DETECT JAPANESE SPYING ON GUNS

Fort Stevens Sentry Places Two Little Brown Men Under Arrest.

CAUGHT ON THE PARAPET

Foreigners Gain Good View of Interior of Defenses—Investigation Will Result and Serious Complications May Arise.

FORT STEVENS, Or., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Consternation was caused today by the capture of two Japanese who were found loitering in the west battery of Fort Stevens.

The sentry, while walking his post to the west battery, suddenly came upon two Japanese who were walking upon the parapet of the battery. As this place is unfrequented, except by special permission from the District Artillery Commander, the sentry hid behind a sentry box and watched their movements. Seeing them point to the different guns and emplacements and looking over the situation in general, the sentry took the men into custody and marched them back to the main post. They were then interviewed by the District Adjutant-Lieutenant, B. H. Kerfoot, who could obtain no satisfactory explanation for their trespassing.

Although nothing of an incriminating nature could be found upon their persons, indications are that they were at the post for the purpose of obtaining plans and sketches of the different fortifications and modes of defense.

The Japanese were very well dressed and seemed to be above the average in appearance and intelligence. The fact of their being in the west battery, probably the most important battery on the Pacific Coast, makes the situation much more serious than it would otherwise be. The battery consists of six 10-inch rifles and two 6-inch rapid-fire guns, and is considered to be one of the most potent factors in the defense of this part of the coast.

Unofficial intelligence was received some time ago relative to surreptitious work of this nature, but practically nothing was thought of it until recently, when the various reports of the many instances of the Japanese obtaining plans, etc., of the different coast defenses of the United States were received. No action of an official nature has yet been taken, but an investigation will probably result, and if the evidence tends to show that there is anything in the suspicions, complications are likely to arise.

CASES IN THE SUPREME COURT

First Dissenting Opinion in Many Months Is Filed.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—The first dissenting opinion in many months was filed in the Supreme Court today in the case of Jennings vs. Lentz, by Judge Eakin and Commissioner Slater. The prevailing opinion was written by Commissioner King and was joined in by Judges Bean and Moore. The case involves a question as to the rights of a creditor who attaches real property the legal title to which had passed through the debtor, without the deeds being recorded.

Cases decided:

Oregon Electric Railway Company, appellant, vs. Terwilliger Land Company, respondent, from Multnomah County, on motion to dismiss appeal; appeal dismissed; opinion by Justice Moore.

J. B. Thorsen, et al, appellants, vs. J. A. Hooper and Joseph Hudson, respondents, from Union County, T. H. Crawford, judge; reversed and remanded; opinion by Chief Justice Bean.

Emma Frye, respondent, vs. James T. Moffett, appellant, from Malheur County, George E. Davis, judge; reversed; opinion by Chief Justice Bean.

S. E. Miller, appellant, vs. H. Achurch, et al, respondents, from Wallowa County, William Smith, judge; reversed; opinion by Commissioner Slater.

J. Nolan, respondent, vs. Clyde Hughes, appellant, from Wheeler County, W. L. Bradshaw, judge; affirmed; opinion by Justice Eakin.

G. W. Bade, respondent, vs. C. R. Hibbard, appellant, from Union County, T. H. Crawford, judge; affirmed; opinion by Chief Justice Bean.

First National Bank, appellant, vs. B. F. McCulloch, respondent, from Umatilla County, Henry J. Bean, judge; affirmed; opinion by Justice Moore.

J. N. Rachofsky & Son, appellants, vs. J. C. Stanley, respondent, from Grant County, George E. Davis, judge; reversed; opinion by Commissioner Slater.

Jack Rodman, respondent, vs. William P. Manning et al, appellants, from Lane County, L. T. Harris, judge; appeal dismissed; opinion per curiam.

FLEECES SEATTLE TENDERLOIN

Alleged Blaine Bankwrecker Cashes $200 in Worthless Checks.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—M. C. Mathes, owner and alleged wrecker of the now defunct Exchange Bank of Blaine, has the laugh on Seattle sleuths and also on G. W. Westcott, ex-Mayor of Blaine, politician of state reputation and legal representative of the depositors of the bank. Last Thursday while Westcott and the detectives were seeking Mathes high and low he was setting the pace for Seattle's tenderloin, where so far as is known Mathes cashed checks to the amount of about $200, but it is believed that time will show far more than this amount. He drew the checks on his own bank, as owner of the institution and found no trouble in cashing them at saloons in the redlight district. One check was for $35, which he gave his woman companion of the night. Mathes is believed to have gone to British Columbia.

