UNITE LIBERALS AGAINST THE REDS

Only Effort of Prussian Socialist Agitation on Suffrage.

RALLY ROUND VON BUELOW

High Official Says Property-Owning Class Will Strengthen Government to Avoid Being Devoured by the Socialist Element.

BERLIN, Jan. 13.—The Associated Press is enabled, by the courtesy of a personage who is in close relations with Prime Minister von Buelow, to set forth the views of the government concerning the street demonstrations of last Friday and yesterday, which resulted in the demonstration in the Prussian Landtag for the abolition of the present plutocratic system of suffrage and the substitution therefor of manhood suffrage.

"The Socialist disturbances will result in the Liberals drawing closer to the support of the government," said the official. "The Liberals in Germany are composed largely of manufacturers, bankers, merchants and other property-owning interests. These interests perceive that, if they are to avoid being devoured by the Socialists, they must stand together for a strong government. Prince von Buelow's declaration was no more than a simple truth. The government will consent to no electoral changes which increase the power of the Socialists to agitate against the existing organization of society, and all political parties excepting the Socialists will make common cause with it."

Both sides are disposed to minimize the character of the demonstrations of yesterday and each affirms that the manifestants were composed in part of rowdies who made use of this opportunity to endeavor to create mischief.

Detached observers regard the events of the last four days as embittering the masses and as making the government more determined than ever to keep the franchise on a limited basis. Nothing further is expected to happen in the immediate future except that the Socialists, seeking a fresh weapon, probably will stir up the passions of those who believe themselves to be denied adequate representation.

QUIET DAY AFTER THE STORM

More Than 100 Hurt in Berlin Socialist Riots.

BERLIN, Jan. 13.—There were few signs to be noticed this morning of the violent scenes of yesterday when the demonstrations for a general suffrage in Prussia resulted in a series of encounters with the police, excepting a certain effervescence in the districts of the city, where the working classes live.

The city ambulance stations treated more than 100 wounded. Of these 28 persons, including three policemen were seriously injured. The police in their encounters yestrday had a difficult task in overcoming the tactics of the infuriated women among the demonstrators. They clung to the bridles of the policemen's horses, in efforts to stop the charges.

Dispatches received here from the provinces declare that the demonstrations yesterday, in favor of suffrage reform, were enthusiastic. Resolutions in favor of manhood suffrage were telegraphed to Prince von Buelow. In Essen 10,000 people paraded the streets singing the "Marseillaise," and songs of freedom. The police made ineffectual attempts to bar the progress of the demonstrators. In Cologne, the police dispersed various processions by barring the streets and there were a few unimportant collisions. Frankfort, however, was the scene of a street fight between the police and the manifestants in which a number of persons were injured.

At today's session of the Prussian Landtag, Minister of the Interior von Moltke, referring to the events of yesterday, declared the Socialists alone will be responsible for the consequences in case of further demonstrations. He added that the government had decided to repress by every means in its power any attempt to disturb peace and order.

BIG FIRE IN KANSAS CITY

Mailing Room and Express Offices Burn in Depot Annex.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 13.—The Union Station Annex, in Union avenue, adjoining the Union Railway Station, was destroyed by fire early today. The Union Station proper, one of Kansas City's landmarks, was saved by the firemen after a hard fight. The burned building contained the receiving offices of the Adams, Wells-Fargo and Pacific Express Companies, branch mailing-room of the Postoffice, the offices of the Fred Harvey Eating-House Company, the Pullman Palace Car Company's linenroom and the Railwaymen's Y. M. C. A. rooms. The loss is estimated at close to a quarter of a million dollars.

The fire started at 4 o'clock from crossed electric light wires of the mailing-room and spread with such rapidity that the firemen were unable to save more than 300 sacks of mail and a small portion of the express matter. Thirty-five sacks of registered and some other mail matter were destroyed, together with a great number of express packages, a large supply of linen in the Pullman rooms, the entire contents of the Fred Harvey offices, which were the headquarters for that company's system, and the library, furnishings and apparatus in the Y. M. C. A. rooms were destroyed. The Y. M. C. A. quarters had been partially furnished by Miss Gould.

