District Attorney Does Not Propose to Hinder Merger With Oregon Trust or to Delay Depositors Getting Their Money

Another supposed obstacle in the way of the reopening of the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank was removed yesterday when District Attorney Manning made the statement that he would not permit his investigation to delay the consummation of the merger of the Oregon Trust and German-American banks. He declares that the moment the directorate of the new bank is completed he will withdraw his experts from the Oregon Trust's quarters and not hinder the bank's reopening for a moment.

This means that the new German-American Bank should open for business American Bank should open for business in the quarters of the old Oregon Trust & Savings Bank not later than the middle of next week. Directors will unduobtedly be selected in time for their names to be submitted to Judge Gantenbein for his approval temotrow. When that is done and the contracts signed by the new di-rectorate and Receiver Deviln, the doors of the new German-American Bank will

I am rushing my investigation as rapidly as possible," said Mr. Manning. "The very day that I receive notice from Mr. Read that the new board of directors Mr. Reed that the new board of directors of the German-American Bank is ready for the court's approval I will withdraw my experts. My only object is to sceure for the depositors their money. I have not at any time stood in the way of the reorganization, but have assisted it in every way possible. I deforred investigation at the earnest solicitation of those in charge of the reorganization and of the depositors. This is the first opportunity that I have had to make an investigation, but I do not propose that it shall stand in the way of the merger and hinder the depositors in getting their money."

President Reed Pleased.

When shown the statement of Mr. Manning, S. G. Reed, who will be presi-dent of the German-American Bank, said that official's action would greatly hasten the reopening of the bank. He said he would select directors at once, and would probably submit his list to the court tomorrow. Upon the approval of Judge Gantenbein being given the direc-torate, the bank will be in a position to

Other preliminaries practically have been completed. Mr. Reed was busy yes-terday preparing the contract to be signed by the new directorate and Re-ceiver Devlin, providing for the carrying out of the terms of the merger, as set forth in the court's order. This document may possibly be signed by tomorrow night or Monday morning. In that event the bank will open the first of next week.

Mr. Reed has provided himself with a list of 2 prominent business years of the hist of 20 prominent business men of the city from which he is selecting his directorate. There will be no trouble in choosing seven names satisfactory to the court from this list.

Receiver Devilin threatens to bring suit o force it to return to the bank its bonds of the rallway corporation, which the bank owns. These securities, it is charged, are held by Herman Witten-berg, who is the head, front and center of the United Railways. It is said they were turned over to Mr. Wittenberg the day before the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank closed by President Moore, when that official was flurried by the critical condition of the bank, and thought he was acting for the best interests of the institution in giving up the securities. At that time the bank was trustee for the United Railways.

Syndicate of Six.

This was at the time that a syndicate of six men, under the management of Herman Wittenberg, was formed. Each was to put in $5,000 and the $50,000 left after the purchase of the stocks and was to put in $25,000 and the $50,000 left after the purchase of the stocks and bonds was to be used in building the road. The Southern California holders were paid $100,000. The payment of the $25,000 was to entitle each member of the six to take $25,000 in bonds and one-sixth of the 92 per cent of the $3,000,000 stock in the project. The rest of the bonds were to be left with the bank and sold to raise money for further construction.

Money advanced to the bank was to be secured by securities and collateral de-posited. The men in the syndicate were Herman Wittenberg, W. Cooper Morris, W. H. Moore, J. M. Healy, E. E. Democrats at Tacoma Act on Con vention Indorsement.

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 6.—(Special.)
-The whole state of Democratic candidates this afternoon filed declarations of candidacy with the City Clerk, as "auggested" by the recent Democratic city convention, with one exception. He also filed, but not in accord with the other "suggestions." L. F. Ball, who had not been "suggested" by the con-vention, named himself with the ticket as candidate for the Council from the Fifth Ward.

