

RACIALLY DEFERRED STATEMENT NO. 1

W. S. U'Ren and His Followers Ready to Begin Active Campaign.

PLAYED WAITING GAME

Now That They Are Familiar With Line of Attack, Offensive Operations Planned—Speakers Will Stump State.

Politicians who are making the fight against statement No. 1 will not be unobstructed in their progress in the coming campaign. Those who have been most interested in "lining up" candidates for the Legislature who will refuse to subscribe to the statement have been active in the warfare against candidates pledging themselves to support the "people's choice" for some time, but those who are willing to bleed and die for statement No. 1 are only waiting until the "antislavery" have used their ammunition, and then the statement No. 1 men will turn loose the dogs of war.

Within the next week W. S. U'Ren and a host of other stalwarts will have completed their plans for a state campaign. It is the intention of the stalwart friends of statement No. 1 to enlist a score of speakers in every county in the state, and, in addition to the oratory, they will inaugurate an active letter-writing campaign. Since the opposition to statement No. 1 took shape the "antislavery" have held the center of the stage and it looked as though they would wage their war without molestation. So far only one or two candidates have come out into the open favoring the statement, and the battle, so far, seems to favor the "antislavery."

Played Waiting Game.

This, according to one rumor, is just what the believers in statement No. 1 wanted. They believed in silence and by holding back were able to get a good line on the flounder that the "antislavery" were using. U'Ren and his disciples have been watching the trend and effects of the arguments used by C. W. Hodson, S. C. Beach and others who are lined up to fight the part of the direct primary law. Now they have reached the end of their waiting game and think it is time to strike. From all reports, there are busy times in store for the mail-carriers and spellbinders.

Who will be the leading defenders of statement No. 1 has not as yet been decided upon, nor is it known where headquarters will be established. The first intimation that letter-writing would be resorted to as a means of fleeing to the Legislature men who favor statement No. 1 came in a press dispatch from Washington. It was said in this dispatch that Senator Bourne was preparing a letter to be scattered broadcast among the voters of Oregon, urging them to stand by statement No. 1.

The next information vouchsafed that letter writing would be freely indulged in came yesterday afternoon from Mr. U'Ren. He also admitted that speakers would be sent into the field.

Plans Still Indefinite.

Mr. U'Ren said that plans for countering the letter writing that has been done by the anti-statement men had not been fully worked out, and that no organization had been formed. He admitted that such a movement was under way. He asserted that so far the plans were nebulous.

From other sources, however, it is learned that the first gun in the campaign will be fired by U'Ren himself. He will speak at Woodburn early this week. In the meantime he and his associates will perfect a plan of campaign. Just what this Senator Bourne will play remains to be seen. It is expected that he will be exceedingly active and that he will urge his supporters to stand by their guns.

The "antislavery" have not been idle. In a speech that State Senator Beach delivered before the Sixth Ward Republican Club he declared that he had received letters from various parts of the state and that the tenor of these letters convinced him that statement No. 1 was unpopular.

In Multnomah county the "antislavery" are pretty well organized. Those who have been most prominent in the fight against the statement are also well acquainted as to what the statement means in other counties. Everything indicates a merry war when once the two factions get down to work.

PAY HONOR TO ANCESTOR

Chin Clan of Chinese Hold a Big Banquet.

In accordance with the custom of the family, the members of the Chin clan gave their annual banquet last night at the Yen Kim Lum Cafe, at which were present about 200 members of the family. The affair was in honor of the ancestors of the clan, Chin Wan Gon, who is an illustrious ancestor that served with renown in one of the wars of ancient China.

Each Chinese family has its tutelary deity, who was at one time in his career an earth noted for deeds of valor or learning. Chin Wan Gon lived many hundreds of years ago and was a powerful figure in the kingdom during his life. At the expiration of a proper time after his death he was canonized and is looked upon by the chins as the family deity.

The Chin family is the most numerous and powerful family represented in Portland, and it turned out in force to do honor to the memory of its ancestor. Delicacies such as the American palate has no conception of were served, and it is estimated that the cost of the dinner would foot up about $20 a table, each table seating about 15. With the exception of a few fowls, nothing that was served came from this country. All the viands were specially imported from China. The festivities continued up to a late hour, a Chinese orchestra furnishing music.

