for the material to be used by the companies named. The grading will leave a 10 per cent grade at the steep place. The sidewalks and Belgian blocks will cost about $48,000. The street is 80 feet wide.

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 4.—(Special.)—Bullets flew thick and fast in the shooting affray participated in by Austrians in a saloon this afternoon, and when the smoke of battle cleared away, Mike Obrodovich and Don Bostrovich, laborers, lay prostrate on the floor, the former shot through the hand and right breast and the latter in the groin. The shooting was done by J. J. Smiljanyek, 29 years old.

If a man needs an extra pair of pants, the right time to buy them is while the Brownsville Woolen Mill store is selling off all their extra pants at $1.50 per leg, or $3.00 the pair.

A glance in this store's front window will show a splendid assortment of patterns which always sell for much higher prices than are now asked.

Sentenced for Delaying Mails. GARFIELD, Wash., Feb. 4.—(Special.)—Mark E. Tant, formerly a letter-carrier at Long Beach, Cal., has pleaded to a charge of delaying the mails and retaining letters in his possession, and has been sentenced to a term of 15 months in jail. Young Tant was the first white child born in Garfield, his parents having been respected pioneers of the Palouse country.

Mrs. Elvina Sager and family wish to extend their thanks to their friends for their kindness and assistance during the recent illness and death of the husband and father.

WILDE'S PLEDGE TO TELEPHONE BONDHOLDERS.

Promises That They Shall Receive Coupons Due April 15, Notwithstanding Court's Order.

That depositors in the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank should be entitled to clip the interest coupons on telephone bonds due April 15, is the belief of Louis J. Wilde, president of the German-American Bank, and he promises that depositors in the closed bank who signed for telephone bonds in lieu of a part of their balances in the bank, shall receive the interest on the bonds for the past six months. The next semi-annual interest payment is payable upon the presentation of the interest coupons, and it was the proposition of the reorganizers to clip these coupons and divide the interest equally between the bank and depositors who signed for the bonds.

Mr. Wilde has been in favor of paying the whole interest coupon to depositors who pledged themselves to take telephone bonds, and says that if the reorganizers do not agree to turn this interest over to depositors, he will take action himself and pay them this interest, deducting it, if necessary, from the certificates of deposit in the closed bank held by the telephone people.

"In the provision made by the court for the payment of interest on telephone bonds to depositors who took telephone bonds," said Mr. Wilde, "the date when interest is to commence should be January 15, instead of February 15, for this would be half the six months between regular interest coupon payments. The setting of the date at February 15 was a mistake. At any rate, I shall insist that creditors of the bank who took telephone bonds have interest paid from the date of the last coupon, which was in October. If the bank does not see fit to agree to pay this interest, I will see that the telephone company pays it and deducts the amount from their certificates of deposit in the bank."

Through his attorney, Zera Snow, E. E. Lytle has turned in his stock in the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank, amounting to $25,000, to Receiver Devlin, so this clears away the last of the stock held in the old bank, so that the reorganization is free to go ahead without any claims being held against the bank's assets outside those of the creditors.

Judge Gantenbein will hand down his decision in the merger case at 9:30 o'clock this morning in Department No. 4. There is no doubt in the minds of those directly interested that this order will be favorable to the reorganization. The court has shown a disposition to go to the bottom of the merger plans and place such safeguards as would insure the absolute protection of the depositors in the defunct institution. It is believed that this has been accomplished.

Receiver Devlin was confined to his home yesterday with a cold.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The ordinance recently passed by the Board of Aldermen forbidding women smoking in public places was vetoed yesterday by Mayor McClellan.

The Mayor stated that the Aldermen have no power to make such a law.

TACOMA, Feb. 4.—For several evenings strange red and green lights have been seen at high altitudes at Tacoma, Kent and other places along Puget Sound and as far south as Grays Harbor. Yesterday, while a Northern Pacific train was waiting for a drawbridge in the Tacoma yards, the engineer saw a strange object very high in the air and somewhat obscured by the heavy weather. He called the conductor's attention and finally several passengers saw it. Tourists who had fieldglasses declared the object to be an airship and said it carried a Japanese flag. That it is a Japanese airship, carrying spies who are studying the Coast topography, is the firm belief of many persons.
