CHILD-LABOR DAY IN CHURCHES.—Mrs. M. R. Trumbull, registrar of the Associated Charities, appeared yesterday before the meeting of the Presbyterian Ministerial Association for the purpose of inducing the various pastors to observe next Sunday, January 26, as Child-Labor day, by bringing the subject of child-labor to the attention of their congregations. She referred to several matters which she believed should be emphasized in bringing the question before the public. Mrs. Trumbull's visit was made at the request of Owen R. Lovejoy, of New York, secretary of the National Child-Labor Committee, which has undertaken the work of having a day set apart for the purpose of bringing the child-labor question to the public attention. Mrs. Trumbull has already communicated with all of the pastors of the city in reference to the matter.

DROPS DEAD WHILE AT WORK.—S. Allen Goodwin, 40 years old, dropped dead early yesterday morning, at Columbia dock, No. 1, where he was employed as a checker. Goodwin had reported for duty as usual and had not complained of being ill. Suddenly he reeled and fell. His fellow employes did not believe him dead and called the patrol wagon, in which the body was removed to the City Physician's office in the Marquam building, under the belief that life might not be extinct. Dr. Trommald made an examination and said heart disease was probably the cause and that death must have resulted instantly when Goodwin was stricken at his work. Goodwin was leader of the choir at the English Lutheran Church. He has a mother, living in England. The body was taken to the morgue.

SALOONMEN IN COURT TODAY.—A. M. Hyatt and C. M. O'Conners, charged with selling liquor to a female under 21 years of age, will be arraigned in the Municipal Court today, providing another continuance is not granted. The case was to have been brought up yesterday forenoon but was put over in order to allow time for securing additional evidence. The two men are accused of being responsible for the pitiable condition of Ethel Bacon, the young woman picked up on the streets in a drunken stupor at an early hour Friday morning. It is said they will seek immunity from prosecution by an effort to establish that the girl is past 21 years of age.

CHURCH SOCIAL TOMORROW NIGHT.—A social will be given by the women of Westminster Presbyterian Church, corner of Tenth and Weidler streets, on Wednesday evening, January 22, at 8 A. M. An excellent programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental selections, readings and other interesting features, will be rendered. Prominent local talent has been secured for the occasion. Refreshments will be served in the church parlors after the programme. No charge for admission. Everybody welcome.

REGISTATION AT ST. JOHN.—Recorder Esson will begin the registration of voters at St. John this afternoon at 1 o'clock. St. John is now divided according to the new precincts, 90 and 91, and voters will register from those precincts, in order to vote in the municipal primaries in March. There are fully 500 voters now in St. John according to last election.

SUNNYSIDE CIRCLE TO MEET.—The Sunnyside Circle of the Home Training Association will hold a meeting at 3:15 P. M., in the assembly hall of the Sunnyside school. Mrs. J. C. The bottles are so arranged as to make a nice display, besides which this firm has the distinction of being the first in placing this excellent product on the market.

IT IS a matter of surprise in view of the fact that burglaries are so frequent that householders do not insure against losses of this character. Full protection can be insured for at a nominal cost by calling on James McI. Wood & Co., McKay building, general agents, National Surety Company.

INJURIES PROVE SERIOUS.—As a result of injuries received in a streetcar accident on the night of November 30, at Thirty-ninth street and Hawthorne avenue, Mrs. Bert Jackson, of 1150 Hawthorne is in a most critical condition. At the time of the accident Mrs. Jackson's injuries were not considered so serious. Dr. William Jones, Dr. A. K. Dearborn and Dr. C. M. Hollopeter are in attendance on the case and the street railway company having heard of the alarming condition of the patient has contributed the services of its physician, Dr. A. E. Rockey. The accident happened at 9:40 o'clock, on the night of November 30. The car on which Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and their little baby were passengers had stopped at the corner of Thirty-ninth street to permit them to alight. It was very foggy and little could be seen more than a few feet away. The Jackson family was on the platform, Mr. Jackson in the lead with the baby in his arms when the light of a car coming up from the rear, at full seed, warned him of his sudden danger. With a cry to his wife to follow him he quickly jumped into the muddy street to save his baby. The oncoming car, however, crashed into the standing one and telescoped it catching Mrs. Jackson in the crash.