The building and heating plant were owned by the Union Company, whose loss is placed at $100,000. The Fred Harvey Company's loss is $50,000.

POURING INTO HELENA

Woolgrowers' Convention Will Be the Largest Ever Held.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 13.—From present indications the attendance of the forty-fourth annual convention of the National Woolgrowers' Association will be the greatest in the history of the organization. Large delegations arrived tonight from New Mexico, California, Oregon and Colorado. During the day the Wyoming delegation reached here on a special train with nearly 200 delegates and accompanied by Governor Bryant, B. Brooks and Dr. J. M. Wilson, of Douglas, Wyoming, Western vice-president, who will preside over the convention.

Delegations are here from six cities—Denver, Salt Lake, Pocatello, Idaho, Laramie, Wyo., Albuquerque, N. M., and Los Angeles—working to secure the next National convention, which will meet in January next year.

At the opening session Tuesday morning, at the Auditorium, the delegates will be welcomed by Governor Toole, of Montana; Acting Mayor John Wendel, of Helena, and President Picketi, of the Commercial Club. Patrick Sullivan, of Casper, Wyo., will respond.

Following the appointment of committees at the afternoon session, Dr. Wilson will give his annual address, and "The Open Range" will be discussed by Governor Brooks, of Wyoming. A paper on "The Attitude of the General Government Toward the West," by Senator Thomas Carter, of Montana, will be read at the Wednesday morning session. It is not yet known whether James R. Garfield, Secretary of the Interior, will be present at this session.

A feature of Thursday's meeting will be the address on Federal co-operation with the states in the eradication of contagious diseases by Dr. R. A. Ramsay, of the Federal service.

The convention is expected to adjourn Thursday evening.

TAKE POWER FROM RIVER

PORTLAND & EASTERN FILES WATER RIGHTS.

Believed Electricity Will Be Used in Operating Trains Over Cascade Range.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 13.—(Special.)—On behalf of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway Company, Attorney John H. McNary today filed notice of appropriation of 2000 cubic feet per second of water from McKenzie River, in Lane County. The point of diversion is about four miles above the mouth of Gate Creek.

The Portland, Eugene & Eastern is a company whose affairs are managed by A. Welch, who promoted the Oregon electric line, which has just been completed between Portland and Salem. It is not known who is back of Welch in the new undertaking, but it is apparent that money for his enterprises is plentiful. He has franchises in Salem, Albany and Eugene and presumably his line between these points and thence east over the Cascade Mountains will be an extension of the Oregon Electric, though there is said to be no business connection between the two companies at present.

CAR PLUNGES DOWN HILL

Seattle Passengers Have Miraculous Escape From Death.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 13.—(Special.)—Missing the counterweight which eases its descent of the steep Queen Anne hill, car No. 315 this morning plunged madly down the declivity and crashed into car No. 316, of the same line. William Feir, an ironmolder, and Mrs. Harold Gent, passengers on the runaway car, were severely injured and a number of others more or less bruised and cut. That no one was killed is considered a miracle, and death and more serious injury were only prevented by the fact that neither car was heavily loaded.

The motorman on the standing car, J. Lindstrom, was not on the platform at the time or he could have backed his car out of the way. Both cars were badly smashed up and No. 316 was thrown crossways of the street, but did not turn over.

THREE WANT PLACE

Receiver to Be Appointed for Deposit Bank.

ASSETS PLACED TOO HIGH

Temporary Custodian Cushing Says Certain Values Have Been Greatly Inflated—Trying to Realize All Possible for Depositors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—A receiver for the insolvent California Safe Deposit & Trust Company, which failed last November, owing about $9,000,000 to 12,800 depositors, and of which institution two of the officials and one director are in the county jail, charged with embezzlement, will probably be appointed by Presiding Judge J. H. Coffey, of the Superior Court, tomorrow.