CENSURED BY THE GRAND JURY

Weston Marshal Acted Too Hastily in Shooting Justin Reed.

PENDLETON, Or., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—In the final report of the grand jury today, Marshal Dave Lavender, of Weston, was censured for causing the death of Justin Reed, but no indictment was returned. Lavender was censured for error in judgment and for being too hasty in using unusual means in arresting a man who was merely drunk and disorderly.

While not a true bill was returned against Mrs. Mabel Warner and her detective, Joe Craddick, charged with maliciously procuring search warrants, they were condemned in no uncertain terms. In discussion of this case the report says:

We have reluctantly reached the conclusion that it would be inadvisable to return an indictment at this time because of the fact that our criminal statute does not seem broad enough to cover cases of this character.

In the case of John Woods, of Milton, accused of assaulting Claude Wallace, a defective youth under his care, no indictment was returned, for lack of sufficient evidence.

In addition to its final report, the grand jury returned four indictments and three not true bills. Those indicted were Joseph Haaga, Henry Courter, Joseph and Frank Hilderbrand. Haaga is the foreman of the crew at work on the Furnish ditch, who was arrested several months ago for robbing a store at Echo. The goods were found in his tent.

Courter stole $60 from his father, and the Hilderbrands are the young fellows who shared in the plunder.

Not a true bill was found in the case of F. S. Skidmore, the bunco showcase salesman who fleeced local merchants to the tune of a few hundred dollars. Before he can be indicted it will be necessary to have a witness come from Grand Rapids, Mich. He will not be released, as he is wanted in a dozen different places in Washington and Idaho.

HEMBREE PUT IN JAIL AGAIN

Rearrested on Old Indictment, Charging Murder of Daughter.

TILLAMOOK, Or., Jan. 21.—Ab Hembree is in the Tillamook County Jail once more, and probably in April will again face a jury, charged this time with the murder of his daughter. Hembree's conviction for manslaughter, his subsequent indeterminate sentence and his parole a few weeks ago was on the indictment for the murder of his wife. The two indictments were returned by a grand jury in April, 1906.

Deputy District Attorney Cooper, of Tillamook, in conjunction with District Attorney McNary, of Salem, caused Hembree's rearrest, and he was taken into custody at Sheridan Sunday. He was brought to Tillamook last night. He refused to talk.

The new trial will take place in April before Judge Galloway. A change of venue will probably be asked. Whatever Hembree's innocence or guilt, Tillamook County sentiment is largely against him, and there is joy over his arrest.

PRESIDENT EUGENE MERCHANTS' PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION.

G. D. Linn.

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—G. D. Linn, who has been elected president of the Merchants' Protective Association for the year 1908, has been in the drug business for a number of years. He has always been prominent in work for the public good and his labor in connection with the merchants' organization has won him the position to which he was unanimously elected. The association includes practically all the business men of Eugene.

FEW HOURS WILL DECIDE FATE

Time of Robbery May Send Prisoner to Pen for Life.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Upon the question of a few hours depends the life imprisonment of James Baine, alias Ryan, a prisoner in the City Jail charged with breaking into the stateroom of H. R. Adkinson, on the steamship Ramona, which arrived here from Vancouver, B. C., Sunday morning.

If the ship was in British waters when the theft was committed, Baine, if convicted, will receive a sentence that will not exceed 10 years. If he broke into the stateroom when the ship was in American waters, in case of conviction, it means life imprisonment in the penitentiary at Walla Walla.

NO THRILL ALONG HER KEEL

With Dull Thud, Ferry Kirkland Sticks on the Ways.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Amid the cheers of the excited multitude on shore and in excursion steamboats, the hull of the new Kirkland ferry stuck on the ways this afternoon with a dull thud, instead of striking the water with a loud splash, as prematurely announced.

One thousand persons, including the Mayors of Seattle and Kirkland, the King County Board of Commissioners, representatives of the Chambers of Commerce of Seattle and Kirkland, many prominent citizens in the ordinary walks of life, a brass band and hundreds of interested school children gathered to witness the launching. All efforts to start the vessel proved unavailing.