UPHOLD NAME OF OREGON

Suburban Republican Club Favors University Appropriation.

At the meeting of the Forty-fifth President Republican Club, in the old schoolhouse on East Twenty-seventh and Powell streets, Saturday night, Ben Risland, president, the club went on record unanimously as favoring not only the appropriation made by the last Legislature for the support of the State University, but also as believing that the appropriation should be increased to enlarge the facilities of the college, and make it a credit to Oregon. Allen R. Joy brought up this matter by calling attention to the fact that the referendum had been invoked to defeat the appropriation and declaring that such action was wrong and ill-advised and a reflection on the good name of the state. He said that every good citizen of Oregon should rally to the support of the appropriation.

J. B. Kelly, Ben Risland and others also spoke along the same line, and at the end of the discussion the following resolution was unanimously adopted, as introduced by Mr. Joy:

Resolved, That this club heartily and unanimously approves of the appropriation for the support of the State University of Oregon, and that every honorable endeavor to secure such increased appropriation in future as will place our State college on a par with similar institutions throughout the United States.

There was some consideration of the initiative and referendum measures that are to be voted on at the June election. It was decided to take up the measures for further discussion at future meetings. Allen R. Joy, Ben Risland and T. H. Compton were appointed a special committee to investigate and report on these measures at that meeting.

L. J. Kelly, T. H. Compton and J. B. Kelly were appointed the executive committee of the club. The hall committee reported that a room in the old schoolhouse, on East Twenty-seventh and Powell streets, had been secured as permanent quarters for the club. The next meeting will be held February 25.

CLEETON OUT OF CONTEST

OPPOSITION IS BELIEVED TO HAVE DEFEATED HIM.

Next Candidate for United States Attorney Likely to Be John H. McNary, of Salem.

It is expected that the next move looking toward the appointment of a successor to United States Attorney Bristol will be made this week following the return of Representative Hawley to Washington. The name of T. J. Cleeton, which has the unanimous indorsement of the Oregon delegation, has been before the President for nearly two weeks and the fact that his nomination has not been sent to the Senate is believed to indicate that reports sufficiently unfavorable to Cleeton have been forwarded to Washington to remove him from the contest. Until the President has disposed of Cleeton's recommendation, however, no other candidate can be considered and the discussion of other possible candidates is considered premature.

In the meantime, however, Mr. Cleeton and his friends are actively prosecuting his claims. Knowing that he is supported by the delegation, Cleeton's friends have strengthened that indorsement by a petition requesting the appointment, which petition has been signed by a great many of the members of the bar in this city. Many of the circuit judges and prosecuting attorneys of the state have written personal letters to the President indorsing Mr. Cleeton who has also been recommended for the place by Justices Moore and Bean of the Oregon Supreme Court.

These recommendations have all been forwarded to Washington, but it is inferred from the failure of President Roosevelt to recognize these communications promptly, that unfriendly influences have been urged against the further consideration of Cleeton's candidacy. In fact, Cleeton's friends suspect that Francis J. Heney is working to defeat consideration of the Multnomah County nomination. Mr. Cleeton is known to be friendly to Mr. Fulton and for that reason the friends of the former charge that the graft prosecutor, who stands close to the President, has put in some effective "knocks" at Washington. Mr. Heney's dislike for Mr. Fulton is so intense that he is expected actively to oppose the appointment of any man who at any time has been a supporter of the Senator from Oregon.

Should Mr. Cleeton's name be rejected by the President, the indications are that the next candidate to be considered will be John H. McNary, prosecuting attorney for the Third Judicial District. George H. Burnett, presiding judge of the same district, was last week considered a probable candidate for the appointment should Mr. Cleeton fall, but it develops that Mr. Burnett declined to permit his name to be considered. Furthermore, the Multnomah County judge has heartily indorsed Mr. McNary, for the appointment. It was at no time thought probable that Judge Burnett would become an active candidate for the position. It is generally known that the ambition of Judge Burnett is to be elected to the Oregon Supreme Court and his aspirations in that direction would not be realized if he were to be appointed to the position of United States Attorney for the more uncertain duties of attorney for the Government.

