

DETROIT THROBS WITH ENTHUSIASM

Taft Cheered Wherever He Appears.

GUILD FOR VICE-PRESIDENT

Secretary Talks for More Railroad Regulation.

CLEARER ANTI-TRUST LAW

Alternative Is Government Ownership, Which Would Be Peril to Republic — Says Lawbreakers Caused Panic.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 13.—Secretary of War William H. Taft was the guest this afternoon of the Michigan Retail Lumber Dealers' Association, and talked for half an hour at the luncheon which was tendered him by the association upon "The Moral Awakening Recently From Business Methods Which Permit Illegality and Fraud."

The address was the culmination of a busy six hours in Detroit. Arriving in the city at 12 o'clock from Grand Rapids in company with M. Jusseland, the French Ambassador, Governor of Michigan, J. W. Williams, United States Senator, William Alden Smith, of Michigan; Governor F. M. Warner and several other speakers at last night's Lincoln Club banquet in that city, Mr. Taft and the party were driven to the Hotel Ponchartraine. The Secretary greeted several thousand people at the public reception which began immediately upon his arrival at the hotel. Throughout his stay in the city the Secretary's every appearance on the street was the signal for cheers and enthusiasm.

Nine-Tenths for Taft.

More than 900 men were gathered about the tables in the banquet room of Harmon Hall to greet Mr. Taft, when he arrived, with several hundred more men and women, its capacity, seated in the gallery. Ex-United States Senator Thomas W. Palmer presided as toastmaster.

Governor Warner, while voicing the state's welcome to the Secretary, brought a tremendous outburst of enthusiasm when he declared that he was convinced that 80 or 90 per cent of the people of Michigan are for Mr. Taft's nomination for the Presidency on the Republican ticket. The Governor then suggested Mr. Guild for the nomination of Vice-President on the ticket with Mr. Taft.

Jusseland Lauds Presidents.

Mr. Jusseland was given a thundering welcome when he was presented by Mr. Palmer for a short address. The Ambassador, after declaring that, because of his position he naturally cannot meddle in American politics, eulogized the American Presidents of the past and present and said that it was his wish and hope that the country, when it elected another President, would add another glorious name to the already glorious list of names.

"I do not know who he shall be," said M. Jusseland, "but it seems that you know." (Applause interrupted him for several moments.)

Mr. Taft spoke of the revelations of the insurance investigation and the evils of over-issuance of stocks and bonds which he said was obtaining money under false pretenses. Taking up the question of railroad discrimination and recent legislation to prevent rebating, he said:

More Railroad Regulation.

The truth is, gentlemen, that we have not quite enough regulation of railways. Other powers ought to be conferred on the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is said that the Interstate Commerce Commission is not a safe way in which to control the railways. It is the only way in which we can control. We must see that we have strong men to sit on that commission, who can prove by their administration that it is the proper way.

It is that of government ownership, with all the state machinery which it involves, and I have no doubt that government ownership of the railways with the tremendous concentration of power it would involve, would enlarge the Republic. We have enough concentrated power in Washington now. To increase it so that the executive should control the enormous body of civil servants which would necessarily follow would result in making a President more powerful than any king who lives today.

Causes of the Panic.

I believe it is possible to enforce the present anti-trust law but we need a new law more specific, to bring all capital within its provision. I think the violation of the law is by no means so fashionable as it was formerly.

Now we are not going to have a business millennium, but we shall have a quickened public conscience and an eye on whether we have business done in a proper way, business conducted within the terms of the law. The people have waked up.

We have just had a panic. Some of the gentlemen who have felt the heat of public opinion have been only too glad to attribute it to the legislation to which I have referred. The charge is unfounded. It is due, if students of finance are to be trusted, to the gradual exhaustion of all the free capital of the world in enterprises which have not been or prove as it was expected they would be. Now we must wait, the whole world must wait until we earn more free capital.

There is no doubt that European investors in our securities have been frightened by the revelations of dishonesty which have been shown of late in many of our large institutions. But in the main, who pointed out that dishonesty to be charged with this lack of confidence or is it to be charged to the gentlemen who engaged in the illegality? It is not necessary to argue.

Mr. Taft left here at 5:30 o'clock for West Point, N. Y., where he will tomorrow attend the graduation exercises at the military academy.

CANNOT TRADE THE HOOSIERS

After Fairbanks Gives Up, Will Vote as They Please.

WABASH, Ind., Feb. 13.—Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, addressed the Indiana Lincoln League of Republican Clubs here tonight. He said in part:

"The Indiana delegation is going to Chicago for Vice-President Fairbanks' statements are being sent out that after a few ballots shall have been cast for him the delegation is to be delivered to him or that candidate. This is an insult to the Republicans in this state, which in their name I denounce."

The Republicans in Indiana, whom we will represent, are not to be traded or bartered. We will vote for our candidate until he is nominated, or until he himself tells us to vote no longer for him, and if land became exceedingly active. The wires between Oregon and Washington became busy, especially from Salem. The result of the hustling was that a very strong endorsement of his candidacy was sent to the Oregon delegation.

Yesterday morning W. C. Bristol, who while the Oregon delegation is trying to settle upon a candidate, is performing the duties of the office, informed Judge Wolverton that unless his successor were soon appointed, it would be necessary for him to call a Federal grand jury. Mr. Bristol called the court's attention to the large number of prisoners now in the county jail, held to await the action of a grand jury.

Schuebel Not Active.

Bristol, since Christian Schuebel was named for the place by Senator Bourne, has not been around the Federal building frequently. He has attended to the duties of the office as they came up and is waiting anxiously for his successor to be appointed, so that he can retire.

Bristol does not want to call a grand jury, but unless some one is appointed in his place he will do so.