SWEET ON VARIETY ACTRESS

Wealthy Palouse Resident Gives Her Ring—Now Wants It Back.

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 21.—(Special.—Edward Fitzpatrick, a wealthy Spangle real estate dealer, the night before the variety theaters closed sine die, "loaned" bewitching Hazel Heddington, playing the part of the "Millionaire's Daughter," his $300 diamond ring. Hazel refuses to return it, and now he has sworn out a warrant for her arrest. She says he gave her the ring.

TWO DUCKHUNTERS MISSING

Manuel Thomas and Joseph Turney, of Dayton, May Be Drowned.

DAYTON, Or., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Two men while hunting ducks in the Willamette today are believed to have been drowned. Joseph Turney and Manuel Thomas were heard calling for help, and as they have not returned it is believed their boat was overturned in the swift waters. The hunters secured a boat this afternoon from M. F. Hastings' place. At the Breathwaite ranch, one mile below, the river is very swift.

Elusive Prisoner Retaken.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Monroe T. Brown, arrested in Spokane some months ago on a charge of having stolen nearly $2000 from the Northern Express Company by whom he was employed in Tacoma, and who escaped from Deputy Sheriff Stenso when the latter went to Spokane after him, has been captured in Helena, Mont. The news of the capture was received by Sheriff Morris today and an officer will be sent to Helena to bring the prisoner to Tacoma.

WOMAN SAVES LIFE

Springs Between Men Who Hold Drawn Revolvers.

SALEM TRAGEDY AVERTED

W. H. Pauls Resists Arrest by Chief of Police, Who Is Serving Warrant Because Neighbor's Dog Had Been Stolen.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Courage born of a mother's love prevented a homicide this afternoon when W. H. Pauls drew a revolver upon Chief of Police Gibson. Quick as a flash Gibson whipped out his own weapon and was about to pull the trigger, when Pauls' mother sprang between the men and thus saved the life of one or both.

The affair arose over a matter of small importance, but came near resulting fatally, for both Pauls and the Chief of Police are good shots and were within a few feet of each other.

This morning Emery James, familiarly known as "Cherokee," filed a complaint in the police court charging Pauls with stealing his dog. A warrant was issued and Chief Gibson went to the Pauls' home in South Salem to serve it. In response to his knock, the door was opened by Mrs. Pauls, and when he stated his business, young Pauls uttered defiance. Gibson advanced to arrest his man, when Pauls pulled a revolver and threatened to shoot if the Chief took another step. Gibson is not of the give-up kind, and jerked out his own revolver and was about to fire at Pauls, when the mother intervened. In response to her pleadings the young man gave up. He was fined $25 for stealing the dog and $100 for drawing a gun.

BOISE BANK CLOSES DOORS

Capital State, Limited, Finds Recent Withdrawals Too Heavy.

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 21.—The Capital State Bank of Idaho, Limited, of this city, failed to open its doors for business this morning. The directors of the bank, at a meeting held last night, decided that a temporary suspension was necessary, owing to recent heavy withdrawals of deposits. W. S. Bruce, an expert accountant, who has been engaged in making a careful investigation into the affairs of the bank, advised the action. This morning he issued a statement in which he gave it as his opinion that the bank is solvent, and that the assets are sufficient to pay the depositors every dollar due them.

The Capital State Bank has capital stock of $200,000, reserve of $100,000, and deposits at the time of the last statement—December 22—of $1,076,722. Before the financial troubles began, the deposits amounted to about $1,250,000.

The failure of the bank to open for business caused considerable dismay in business circles, but none of the other banks of the city has been effected thus far. This is the first bank failure in the history of Boise.

HEARING OF THE COMMISSION

Livestock Shippers Want Uniform Shipping Contract.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—The Railroad Commission began its hearing today on the petition of the livestock shippers for the adoption of a uniform shipping contract on all roads doing business in Oregon. The shippers particularly desire the elimination of the provision that the shipper shall take all risks and see that the car is in proper condition for shipping.

They also want the return limit for caretakers on the Southern Pacific extended from seven days to 30 or 40 days and want transportation furnished for a shipper of one car as well as to a shipper of more than one.

The hearing will be continued in Portland. C. L. McNary is conducting the case for the shippers, while A. C. Spencer represents the O. R. & N. R. A. Lister the Southern Pacific and Mr. Kerr the Northern Pacific.

