Prune Holders Willing to Make Concessions.

LOW OFFER MADE TO EAST

Buyers, However, Are Not Tempted to Operate in View of the Stagnant Demand-Eggs for the Alaska Trade.

Further advices were received from the East yesterday on the prune situation, which show a concessionary spirit prevalent in the market for the Oregon article. The slowness of the Eastern demand is largely responsible for the weakness in the market. It is said that holders at this end, who have neretofore, exhibited reluctance to part with their goods at anything under a 3-cent f. o. b. bag basis, have now shown a desire, at least in some quarters, to get business for forward shipment, and, in consequence, offerings are being made for prompt shipment on a 2%-cent f. o. b. bag basis According to word from the East, however, the lower prices offered have not influenced buyers to display any greater interest than was manifested by them when the packers were holding out for 3 cents. Ing out for 3 cents. A mail report from New York says:

In the present condition of the spot market there is no inducement offered to buyers at this end to take on additional quantities of Gregors prunes by forward purchases. The domand here is slow and the tone of the market, if not exactly weak, is at least unsettled. Only occasional small lots of spot goods are wanted, and these are selling on about a 3c f. o. b. bag basis. In California prunes there is very little spot business and so far as can be learned no sales for shipment from the Coast are being made. In view of the small supply left in California, holders there do not appear to be so anxious for business that they are willing to shade the f. o. b. basis prices of 3% 6 de on Santa Clara stock to any appreciable extent. Outside fruit is obtainable on a 3%c and possibly a 3%c f. o. b. basis in bags, but is not seiling.

holders there do not appear to be so arxious for business that they are willing to shade the f. o b basis prices of 3% 64c on Santa Clara stock to any appreciable extent. Outside fruit is obtainable on a 3% c and possibly a 3% c f. o. b basis in bags, but is not seiling.

According to private advices received from San Jose, there has been quite a little business done recently between growers and packers of Santa Clara princs, resulting in a further concentration of stocks in the hands of the packers. The basis on which most, if not all, of this business was done is said to have been 3% of for the four sizes in bags, and it is claimed that the buyers in bags, and it is claimed that the buyers in bags, and it is claimed that the buyers will have to get 40 basis for the goods to come out even. The fact that packers are buying and paying to the growers such a price at a time when there is practically no demand from Eastern markets is accepted as avidence of their confidence in the situa-
