DUMMY FOOLS THE JAILER

MAX SAWYER MAKES CLEVER ESCAPE FROM PRISON.

Hides in Corridor and Talks to Deputy as if From His Couch--Next Morning He Can't Be Found.

MINNIVILLE, Or., Jan. 14.--(Special).--Max D. Sawyer, the only prisoner in the Yamhill County Jail at this place, made a sensational getaway last night. He had complained of feeling ill during the day, and Deputy Sheriff Dukenfeld did not attempt to lock him in his cell until late in the evening. When the deputy appeared the prisoner had rigged a dummy in his cell, while he stood out in the corridor and did the talking for

TELLS OF DESERT JOURNEY

HOMER DAVENPORT GIVES HIS LECTURE TONIGHT.

Noted Cartoonist Will Recount Experiences in Arabia to Audience at White Temple.

Tonight at the White Temple the public will have a chance to hear Homer Davenport, the most distinguished of American cartoonists, in his famous lecture describing his experiences on his recent expedition into the heart of the great Arabian desert, which was made under the auspices of the Sultan of Turkey. He penetrated a region never heretofore penetrated by white men and had some remarkable experiences with the warlike