Three names were submitted to Judge Coffey for receiver: By the Depositors' Association, Gustave Brenner, a former Supervisor; by the stockholders and present directorate, E. J. Lebreton, and by the Western Pacific Railroad interests, Charles S. Cushing, the present custodian, placed in charge of the bank by the Bank Commissioners. A bond of $1,000,000 will be required and the remuneration of the receiver will be a commission, not yet stated, upon the amount recovered for the depositors.

Surprised at Scramble.

Judge Coffey expressed surprise that there was such a "scramble" to become receiver, and announced that he would appoint a responsible man, acting upon his own judgment, regardless of suggestions and recommendations. At the same time he served notice that he did not believe in a multitude of counsel and does not propose to "have what was left of the wreck frittered away in attorneys' fees."

"I don't want people to think that this is a pigeon to be plucked by every one," said the court. "A good many lawyers seem to think that out of this wrecked bank will still come enough to make good assets for themselves."

U. S. Webb, Attorney-General of California, today applied to Presiding Judge Coffey, of the Superior Court, for the appointment of a receiver.

Assets Placed Too High.

Temporary Custodian Cushing, of that institution, took the stand and testified that the previously estimated value of the bank's securities, including shares of the Eldorado Lumber Company, the Carnegie Brick & Tile Company, and unsecured notes of James Treadwell and others, should be reduced by $5,425,000.

In Cushing's opinion as an expert, J. Dalzell Brown had overestimated the value of the Eldorado Lumber Company $1,300,000, the Carnegie Brick & Tile Company $1,000,000, the value of the real estate where the banking-house is located $625,000, and the loans made by him to be worth one-half their face value $2,500,000.

In five years, said Cushing, the creditors, providing that the country was not overtaken with any more financial panics, should realize 50 cents on the dollar. This amount would be net to the creditors.

Bank Commissioner Garrotte testified that it was inadvisable for the bank to continue doing business. At the request of a representative of the depositors, Attorney-General Webb not objecting, Judge Coffey took the matter of the appointment of a receiver under advisement.

Warren Olney, Jr., representing the Western Pacific Railroad interests, stated that with $40 00 cash on hand in the vaults of the bank, a million dollars could soon be raised to be paid to depositors.

DISAPPROVES ALDRICH BILL

Chicago Banker Says Measure Would Enhance Bond Values.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—James B. Forgan, chairman of the Chicago Clearing-House Association, in a letter to Senator Albert J. Hopkins, made public today, declares that in his opinion, the effect of the proposed Aldrich currency measure, if enacted, would be to enhance the value of municipal and railroad bonds.

He also said that no bank could afford to avail itself of privileges of increasing its circulation at a cost of at least 7 per cent, and that the taking out of such currency would nullify the object for which it was provided by giving notice that an emergency exists and starting a panic. He said that it could only be used by the united action of clearing-house banks and that it was doubtful if it would be available out of New York City. Other Chicago bankers shared in the views held by Mr. Forgan.

TRIAL OF LAND FRAUDS

Williamson cases but was not sustained by the court.

Heney Will Be Present at Lord Trial

Only one incident, aside from the routine proceeding of excusing jurors for various causes, happened at yesterday's sessions of the court. It was furnished by Charles F. Lord shortly after court was convened in the forenoon. Lord, Henry Ford et al are under indictment charged with conspiracy to obstruct the administration of justice and the former has been insisting that he should be given a trial. Addressing the court, Lord requested that Special Prosecutor Heney be ordered to appear as a witness for him (Lord) when his case is finally called for trial, probably next May. In replying, Heney intimated that he would not only be present at the appointed time but would probably "make good" in the case against the defendant who was so desirous of having his trial proceed. On the suggestion of Judge Hunt, Lord agreed to submit authorities of law in support of the request he had made of the court.