REPORT OF WEDDING A HOAX.—Some commotion has been caused over an announcement made in last Sunday's Oregonian, of a wedding which was supposed to have occurred on Monday last, the participants being Waldo Fr Stewart, a local real estate man and Miss Amy Catchum. This has since been found to be a canard. In explanation it may be stated that on Friday of last week three well mannered young men, representing themselves as friends of the groom, asked the society editor to make the announcement of the wedding with accompanying photographs, for which they vouched authenticity. The photographs and account of the wedding were accepted and published by The Oregonian in good faith. Mr. Stewart has since informed The Oregonian that Miss Catchum is a total stranger to him and he doubts her actual existence. Mr. Stewart's engagement, it seems, has been announced to a Miss Rebecca Sturchell, of Everett, Wash. If the jocular young men will call, the fictitious picture will be returned.

The society has established headquarters at Hardgrove & Son's office, where any who desire help of any kind are asked to telephone their needs, using Main 505 for that purpose. The officers of the association are: President, Charles Alvoid; vice-president, Rev. E. M. Patterson; secretary, Mrs. C. C. Palmer; treasurer, Mrs. Britton.

Wentworth; first vice-president, F. H. Rothchild; second vice-president, John A. Keating; cashier, H. D. Story; assistant cashier, F. A. Freeman; general counsel, Platt & Platt; directors, G. K. Wentworth, Charles S. Russell, P. S. Brumby, Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie, George G. Bingham, Lloyd J. Wentworth, J. E. Wheeler, F. H. Rothchild, George L. McPherson, John A. Keating, Robert T. Platt and H. D. Story. Reports of the officers showed that the bank had had a successful and prosperous year.

ARRESTED FOR BATTERY.—John Schaan, an employe of the City Street-Cleaning Department was arrested yesterday afternoon at the city barn, by Officer Charles Hill, upon the complaint of George Day, an employe of the same department, charged with assault and battery. Schaan was taken to the City Jail, where he was locked up in default of bail. Schaan is one of the men who recently preferred charges against Superintendent Donaldson and Assistant Superintendent Jenkins alleging that they had sold dirt taken from the city streets and when the case was called there were no complainants on hand to testify.

ALLEGED BIGAMIST ARRESTED.—Arthur Norris, alias Arthur Earlrich, who is wanted in this city on the charge of bigamy was arrested yesterday by the authorities in Seattle. A telegram to the Police Department of this city last night announced that Norris had expressed his willingness to return without extradition papers and Detective Sergeant Baty was sent over to the Sound city on the 11:45 o'clock train to take charge of the prisoner. Norris is charged with marrying Miss Hattie Benjamin of 27 Moore street, Arleta, while he was still the husband of another woman.

F. Sullivan; vice-president, John F. McDonald; secretary, A. L. Morris. At the conclusion of the meeting, the members of the society were entertained at lunch by the priests of Redemptorist parish. A joint meeting of the Piedmont and Portsmouth Holy Names Societies will be held in the Portsmouth hall, Thursday night, January 30.

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING.—The volunteers of America, in their annual business meeting in their hall, 3 North Fourth street, last night elected the following local officers for the ensuing year: Trustees, Adjutant J. T. Foulkes, Martin Blanchard and Charles Winders; treasurer, Martin Blanchard; secretary, Paul Carstens. Thirteen new names were handed in for membership. A vote of confidence was extended to the officers, Adjutant and Mrs. Foulkes, Lieutenant Hawley and Lieutenant Apetz.

WILL DISCUSS ANNEXATION.—For the purpose of discussing annexation, a mass meeting of the residents of the district southeast of Portland has been called for next Friday night, in Woodstock hall, under the auspcies of the Woodstock Push Club. Both sides will be represented with half-hour speeches, after which the meeting will be thrown open for a general discussion. The leading debaters have not yet been selected.

