BOYCOTT IN DUMA

Conservatives Leave When Milukoff Begins Speech.

FORCE AN ADJOURNMENT

Opposition Decides to Nip Political Activity of Constitutional Democratic Leader for Address Delivered in New York.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 7.—The tribulations of Professor Paul Milukoff, arising from his recent lecture in New York, on the political situation in Russia, were heightened in the Duma today by the formation of a grand parliamentary boycott of him, designed to make his further political activity in Russia impossible. The event occurred during a discussion of the motion recently made by M. Dutschkoff, leader of the Octoberist party, that the Duma authorize the committee on national defense to hold secret meetings to discuss the naval program and other strategic measures. When M. Milukoff arose and proceeded toward the tribune the Octoberists and conservatives, in pursuance of a previous agreement of the leaders of the party, quit the chamber, leaving the Duma without a quorum. The members of the opposition and Professor Milukoff faced the demonstration quietly, not uttering a word. M. Khromjakoff, president of the Duma, was compelled to announce an intermission, and when, after the recess had ensued, Professor Milukoff again mounted the tribune, the Octoberists and conservatives again passed into the lobbies in a body, causing an adjournment of the session. The weapon chosen to humiliate the constitutional democratic leader, however, cut both ways, and threatens to cause an entire suspension of the legislative activity in the Duma, as Professor Milukoff coolly announces that he intends to defend his right to speak and that he will claim the floor again and again until a quorum is present. In this the opposition groups, which passed a resolution declaring the behavior of the Octoberists an affront to the entire opposition.

TARIFF LEAGUE AT LONDON

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The Tariff Reform League held its annual love feast here today, and, judging from the enthusiasm of the many delegates in attendance, the Protectionists are more than satisfied with the progress of the movement which Joseph Chamberlain himself declared in a message he sent, "has surpassed my most sanguine expectations." Viscount Ridley, president of the league, delivered an address in which he referred to the wide support given the movement by the educated classes.

The unusual efforts now being made are for the purpose of preventing a recurrence of the disease by the advent of warm weather."

To Keep Minors Out of Poolrooms.

At a meeting of the council committee on health and police yesterday morning, Councilman Belding's ordinance, prohibiting minors from entering or remaining in poolrooms was recommended for passage. SLEEPS THIRTEEN DAYS

SPOKANE PHYSICIAN AWAKES PERFECTLY WELL.

Declares It Was Not Induced by Liquor or Intoxicants—Case a Puzzle to Doctors.

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 7.—(Special.) For 13 days Dr. W. A. Egbert, a practicing physician of Spokane, was asleep. After 48 hours, believed to be dying, he was watched by a nurse and a relative. But he came out of his slumbers with a clear vision, a good appetite, and in healthy condition. Then physicians examined their brother practitioner and several of them said the case is a complete puzzle. While in the sleep his body was limp and he seemed like a man dying. Doctor Egbert says the sleep was not the result of any liquor or narcotic, and that the whole period is a blank to him. He became unconscious January 26. He was found lying on the floor the next day and it was not until February 1 that he awoke. During this time he was taken from his room in a block downtown and carried to the hospital.

SELLS GAS AT DISCOUNT

San Francisco Company Glad to Get Part of Cash Due.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—Representatives of the San Francisco Gas & Electric Company appeared before the finance committee of the Supervisors today to urge the immediate payment of an old lighting bill for $447. They said the corporation felt the need of money and that the payment of the bill would be appreciated.

The committee called attention to the fact that the city is not overburdened with funds itself and suggested that arrangements might be made to pay the bill if a suitable reduction was made. The gas officials inquired to what amount the city would expect the bill to be cut. "Say $500," "We accept," said the gas officials and a demand for that amount was ordered drawn on the Treasurer.

GOES HOME TO GET ESTATE

Then Cave, the Adventurer, Will Return to America.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Genille-Cave-Browne-Cave sailed for England yesterday to secure the title and estates awaiting him there. He is the only surviving son of Sir Mylles Cave-Browne-Cave. Sir Genille's life has been a romantic one. When a boy his father sent him to sea to cure him of his wildness and on return home he enlisted in a Highland regiment and was then transferred to a cavalry regiment, just leaving for the war in Egypt. He fought in the battle of Tel-el-Kebir under Lord Wolseley and later went to Afghanistan where he was captured by the hill tribes, but escaped after being held a prisoner for some time. Returning to England, he quarreled with his father and came to America with a small allowance. He then went to Burma with an expedition sent out to kill big game for a museum and afterwards served in the South African War. He lived for a time in Hongkong and Yokohama, worked as a member of the "White Wings" in Kansas City, was a cowboy in the Southwest and in Wyoming, where he was found through inquir-ries set on foot by the British Ambassador at Washington.

He says he will return to America as soon as his business in England is settled and will take up his residence in one of the Western states.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 7.—Genille-Cave-Browne-Cave lived in Kansas City two or three years, working at sidewalk building and similar occupations. He tried to become reconciled to his father, but failed. He then went to Kansas, Colorado and Utah, working for a time as section hand on a railroad.

Cave said when he left Kansas City that he was going partly because he was disgusted with the proposals of marriage that followed the publication of his story.

WITHDRAW TROOPS MARCH 7

GOLDFIELD POLICE WILL THEN TAKE CHARGE.

President Advises Governor Sparks of His Decision and Latter Says That It Is Satisfactory.

CARSON, Nev., Feb. 7.—United States troops will be retained in Goldfield until March 7. The following telegram was received from President Roosevelt by Governor Sparks today:

In accordance with your telegram of this date, I have issued an order that troops return to their permanent stations in 30 days from February 6, that is on March 7. I am sure you will understand that it is impossible for me again to defer the date of their return. Governor Sparks replied as follows: Captain of police force organizing as rapidly as possible. Says he can get this force equipped and ready for duty in 20 days. Equipment must be shipped from Eastern cities, which causes most delay.

The Governor stated this afternoon that a number of appointments on the police force have been made. Thirty active men will be immediately appointed for duty who will be sent to Goldfield as soon as equipped. Thirty reserves will also be named who can be called upon for field service at any moment. W. L. Cox has already received the appointment of superintendent, and A. U. Cahlan was this afternoon appointed inspector. Lieutenant-Governor Dickerson, who is commissary, will return to this city next week and will aid in equipping.

That Columbia Brand Lard Has Greater Food Value Than Any Vegetable Product, or Any Other Lard

"Columbia Brand" Lard, kettle rendered, is made right here in Portland, of U. S. Government inspected pork meat. The latest scientific food tests made by Dr. Grindly, professor of general chemistry at the University of Illinois, prove that meat food is far more easily digested and more completely assimilated than a vegetable diet. It is an antiquated idea that a vegetable product is to be preferred—latest research tells us different.

Bread, pastry—even cake—can be made with "Columbia Brand" Lard, without leaving the slightest "lardy" taste; it is so pure and wholesome. ALL MEATS CAN BE FRIED in it, being augmented by this food addition. The most delicate stomachs receive it with comfort. LESS IS REQUIRED than of any other shortening, owing to its high quality.

IT IS GUARANTEED by the United States Government as well as ourselves. CAREFULLY PACKED in air tight tins, excluding all foreign odors that may arise from other groceries. BOOK FREE—telling how the lard is made—how the U. S. Government protects you against impure meat and meat foods, and how you can always get the Oregon product, carrying the Government's stamp of guarantee.
