at the Imperial; W. B. Phillips and wife, at the Marlborough; A. E. Baker and Albert J. C. Walling, at the Prince George.

Over 30,000 horses are annually slaughtered in France for food. The carcasses of an average horse yields about 900 pounds of meat.

TROUBLE FOR MRS. LEAVITT

BRYAN'S DAUGHTER SAID TO HAVE LEFT HUSBAND. Rumor of Domestic Trouble of Long Standing—Denver Home Closed—Studying in Paris. OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 13.—The estrangement between Ruth Bryan Leavitt and her artist husband bids fair to result in permanent separation, according to advices received in Omaha by friends of Mrs. Leavitt.

Mrs. Leavitt spent nearly two months in Omaha last Fall, during which time she was much with the Misses Comstock and Clark and Miss Edith Locke. Miss Locke was a classmate of Mrs. Leavitt at the Nebraska State University, and Miss Comstock also attended the same girls' school with her.

Miss Locke today received from Mrs. Leavitt a letter in which she stated that she would not see her husband during her trip to Europe, and intimated that she did not expect her husband again to return to America. He is now an art student in Paris.

Much has been said at different times about the domestic differences in the Leavitt family, but they have been well covered up. During the horse show season, however, Mrs. Leavitt spent several days in Omaha, and her friends saw that statement that she quietly admitted having broken off relations with her husband.
