Lincoln-Roosevelt League Is Extending Its Organization in California.

APPEAL OF SCHMITZ CASE

the Vacant Lots.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16 .- (Special.) A sparring match for position among the factions in the Republican party of the state has attracted general attention during the week. Negotiations are pending between the county committee and the Lincoln-Roosevelt League by which harmony may be restored. The league was organized as a series of Republican clubs throughout the state and intended pri-marily to make no attempt to capture the organization, but to rely entirely upon a direct appeal to the people on each issue as it arose. The league, however, has developed such unexpected strength that the offer for a conference came from the county committee. The league promptly met the overtures, but made it plain at the outset that the only agreement it would enter into must be such as to give

It complete control.

The first conference has been held and sppearances indicate that the league will soon assume control. This will give the organization a position of greater strength than it was thought it could acquire in so short a time. As pointed out before In these letters, the league is composed of those independent Republicans who are opposed to the domination of the Southern Pacific and are pledged to carry forward the principles of Theodore Roosevelt.

The league has been particularly active during recent weeks. Chester Rowell. editor of the Fresno Republican, state orof the organization throughout Southern California. Each assembly district is being canvassed and candidates will be placed in the field for the legislature from every district. It is the intention to send to the Legislature a set of men not bound to the Southern Pacific, as the legislative bodies of the past have been, and thus provide for the election of a lighted Southern Pacific Southern United States Senator free from the cor-

Schmitz Case in Supreme Court.

With the Schmitz case now before the Supreme Court, Interest will center for the time being on that tribunal. The District Attorney has appealed from the decision of the District Court of Appeals, which promulgated the ruling that has drawn forth the contempt of the world, to the effect that extortion is no world, to the effect that extortion is no crime. It is not thought that the Supreme Court will long delay in its decision. It may be stated that the members of the graft prosecution expect a reversal of the Appellate Court's decision, but predictions are useless.

The Appellate Court is practically a new institution in California. It was instituted some four years ago and occupies a place between the Superior Courts and the Supreme Court. The intermediary court was instituted primarily for the purpose of reliaving the Supreme Court of the Supreme Co was instituted primarily for the purpose of relieving the Supreme Court of the immense burden of work cast upon it. It was intended, therefore, that its decisions should be regarded as final. Nat-urally it will be the disposition of the Supreme Court to discourage appeals from the Appellate Court, but whether this will affect the decision in the Schmitz case, cannot, of course, be stated.

The appeal was written by C. W. Cobb, Heney's law partner, and contains some caustic comment on the ruling of the court. Bitter irony runs through the verbiage in a swift undercurrent. It is one of the most remarkable document which the Supreme Court has to

Meanwhile the case of Abe Ruef en gages the attention of the court. Ruef's attorney, Henry Ach, is making the same technical fight that characterized the de fense in the graft cases in their early stages. There appears, however, no reason to doubt that all of the technicalitles brought forward by Ach will be swept aside and the case ordered to trial. Some time may be consumed in securing a jury as Ach is extremely searching in interrogation of talesmen, but after that the case will proceed to a speedy conviction. Ruef will of course urge that his contract gave him immunity, but the false plea will be swept aside with small Flowers in Vacant Lots.

San Francisco is undergoing a general housecleaning for the double purpose of looking presentable when the fleet arrives and for providing against a spread of the bubonic plague. Sidewalks are being cleaned, vacant lots cleared and an attempt made to dress the city in holiday attire. The large amount of building operations, however, makes impossible any special show of cleanliness. One suggestion that has been received with favor calls for the adornment of all the vacant lots with grass and flowers. Su-perintendent McLaren, of Golden Gate Park, has suggested that seed of rapidly growing flowers be scattered in the vacant spaces and the committee in charge of the celebration has approved the recom-

The house cleaning to guard against the plague has proceeded along a well defined plan. Rats are being killed at the rate of 1000 a day. Dr. Rupert Blue, the Federal officer in charge of the situation, says that is too alow. The Citizens' Health Committee has authorized him at any time he deems it expedient to increase the bounty on the rodents from 10 cents to 25 cents for the maies and 50 cents for the females.

Promise to Do All in Their Power to Help-Other Meetings Today.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16 .- Meetings were held today by members of the Re-tail Butchers' Association of San Frantail Butchers' Association of San Fran-cisco, members of the Barbers' Union and the owners of barber parlors throughout the city, to further the plans of the health authorities in riding the city of rats and other aids to the spread of the plague, should there be a return of the dread disease to the city with the beginning of warm weather. These inbeginning of warm weather. These in-stitutions all agreed to lend every assistance to the crusade.

Following instructions from the archibliop, all members of the Catholic clergy in the city talked from their putpits today on the necessity for better sanitary conditions and the immediate extermination of rats, and made appeals to their parishioners to take such measures as will be most effective.

There are several meetings scheduled for tomorrow, and it is expected that before the end of the week every organization in the city will be working to the end that all conditions tending to spread the plague, should it again appear, will be removed.

Beckham Democrats Determined to Rule or Ruin-Political Game Blocks Legislation.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 16. - The Kentucky General Assembly has bal-loted for exactly a month in an effort to elect a United States Senator to succeed James B. McCreary, and today is apparently no nearer an election than it was on the day the first ballot was taken. In the first vote, ex-Governor Beckham, who had been nominated at the Democratic pri-maries, received 65 votes; ex-Governor Bradley, Republican caucus nominee, 64 votes, while seven Democratic votes were scattered and one Republic-

The relative standing of the two candidates is practically the same as when the voting began, and during the four weeks intervening, however, the limit of politics has been played by both Democrats and Republicans in the effort to secure an advantage in the race and break the deadlock. The principal vehicle for charges and counter-charges has been a bill to ex-tend the provisions of the county unit lineal option prohibition law uniform-

The Republicans have charged that the Beckham Democrats have used this bill as a legislative football, seek-ing first to deal with the recalcitrant Democrats, first by holding up the bill, and falling in this to hang it over their heads as a punishment for their failure to support the Democratic nomines. ENGLAND FORMULATING PLAN

Cabinet Will Hear Scheme of Foreign Office Next Week.