While perhaps not the choice of the legal fraternity, Judge Burnett is strong among the voters of his judicial district and has been re-elected repeatedly over the opposition of the practicing attorneys of his district. It is felt that it is better politics for him to remain in his present judicial position as a more secure stepping stone to the Supreme Court and he evidently has concurred in that judgment.

If Judge Burnett had become a candidate and been appointed to succeed Mr. Bristol, it is rumored in political circles that Governor Chamberlain would have appointed Prosecuting Attorney McNary to succeed Judge Burnett as a reward for Mr. McNary's services to the Governor in Multnomah County in 1906 when he later was re-elected, defeating Dr. James Withycombe, of Corvallis.

WILL MAINTAIN PRICES

Portland Barbers Take Warning From Tacoma Rate War.

If you have been neglecting to get your hair cut in the hope that the old charge of 25 cents might be restored, the indications are that you are playing a losing game. You might just as well visit your barber today, separate yourself from 25 cents and get out of the Paderewski class, for it is decidedly improbable that the price will be restored. The barbers of Tacoma tried price-cutting last week and discovered that it was ruinous to their business. Before the war ended some shops were cutting hair for 5 and 10 cents. The fight brought the boss barbers together and it was decided never again to compete with the established schedule. Portland barbers have no intention of inaugurating a rate-cutting campaign, being entirely willing to be governed by the judgment of their fellow workmen on the Sound.

In Portland the barbers have a strong union, with membership of 425. There are only two non-union shops in this city employing white help. There have been no desertions from the list of union shops since the new schedule of charges, including 25 cents for hair cutting went into effect August 26. Both the boss barbers and the journeymen are satisfied; the former because the additional 10 cents adds to the receipts without noticeably affecting the trade, and the latter because they are able to make better wages.

WILL TALK TO CHILDREN

Speakers Chosen to Visit Schools by Rose Festival Promoters.

Speakers selected by the special school committee of the Rose Festival Association to address the public school children next Thursday afternoon will meet at the Festival headquarters at 1:30 o'clock that afternoon, and the matters which it is desired to bring to the attention of the boys and girls will be discussed so that the talks of all the speakers may be uniform in character.

The plan as contemplated by Chairman W. Wynn Johnson, of the committee, is for very short talks, not to exceed ten or fifteen minutes, and while all schools have not as yet been provided for, it is expected that all will have been taken care of by next Thursday.

This afternoon committee representing the Rose Festival and the Rose Society will meet with the members of the Park Board in Mayor Lane's office to discuss a programme of patriotic exercises to be held in connection with the official "rose planting" day, next Saturday.

WEISER HAS BAD FIRE

Flames Damage Stock in Store on First Floor Oddfellow's Building.

WEISER, Idaho, Feb. 16.—(Special.)—At 2:30 this morning fire was discovered on the lower floor of the Oddfellows' building, occupied by Martin Klings with a stock of dry goods and furnishings. The fire department in a few minutes had the fire under control, but not until nearly everything in the store was ruined by fire, smoke and water. It had not burned through the ceiling and into the Oddfellows' hall on the second floor. (The stock was insured for $11,500 in fourteen different companies. Mr. Klings estimated the value of his stock at $21,000. The damage to the building will amount to about $2500, fully covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

Linn Taxes to Be Collected.

ALBANY, Or., Feb. 15.—(Special.)—County Clerk Miller has turned over to Sheriff Smith the warrant to collect the 1907 taxes of Linn County. The total amount to be collected on the roll this year, including all special levies, is $235,306.46.

SMITH'S MEATS

Are cooled and ripened by the fresh-air method. They are allowed to hang in a draft of fresh air until ready for the market. They shrink in weight, but gain in quality. Eat Smith's meats; you get more real meat and less moisture, and you get a square deal on honest scales. It stands to Reason That they are better than meat which is thrust into a cold storage room without allowing the animal heat any chance of escaping. Cold storage meats are moist and often sloppy. When you buy that kind you are paying for a certain amount of water that is ready injurious to one's system—but why should you buy them at all when you can get SMITH'S MEATS?
