M'PHERSON IS STILL IN

Mayor Says No Formal Resignation Has Been Tendered. Mayor Lane considers W. G. McPherson still a member of the Executive Board, and a peculiar situation has developed over this supposed resignation of Mr. McPherson. The latter served written notice on City Auditor Barbur

last week to send him no more notices of meetings of the Board, as he had resigned. At the regular meeting of the Executive Board yesterday afternoon the communication from Mr. McPherson to Auditor Barbur was read, but as it was not directed to the Executive Board, it was not acted upon. The members hardly knew what to do with the communication for a time, but a motion was finally made to continue with the regular order of business, which meant that Mr. McPherson still retains membership on the Board, as far as the members are concerned. "I still consider Mr. McPherson a member of the Executive Board," said Mayor Lane, after the meeting of the Board. "He never tendered his resignation formally, and therefore he is still a member. When he spoke to me about going away he said he would be gone about two or three months, and that I had better appoint some one to serve while he was absent. That is the way I understood him, and as far as I am concerned, he is still a member of the Board, as I have not received his resignation." Bar Committee Meeting. A meeting of all members of the Portland bar will be held at 5:30 o'clock this morning in Department No. 4, at the Courthouse, when the lawyers will receive the report of the committee appointed to prepare a memorial to the late Judge Arthur L. Frazer.

1908 MODEL BALL BEARING We don't know how to advertise, nor do we know much about selling typewriters, but the J. C. Smith & Bros. typewriter sells itself. This was clearly demonstrated on Monday, January 20, 1908, when Professor A. P. Armstrong, proprietor of Portland's leading Business College, ordered 15 of the new 1908 model ball-bearing machines. L. and M. Alexander & Co., 179 Fifth street.