LONDON, Feb. 16.-The leaders in the movement for reforms in Macedonia are urging upon Sir Edward Grey, the Secre-tary of Foreign Affairs, that the break-ing up of the concert of the powers gives the government opportunity for action which should bring about beneficial results. They contend that Great Britain is now free to act vigorously and being outside the group of concession seekers, her demands will be more likely to receive attention.

ner demands will be more likely to receive attention.

The Cabinet has not yet decided whether Great Britsin will act independentity, but the foreign office is formulating a new scheme which will be outlined by the foreign secretary in a speech on February 23 on February 25.

Among the press and public, the breakathong the press and public, the breaking up of the concert is overshadowed by "The fight for railways," which Austria with the sympathy, if not the support of Germany, has started. All authorities adhere to the first impression that Austria's action is inopportune and an apparent breach of the understanding with Russia wherehy these two powers. with Russia whereby these two powers agreed not to seek concessions without consulting each other. Russia's counterproposal that she be given the right to build a railroad from the Danube to the Adriatic is considered a natural result following Austria's action.

The position created, however, is greatly regretted, as it is believed that it indefinitely postpones reforms in Macedonia, for it is not likely that Turkey would grant to a divided ambassadorial conference what she had refused to grant to the allied powers and beside tends to to the allied powers, and beside tends to weaken confidence in the maintenance of peace in Europe.

Thus far there has been but little reference to the notification of the German Ambassador at Constantinopie, Baron Marschal von Bieberstein, to the other ambassadors, that Germany would not longer act with the other powers in in-sisting that Turkey consent to their de-mands, but officially that is considered

FRANCE FEARS FOR TROUBLE

Porte Sure to Take Advantage of Situation in Macedonia.

PARIS, Feb. 16 .- The interjection of rivalry between the nations on the Balkan question at a moment when would seem essential that the power should present a united front to compel the Porte to apply the Macedonian re-forms is regarded as unfortunate. While it is too early to assume that this means a complete rupture of the European concert, it has created di-visions and suspicions among the powers of which the Porte is sure to take advantage to the detriment of the Christians in Macedonia.

The Novibazar-Salonika concession is considered here to be of far-reaching importance and more of a German than an Austrian triumph, as it extends Austro-German influence to the Aegean Sea, and furnishes the connecting link the Bagdad Rallway with Asia

According to the government's latest advices, Austria is willing that Russia seek compensation in the shape of a Danube-Adriatic line. This would, in a measure, restore equilibrium be-tween the Austro-German and the Slav economic influences in the Balkans by opening up an unlimited market for Russian oil, enabling Roumania and Bulgaria to be more independent of the Dardanelles, giving Albania and Servia another outlet in addition to furnishing European commerce, es-pecially Italian commerce, with a new gateway into the Balkans. Even if the Porte acceded to this arrangement, the question remains whether the acceptaince of the Porte's favors will not disqualify Anstria and Russia from continuing to act as European mandatories.

GERMANY'S VIEW CALMER

Believes Austria Has Only Economic Interests in Railroads.

BERLIN, Feb. 16.-The German foreign office regards the reports concerning the differences between the powers, and especially between Austria and Russia, over the Balkan question, as much exaggerated. The German government has taken no steps in the matter of building by Austria of a railroad line through the Turkish province of Novibazar, a line that would put Salonika in direct rall com-munication with Vienna; Germany regards Austria's designs in this direction as wholly economic, and she therefore wishes the Austrian plan to succeed. But no occasion has yet arisen for Germany feet.

to come out in active support of this oroject.

Germany, the representative of the Associated Press is informed, will take but a secondary position in the entire Mace-donian question, leaving it to be dealt with by the powers having more direct interests in this part of Southeastern Europe, such as Russia and Austria. Independent observers of foreign politics here are of the opinion that the completion of both the railroad projects in the Raikans, the Austrian-Novibans.

the Balkans, the Austrian-Novibazar line and the line proposed by Russia to connect the Danube with the Adriatic Sea, would be an admirable impetus to the civilization of the Balkans.

SITUATION TENSE IN VIENNA

Government Sensitive to Press Attacks in France and Russia.

VIENNA, Feb. 16.-Despite official assurances that harmony has been re-established between Austria and Russia, the situation arising from the question of railway concessions in the Balkans or railway concessions in the balkans has not lost its tension. Neither the foreign office nor the Russian embassy is concealing the fact that the action of Baron von Ahrenthal, the Austrian Foreign Minister, has caused deep concern in St. Petersburg.

Even should the Russian plans for a railway form.

railroad from the Danube to the Adriatic be carried out with the consent of Austria, it is considered here that the work of Macedonian reform has come to a standstill. It is pointed out at the foreign office that Russia has not yet informed Austria of her plans, and it is therefore concluded by the Austrian officials that either Russia has resolved not to carry them out at all or con-templates some modification of them.

The government is growing sensitive under the aggressive attacks of the French and Russian press and adverse criticism in Great Britain and will not admit that the Russian-Austrian entente has become ineffective. The consensus of independent opinion, however, is that the Murzzuschlag scheme has practically Imperialistic feeling, while Italy is hampered by the tie of the Triple Alliance. The most enlightened men of the
