licit Lovers Out Into the Cold of an Idaho Night.

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—That the way of the transgressor is sometimes particularly hard in winter is demonstrated by a case that has arisen in the mountains, near Placerville, 45 miles from Boise.

The story is told by John Thompson, of that place, who is here endeavoring to learn what has become of his wife, who with Felix Carpenter, made a hurried flight from the Thompson home last Saturday night, traveling a mile and one-half over the snow in their bare feet and wearing nothing but nightgowns.

COME TO LAND OF FLOWERS

Eugene School Children Will Send
Invitations to Easterners.

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 14.—(Special.)—The board of government of the Eugene Commercial Club has authorized the offering of eight money prizes for the best written postal cards to be written by all the school children in Eugene to some friend East and containing the following text:

Dear Friend—Just a line to let you know that while you are freezing we have flowers blooming everywhere. Why don't you come out to the beautiful Willamette Valley? If you think you might, write to the Eugene Commercial Club for literature.