HOLY NAMES SOCIETY ELECTS.—The following officers of the Holy Names Society of the Redemptorist parish at Piedmont were elected Sunday: President, T. W. Sullivan; vice-president, John F. McDonald; secretary, A. L. Morris. Following the election breakfast was served in the parish house. Forty-seven members have joined the Holy Names Society since January, 1907.

PLASTERERS QUIT WORK.—Union plasterers decided to stop work yesterday on account of employers notifying them that a reduction of 50 cents a day would be made in wages, as had been agreed upon in December. At that time employers proposed a reduction from $6 a day to $5, but compromised at $5.50, which rate was to be in effect until January 18.

CITY ROCK CRUSHER

Council May Provide for Purchase and Operation.

STREET WORK IS HELD UP

Crushed Rock That Now Costs $2.50 a Yard Could Be Produced for 40 Cents, Expert Says — Subject Discussed in Committee.

It is probable that Portland soon will purchase a complete rock-crusher and operate it for the benefit of the city. A movement of this kind originated with the East Side Federated Clubs recently, and was carried before the ways and means committee of the Council at its meeting yesterday afternoon. It is estimated that it will require an outlay of $50,000, but it is declared that a crusher will quickly pay for itself and be a perpetual assistance to the municipality. That crushed rock that now brings $2.50 a yard con be turned out for 40 cents a yard, was the statement of Dr. L. M. Davis, before the commtitee yesterday.

At the suggestion of Chairman Rushlight, of the ways and means committee, the question was referred to Assistant City Attorney Frank S. Grant, who will prepare an ordinance, carrying with it an appropriation sufficient to make the enterprise a success. It will be impossible to enact it at tomorrow's session of the Council, as more time is required in which to draft the ordinance and for consideration of all the points involved, but it is fully believed that it will be passed at the following meeting, two weeks hence, and that the city will soon be turning out its own crushed rock.

It seems to be the unanimous opinion in official circles that something must be done to relieve the situation as to public street improvements. It is the great cry, of contractors all the time that they cannot secure anywhere near enough crushed rock for the carrying on of their contracts and the executive board is compelled for this reason more than any other to grant extensions of time continually for street work. Never does a session of the board pass without many of these applications, all of which have to be granted, as it is within the knowledge of the members that what the contractors say is true in this regard.

LEADING TEACHER WELL PLEASED

Finds High-Grade Pianos Offered by Factory Agent Even Greater Bargain Than Expected, and Quickly Takes Advantage

When Professor Eugene Stebinger, one of Portland's best-known pianoforte teachers, dropped in at 103 Front street yesterday, it must be admitted that he was a little skeptical about it. But a brief investigation soon proved to his entire satisfaction that the offering was decidedly out of the ordinary and just as advertised.

He found that the pianos were one of the most reliable makes on the market—a make well known to dozens of Portland's critical music-lovers—that the instruments were new, right up-to-date (even containing a number of valuable patented features not found in other uprights). And when he learned the prices at which these splendid $450, $500 and $550 instruments were being sold, he quickly realized that they were without question the most unusual values in this line that he had ever known.

"Really, I don't see how you can afford to do it," said he. It isn't a question of being able to afford it, it's a question of selling these pianos—selling them quickly—selling them here, rather than pay freight on them back to the factory. That's the situation. The dealer for whom these instruments were intended has closed his doors, and every day that they remain here now they become an expense to the factory, for there are storage charges, insurance, etc., accumulating which means actual loss. Therefore it is better to dispose of them quickly, without considering the matter of profit. And thus these splendid pianos are being sold at prices that are almost beyond belief.

There are only a few more of them left now. Of the two carloads on hand when the sale started, fully three-quarters of them have been sold. If it were not that our temporary salesroom is so far out of the beaten paths of trade, these two carloads of pianos could have been sold in less than half the time. But a piano store on Front street is pretty well out of the way, and so it is not so easy to reach the public. But you will be well repaid by making a special trip, just to look these pianos over. Remember, my factory fully guarantees every one of them, and more than that, if you cannot pay all cash, I will arrange so that you may have the benefit of convenient terms. Don't forget the address, 103 Front street, between Washington and Stark, in the warehouse of the City Transfer & Storage Co. I. F. Ramacciotti, General Factory Agent.