Spokane Blue Laws Will Stand.

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Tonight the City Council, by tie vote, refused to repeal any of the ancient blue laws, particularly those relating to Sunday closing of saloons.

NORTHWEST BREVITIES.

Salem, Or.—H. P. Minto today filed notice of his candidacy for Republican nomination for Sheriff of Marion County.

Eugene, Or.—Charles Van Vrankins, an old settler of Junction City, 65 years old, was brought here today and adjudged insane.

South Bend, Wash.—The Tokeland Oyster Company is fitting up a building for an oyster cannery. There is a big demand for fresh canned oysters.

Salem, Or.—The Salem grocerymen who were arrested last week for displaying goods too near the sidewalk and for occupying too much space on the walk, were fined $2 each by Recorder Moores today and they have agreed to comply with the ordinance in future.

Eugene, Or.—The Merchants' Protective Association held its annual election last evening, choosing the following officers for 1908: President, G. D. Linn; vice-president, I. T. Nicklin; secretary, R. R. Knox; treasurer, A. T. Cockerline. The annual banquet was served at the Hoffman House.

Albany, Or.—Judge L. T. Harris has ordered a special session of court for next Friday, to resume consideration of the case of the State of Oregon vs. Ralph Turpin. Turpin, who is under $1000 bonds, is now wanted on another statutory offense. Efforts to locate him have been unavailing.

North Yakima, Wash.—The City Council tonight passed a resolution of intention to pave 22 of its main business streets, covering a distance of two miles, with vitrified brick. A sharp contest between two leading paving companies of the Coast has been in progress for two weeks. The estimated cost of this pavement is $245,000.

Pendleton, Or.—W. A. Scott, representing R. Hollins & Son, of Chicago, this evening offered to purchase city bonds at par, to the value of $68,000, and asked for a ten-day option on the lewis bonds, amounting to $67,000. His proposition was referred to the finance committee of the Council.

Astoria, Or.—David L. Kelly has sold his tract of timber land, consisting of about 1360 acres, where he is operating a logging camp near Blind Slough, to the Whitney Company, limited, of Michigan, for $55,000. The purchasing company owns several thousand acres of timber land in that vicinity.

Salem, Or.—The Oregon Electric Railway Company has come into collision with the Salem City Council by reason of the construction of a "Y" on State and High streets for the purpose of turning cars at this end of the line. The company's franchise did not grant power to place a "Y" there and the committee was tonight authorized to tear it up.

Condon, Or.—At the annual directors' meeting of the First National Bank of Condon a dividend of 12 per cent was carried to surplus. J. Frank Watson, of Portland, who has been president of the institution since its organization, handed in his resignation and also severed his connection as a stockholder. The bank is now entirely a local institution.

ANGERED, THEY GO HOME

PEACE DECLARED AND POUTING ASSESSORS RECALLED.

Idaho Officials, After Stormy Session, Agree to Base Taxation on Cash Valuations.

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Idaho Assessors, at their meeting today, struggled with a number of questions, but arrived at a definite conclusion on one. They got at cross purposes with the State Board and declared it was useless to attempt to agree upon a cash value assessment, as the State Board showed no disposition to stand with them. Later one of the members of the Board changed front and what had been done was rescinded. After the early split several of the Assessors left for home. After the reconciliation these were wired to return, and are on their way back.

There was some discussion of railway assessment, but it developed that no agreement could be reached, as there is wide difference among members of the Board.

Governor Gooding explained he had been misquoted on his plan for a basis of assessment. He stood for assessment at full cash valuation. The Governor made his position very plain, but Attorney-General Guheen, of the State Board, did not express agreement. This was what angered the Assessors. They said it was useless to attempt to fix assessment at the cash value if the State Board would not stand by it. Later Attorney-General Guheen announced he coincided with the Governor. That led to calling back of members who had gone home, and it is quite probable the long agitation to get assessments up to the cash value instead of from one-third to one-half will at last be successful.

E. A. Perard Not Guilty.

PENDLETON, Or., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—After being out three hours this evening the jury in the case of E. A. Perard, accused of stealing sheep, brought in a verdict of not guilty. The trial of the case occupied two days and was the big case in docket for this term of court.

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.
