WILL PUBLISH OWN PAPER

BOARD OF TRADE TO CONDUCT PUBLICATION HEREAFTER.

Executive Committee Favors Change of Quarters to New Commercial Club Building.

After March 1 the Board of Trade Journal is to be conducted by the Board of Trade instead of by an individual, as heretofore. This decision was reached at a meeting of the executive committee of the Board yesterday afternoon. The Journal has been under the editorship of Milton E. Worrell, but it is proposed to make it more particularly an organ of the Board under the new plans which it will shortly adopt.

The committee also decided that a change of quarters is desirable, and to that end appointed the following committee to secure a suitable location: O. W. Taylor, E. B. Colwell and G. P. Johnson. It is probable that the Board will occupy one of the rooms on the ground floor of the new Commercial Club building.

A committee composed of O. W. Taylor, T. S. Townsend and Richard Chilcott was also appointed to meet the members of the Congressional committee on rivers and harbors when that party arrives in Portland in the near future, and confer with them regarding the improvements that the Board deems advisable to Oregon rivers and harbors.

the requirements of the office, in which he is being assisted by Mr. Labber, who will shortly retire.

PORTLAND BUSINESS COLLEGE

Buys Fifteen L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriters.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 20.—More than 1000 unemployed workmen paraded through the streets of this city today, the leader carrying a banner bearing the inscription, "Parade of Hungry People Looking for Work." It was explained by leaders of the demonstration that "hungry" in this case meant that the men were hungry for something to do, not that they were suffering from the pangs of physical hunger. Poles, Germans, Lithuanians, French and Italians comprised the majority of the marchers.

Metzger fits glasses for $1.00.