Only 53 of 100 Veniremen Available

Of the 100 men whose names had been drawn for the jury panel, 47 were either excused, failed to qualify, had removed from the state or could not be located by United States Marshal Reed. The preliminary questioning of the prospective jurors as to their qualifications by Judge Hunt was exhaustive, the purpose apparently being to leave no room for questioning the regularity of the proceeding of selecting the panel. About 74 of the original 100 freeholders responded to the formal rollcall.

The first question asked was if the men summoned for jury service were full-fledged American citizens. Six were excused for the reason they had never obtained their final citizenship papers. Judge Hunt then asked if all were residents of the state and above the age of 21.

"I observe that the statutes of this state place no limitation on the age of jurors but I never insist that any man over the age of 70 shall serve," said Judge Hunt.

Court Excuses Jurors for Cause.

With this announcement, William B. Nicholson, of this city, requested the court to be excused and his name was taken from the list. Henry Keyt, of Perrydale, Polk County, and H. G. Fitch, of Cornelius, Washington County, reported that they are Justices of the Peace for their respective communities and were excused under the provision which exempts judicial officers from jury service. State Printer W. S. Duniway was likewise excused on the grounds that he holds a state office. None of the jurors belonged to a military organization and the number was not further depleted on that account. Two presented certificates showing them to be exempt firemen and were allowed to retire.

Following the announcement that the next available excuse was that for business reasons, a score of the other approached Clerk Sladen's desk and related a variety of reasons why they should be excused from attending the court as jurors. Physical disability was the principal excuse assigned, but not more than half of the applicants succeeded in convincing the court of the seriousness of their affliction and their names were retained on the panel.

The following were excused, either because they were not qualified or for valid excuses: P. S. Malcolm, Thomas J. Nealand, Walter B. Preston, Andrew Saling, Marion Smith, William H. Wilton, Thomas Rand, Rudolph Kappler, M. Link, George Betz, W. T. B. Nicholson, Henry Hoyt, H. J. Fitch, W. S. Duniway, O. O. Hodson, John Berdahl, Thomas Papworth, E. X. Harding, William Schulmerick, William M. Wilder, Glen Zumwalt, G. N. Townsend, A. S. Vaughn, John N. Mattschek, George O. Savage, Simon Harris, Ed T. Williams, and James Barr. Nineteen others had not been located by Marshal Reed.

The remaining 53 will constitute the jury panel, from which a jury in the Hall case will be drawn today. This list of qualified jurors consists of:

Supreme Court of United States Affirms Lower Court.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The Supreme Court of the United States today upheld the anti-liquor law of Kansas by affirming the decisions of the Supreme Court of that state in a number of cases including that of Fritz Durien, of Shawnee County, convicted of violating the law. Durien appealed to the Federal Supreme Court on a writ of error on the ground that the statute contravenes the Federal Constitution because it gives discretion to Probate Judges in granting permits. The decision was announced by the Chief Justice. There was no written opinion.

HANNA IN STORM

Discussion of Modernism Agitates Cardinals.

RESULT IS STILL IN DOUBT

Contended That the Article on Which He Is Arraigned Was Written Before Modernism Was Known—Only Quoted.

ROME, Jan. 13.—The Congress of the Propaganda, after a prolonged discussion today, failed to appoint the Rev. Edward J. Hanna, of Rochester, N. Y., to the post of coadjutor archbishop of San Francisco. No action was taken because the report on the matter of Father Hanna's candidacy did not contain all the documents bearing on the charge that he is infected with modernism. When this report shall have been completed there will be another meeting of the congregation, at which a decision will be reached.

