EAST MORRISON STREET FILL.—The fill on East Morrison street, between Seventh and Ninth streets has been delayed pending the completion of the big dredge being built for the Pacific Bridge Company at St. John. This dredge is now completed and is now moored between the Morrison and Madison bridges, where the machinery is being "warmed up." The company will use this dredge in taking up material for fill on East Morrison, East Stark and for other East Side streets for which the company has contracts. The gravel dock at the foot of East Taylor street also is finished and equipped with machinery for handling material scooped up from the bottom of the river.

CHINESE GIVE ENTERTAINMENT.—Before a crowded audience at the Taylor-Street Methodist Church, at 8 o'clock last night, a Chinese character entertainment was given for the benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Chinese Mission. The entertainment, held under the auspices of the ladies of the mission was successful, the various numbers of a lengthy programme meeting with frequent and hearty applause. The numbers included recitations and solos, duets and quartets. All the players were dressed in costumes representing the various nations. William K. Tai, a native of Oregon appeared as a character.

PRINCE'S FUNERAL TODAY.—The funeral of Benjamin F. Shaw, an Oregon pioneer who died at his home, at 1055 Broadway, Monday morning, will be held tomorrow, Monday, at 12:30 P. M. The body will be taken to Vancouver, Wash., for interment in the family lot in the cemetery there. Mr. Shaw was a veteran of the Indian War of 1854 and was one of the best-known pioneers of the Pacific Northwest. He made his home for years at Vancouver, and requested that he be buried in the cemetery at that place.

COUNTY FAIR INCORPORATED.—The Multnomah County and Grand District Fair, held articles of incorporation with the County Clerk yesterday. The purpose announced is that of holding fairs from time to time. The capitalization is placed at $2,000 divided into shares of $5 each. It is provided that no one person or interest shall be entitled to own or hold more than 50 shares. J. J. Johnson, H. E. Davis and E. L. Thorpe are the incorporators.

CHINESE GAMBLERS RAIDED.—Detectives Kay and Klendon raided a Chinese gambling house, at 84 Second street, last night, and arrested 15 men engaged in a game of fan-tan. An evidence of these raid the officers took along with their prisoners the remains of the door to the room in which the men were found, which had to be knocked in with sledge hammers before entrance could be gained. The prisoners were bailed out by another Chinese.

FRANK HACHENRY'S FUNERAL.—The funeral of Frank Hachenary, formerly City Treasurer and City Councilman of Portland, will be held from the chapel of E. Helman & Co., at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Hachenary was a Portland pioneer and had a wide circle of friends in this city. He was 75 years of age at the time of his death, which occurred at Walla Walla, Wash., last Sunday.

FIRE IN WAREHOUSE.—A fire broke out in a warehouse at 1230 P. M. on Sunday, February 2, at the corner of 11th and Stark streets. The fire was caused by some break in the chimney, probably from the fire of the fire spread through the upper part of the house, but was finally extinguished by the Fire Department. The damage is about $500.

WIFE SPEAK TO YOUNG MEN.—Beginning next Sunday night, February 9, Rev. W. H. Hepp, pastor of Grace Methodist Church will give a series of three addresses to young men. The subject of the address on the first Sunday night will be "The Young Man Finding Himself." The Young Man's Duty to Portland will be given on February 16, and on Sunday, February 23, "The New American," which will contain a eulogy of Abraham Lincoln.

COUNCIL OF JEWISH WOMEN.—The February meeting of the Council of Jewish Women will be held at 12:30 P. M. in the Selling-Hirsch hall. There will be a paper on "A Defense of the Modern Literature," by Miss Anna Shannon Mountain. Mrs. M. H. Hirsch will speak on "The Oregon Scholarship Loan Fund." The current evening paper will be read by Mrs. Julius Louisson and there will be a vocal solo by Mrs. M. H. Hirsch.

FUNERAL OF N. B. WILLIAMS.—The funeral of Nathaniel B. Williams, who died February 1, at the family residence, 1655 Michigan avenue, was held yesterday afternoon from his late home, interment was in the cemetery. He was 75 years old and was a veteran of the Civil War. A number of comrades attended the funeral.

THE THEATERS

"Red Feather" at the Marquann.
Countess Hilda Von Draga.
Another charming young woman, with a voice that commands attention and admiration, is Marguerite Burnham, who appears as Anita, the Spanish girl, in "The Rose and the Broom." The Rose and the Broom was one of the pleasant incidents of the evening. Julia Curtis has the part of the French little milliner this year and her efforts throughout were crowned with success. The imitations she gave, especially that of Eddie Foy, were enthusiastically received, while her singing and dancing were commendable.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 4.—The conservatives opened an attack upon Professor Paul Milukoff in the Douma today because of his American trip, but the design was frustrated by the over-vehementness of the spokesman, M. Puriakovich, who couched the attack in such abusive phraseology as to entail his exclusion for 15 sessions, the maximum penalty allowed by the rules of the Douma. M. Puriakovich called Milukoff a traitor and a scoundrel, and he would willingly spit, loud and prolonged uproar ensued, and M. Puriakovich was ejected from the tribune, turned toward M. Milukoff, and said: "You scoundrel, you can challenge me."

ADMITS PERJURY CHARGE.
Druce Witness Confesses in the Druce Case.
LONDON, Feb. 4.—Miss Mary Robison has made a full confession of wilful perjury in the Druce case and has admitted the truth of the statements made by the prosecution during the trial of Herbert Druce on charges of perjury brought by George Hollamby Druce, who was striving to make good his claim to the title and estate of the Duke of Portland.

WILL MEET U'Ren in Debate.
Debate over Statement No. 1 and the Initiative and referendum will take place tonight between W. S. U'Ren, of Oregon City, on the one side, and State Senators C. W. Hodson and S. C. Beach, on the other. Mr. U'Ren, as father of the two political doctrines, will defend his offspring, and Mr. Hodson and Mr. Beach will try to convince their auditors that Mr. U'Ren should not consider himself a glad father. The meeting will be that of the South Portland Republican Club, in Jones' Hall, front and Gibbs streets, W. P. Lillis, president of the club, will preside. The club has arranged for a good musical entertainment, in addition to the political debate, and all interested persons are invited to attend.

Milukoff, and said: "You scoundrel, you can challenge me."

LINE STRIKES SCHOONER.
Three of Crew Ditch and Four Brought Into Port.
NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The Old Dominion liner Jefferson brought into port tonight Captain Joseph E. Reitia and three seamen, survivors of the three-masted schooner, which was struck and sank early today off Winter Quarter Light, on the North Virginia coast. The body of a fourth seaman, who died from exposure after being rescued, lay in the saloon of the Jefferson, while the mate and fifth member of the crew were either drowned or died from exposure, after clinging to the wreckage for hours.