J. H. Pierenecle, secretary of the Democratic city central committee, says he knew nothing of Mr. Ball's candidacy and attributed no especial significance to it. But to politicians generally the double filing has a significance. It shows that there are two factions of Democrats. This is further made apparent by the story which is gaining wide circulation that J. J. Anderson, who opposes the present city administration, will file a declaration of candidacy for Mayor tomorrow.

FUNDS FOR ELK CREEK ROAD

Portland Subscriptions Assure Public Highways From Seaside.

ASTORIA, Feb. 6.—(Special.)—The County Court was notified today that the sum of £1485 has been subscribed by the interested property owners residing in Portland toward the fund for the completion of the public highway between Seaside and Elk Creek. It is expected that quite an additional amount will be secured, as the subscription list is to be circulated among the local owners of property at Elk Creek and Cannon Beach. This means that the road will be built this Summer, as the court had notified ASTORIA, Feb. 6 .- (Special.)-The Counthis Summer, as the court had notified the property owners that if not less than $1500 was subscribed, the court would or-der the improvement made. Mr. Moore granted his request, but it is not believed that this assignment will affect the title to the three-sixths of the 22 per cent of the syndicate stock of the United Raliways, which is said to be the property of the bank. Title to this interest in the United Railways was acquired through the wish of the bank officials to oblige their friends and finance the railway project. Slingerland took pains to telephone Su-perintendent Gardner and to ask if he had received the warning, and what he intended to do. As Mr. Gardner was not at home at that time, Slingerland did not ceive an answer.

The letter of warning purports to have been written by Emma Barton, who figured prominently in the Slingerland case when it was on trial. The letter says that Judge Frazer's death was a judgment from God, and that unless Edna Slingerland is returned to Slingerland at once, Mr. Gardner will meet a like fate.

The letter is dated January 20, and in part reads:

part reads: "Please bear in mind that I say God commands you to return Edna to her parents. Judge Frazer took her from a people that are true Christians, and their life given up to God, and because they were raising her for Jesus, and Jesus only, the devils in the form of men laid their hands on her and took her from her Christian home and Christian

And as Mr. Frazer refused to comply with the wishes of God through his servant, God has done exactly by Mr. Frazer as he said he would do. And I am commanded by God to copy the letter and send to you with this one, as a warning to you.

The warning to Judge Frazer above re-ferred to was written by J. A. Burrowes, and is enclosed to Mr. Gardner. It closes as follows:

"And every one that seeth or readeth this warning, as well as you, that layeth his hand or tongue upon this our Father's work," or any one of God's chosen ones, great or small, God's anger and judgment and vengeance shall fall upon their own heads suddenly. PRESCRIPTION WHICH ELDER-LY PEOPLE SHOULD VALUE.

Promptly Relieves Kidney Troubles and Rheumatism - Can Be Mixed at Home.

The great majority of men and women at the age of 50 years begin to feel the first signs of advancing age in some form of kidney trouble and bladder weakness. Few are entirely free from that torturous disease, rheumatism, which is not a disease in itself, but a symptom of deranged function of the kidneys which have become clogged and sluggish, falling in their duty of sifting and straining the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood, permitting it to remain and decompose, settling about the joints and muscles, causing intense pain and suffering.

The bladder, however, causes the old folks the most annoyance, especially at night and early morning.

A noted authority in a recent article stated that he has wonderful success with the old-time "vegetable treatment." He states: "Of sixteen cases of bladder troubles and rheumatism which have been treated with this treatment only one very complicated case failed to fully yield to its remarkable influence. It is the most harmless treatment I have ever found to clean the system of rheumatic polsons; remove irritation of the bladder and relieve urinary difficulties of the old people. It is a true vitalizing tonic to the entire kidney and urinary structure, reinvigorating the entire system."

What he terms "old vegetable treatment" consists of the following simple prescription, the ingredients of which can be obtained from any good pharmacy at small cost; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and upon going to bed, also drink plenty of water.

This prescription, though simple, is always effective in the diseases and affictions of the kidneys and bladder.