The meeting of the Congregation of the Propaganda was the most important held in a long time, the matter of the appointment of Dr. Edward Hanna arousing considerable interest. Cardinal Martinelli, to whom was intrusted the task of placing the case before the propaganda, submitted a lengthy report, which was unfavorable to the appointment of Dr. Hanna. Cardinal Martinelli was supported by the prefect and Cardinals Segna and Vives y Tuto.

Cardinal Satolli strongly and eloquently opposed their arguments, quoting passages from the fathers of the church, in which he sought to demonstrate that they said substantially what was contained in the article, "Human Knowledge of Christ," which Dr. Hanna wrote and which appeared in a New York review.

Number Support Hanna.

A number of the other cardinals took sides with Cardinal Satolli and Cardinal Agliardi spoke warmly in favor of Dr. Hanna.

The prefect, Cardinal Gotti, pointed out that the original denunciation against Dr. Hanna which was made by Dr. Breen, professor of exegesis at St. Bernard's Seminary in Rochester, was practically confirmed by Father Lepicier, who as the consul of the propaganda, had abstracted from Dr. Hanna's writings passages falling under the designation of "modernism."

Innocent of Modernism.

Dr. Hanna's friends retorted that when he wrote the article in question papal condemnation of errors designated most modernistic did not exist. In addition, they pointed out, Dr. Hanna in a letter to Cardinal Gotti has satisfactorily explained his innocence.

Cardinal Gotti and Cardinal Martinelli insisted upon the, stand they had taken and decided that the matter was suspended by the congregation in order to give Dr. Hanna an opportunity to make public in America through the review which published the original articles similar explanations as those he gave in his letter to Cardinal Gotti. As the supporters of Dr. Hanna were supported by the congregation, that in his article Dr. Hanna chiefly reproduced the opinions of other authors, his opponents insisted that he should publicly make known his opinion.

BRAVELY GUARDED FORT

Testimony in Stoessel Trial Favorable to the Garrison's Honor.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 13.—The court-martial of Lieutenant-General Stoessel was resumed in this city today, and the court began the taking of testimony regarding the actual capitulation of Port Arthur. The General is charged with having surrendered this fortress to the Japanese before its resources were exhausted.

Colonel Kvostoff, a member of General Smyrnoff's staff, who participated in the negotiations, testified today that the Japanese conditions had been accepted without discussion as there was no time to consider individually the various points made.

The testimony of other officers was more favorable to General Stoessel. Colonel Golitzynsky, commander of the fort called the Eagle's Nest, maintained that the fall of this fort spelled the end of Port Arthur, as this position was the highest point of all the fortifications and commanded every other defense.

The evidence brought out today concerning the final success of the Japanese has done much to restore the good name of the Port Arthur garrison, particularly with regard to the last days of the siege. It has been shown that the soldiers who defended certain important points like Port Nox and the Eagle's Nest stood by their posts almost to a man and the allegations made by General Smyrnoff that the fortifications were abandoned without a struggle clearly have been disproved.

How to Prevent Wrinkles

It is the thin, dry, poorly nourished skin that wrinkles, the skin that does not contain enough oil to keep it soft and elastic. Wrinkles are nothing but creases in the outer skin. The subcutaneous tissues do not get nourishment enough to keep them plump and firm, and the outer skin sags and wrinkles. Plump people rarely wrinkle because the tissues beneath the outer skin or cuticle, are plump and firm, and the outer skin is stretched smooth over the plump tissues—without a wrinkle or crease.

Kosmeo
Feeds the Skin Tissues

It softens the skin, making it firm yet plastic, so that it expands and contracts naturally—it cleanses the thousands of pores of all dirt and hardened sebaceous secretions—it feeds the starved sub-cutaneous tissues, and they soon become firm and plump, glowing with health—it supplies the oils necessary for keeping the skin soft.

The effect of many preparations is to make the skin greasy and coarse pored. Kosmeo does not do this. It cleanses, refines and gives perfect health to the skin tissues, and as it does not contain animal or mineral oils, it never causes hair to grow on the face.
