SAM GOW HAS NO FRIENDS.—Sam Gow, Chinese, was confined in the Municipal Court yesterday morning of having lottery tickets in his possession, and was fined $20 by Judge Cameron. Sam goes to be an outcast among his celestial brethren, for he was compelled to remain over Sunday night in jail, and yesterday when sentenced there was no member of the Mongolian race present to pay the necessary amount. It is a strange thing for a Chinaman to remain in jail on any charge short of murder, for his "cousins" generally come to the front and put up bail in any amount demanded. However, Sam Gow seems to be on the blacklist in Chinatown and being unable to pay the fine he was compelled to remain in jail for 15 days. The commitment papers made out yesterday and handed over to Captain of Police Moore by Clerk Hennessy of the Municipal Court were the first of the kind to be issued in several years, with the exception of cases where Chinese have been charged with murder and sent to the County Jail.

GLASS FACTORY FOR PORTLAND.—Gustave Mathieson, who operates a glass factory at Clatskanie, Or., was in conference yesterday with the manufacturers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce in reference to the establishment of a glass factory in Portland. Mr. Mathieson proposes to erect a plant in Portland to cost about $15,000 in order to go into the manufacture of fruit jars and lamp chimneys on a large scale. Mr. Mathieson is quite confident of the success of his project, should he secure the proper financial backing, as he says all the plants in the manufacture of glass are in the region tributary to Portland and the process can be carried on with a minimum of expense.

BANNER DAY FOR REGISTRATION.—Yesterday was a banner day for the registration of voters, 48 signing up. There were 32 Republicans, 14 Democrats and 22 of varying political faiths. The registration lists last Saturday showed that 433 had registered from the West Side, while 649 voters came from the East Side. Of the latter 259 reside north of Sullivan's Gulch, and 390 to the south of it. One thousand and forty-six have registered from the country. The number in the city by wards is as follows: First Ward 494, Second Ward 707, Third Ward 222, Fourth Ward 321, Fifth Ward 119, Sixth Ward 457, Seventh Ward 123, Eighth Ward 242, Ninth Ward 109 and Tenth Ward 149.

TRY TO PASS BAD MONEY.—J. S. Saylor and R. H. Walker, in custody of the police charged with having attempted to pass bogus bank certificates and will probably be turned over to the United States authorities. Sunday night the two men visited the Avalon rooming-house and attempted to falsify a note on the failed Merchants & Planters National Bank, of Morgan, on Mrs. M. Adams. But she was wary and refused to accommodate them. Their actions invited suspicion and she notified the police and after an exciting chase Wells was captured. A few hours later his partner was apprehended by the detectives.

WISTAR MORRIS KELLY DEAD.—Portland friends of the family will learn with regret of the death of Wistar Morris Kelly, at Goldfield, Nev., February 3. Kelly was born in Portland September 12, 1871, while his father was United States Senator from Oregon. Senator Kelly was also a justice of the State Supreme Court for many years and died in September, 1903. Wistar Morris Kelly was unmarried and the relatives who survive him are his mother and sister, who live in Washington, D. C. The remains were taken to Washington and interred beside his father in Oak Hill Cemetery.

BURGULARS GET JEWELRY.—The police have notified of two Saturday night burglaries, the thieves securing a considerable quantity of jewelry in each instance. The residence of Johan Poulsen, at 43 Hassalo street, was broken into some time during the night and at this place the marauder stole diamonds and diamond set jewelry belonging to the family. The home of P. C. Bates, at 22 Hassalo street, only a few rods away from the Poulsen home, was burglarized, jewelry being taken.

PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS MEET.—Following the routine business of the Presbyterian ministers' meeting yesterday a paper was read by Rev. A. J. Montgomery on "The Relation of Modern Christian Science to Ancient and Medieval Mysticism." It was read to with close attention by the ministers and was remarked as being one of the most scholarly papers which has been presented to the association.

BUILD HOME FOR NEEDY.—Milwaukie people are building a house for a needy elderly couple, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz. T. R. A. Sellwood, a property-owner, has given the use of a lot, and a suitable house is being built under the direction of Casper Kerr, by citizens who have donated work. This is the second house built in this way by the citizens of Milwaukie.

TRACY PRACTICAL AGRICULTURE.—The Milwaukie school expects to give a course in practical agriculture. The directors have approved the Council for the use of the vacant lots, belonging to the city, on the west side of the Milwaukie City Hall for the use of pupils in experimenting with raising vegetables.

DISCUS ORIGINAL SIN.—An interesting discussion was engaged in yesterday by members of the Baptist Ministerial Association following a paper read by Rev. S. C. Lapham on "The Fatherhood of God." The main point at issue was concerning the child's birthright of sin and gave rise to the question whether men were naturally the children of God who went astray and by regeneration returned to their natural state, or whether they were naturally the children of the devil who had to be regenerated before they could be saved. Mr. Lapham took the former view and spoke of the "original sin" of Adam as the "predigral race," which had gone astray like the prodigal son, but could return at any time to the saving grace of God by repentance. Rev. I. M. Monroe and Rev. J. Leonard held the opposite view. The entire hour was devoted to a discussion of the subject, and on motion it was held over for discussion until next week when Mr. Monroe will lead.

BROTHERHOOD MEETS.—The Portland Brotherhood met last night in the Westminster Presbyterian Church, East Tenth at the corner of Third. President G. B. Leach presiding. Some highly entertaining addresses were made. Rev. Henry Marcotte, pastor of the church, talked on "The Original Sin." Judge C. C. Bronaugh gave an instructive address on "The Young Man in Politics." Dr. E. P. Geary spoke on the topic, "Youth, Men and Society." Rev. N. S. Reeves also made an excellent talk. There were other short talks along practical lines. The meeting was highly enjoyable and one of the best of the brotherhood.

CHECK IS RETURNED.—A special meeting of the Executive Board was held yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of deciding upon the bid for the bridge across Sullivan's Gulch on East Twenty-eighth street. J. A. Beckstrand, representing the Portland & Seattle Construction Company, put in a bid, but it was not sealed, as it was called for in the advertisement, and it was rejected. He then demanded his check, but Mayor Lane refused to have anything to do with it until the Executive Board acted. The Board voted to give the check back.

FLOWER CLUB OPERATES.—The following officers of the Flower Club of Milwaukie, have been elected: President, Mrs. M. L. Roberts; vice-president, Bertha Knickerbocker; secretary, Miss Maggie Johnson; treasurer, Hazel Knickerbocker; conductor, Clara Phillips. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. M. L. Roberts, who was instrumental in starting the club, which has been organized for a year. It sends delegations of flowers almost every Saturday to the Portland hospitals and many invalids in private homes have also been gladdened by their visits.

DR. BRONKHUIS SPEAKS.—In the absence of Rev. J. M. Dean, of Seattle, who was expected to begin special evangelistic meetings in the Central Baptist Church, East Tenth and East Twentieth streets, Rev. J. W. Brougher, of the White Temple preached. There was a large congregation and the sermon was demonstrated by all present. Rev. W. T. Jordan, also announced that Rev. Mr. Dean will arrive today on the 4:15 o'clock train from Seattle and open the services tonight.

FUNERAL OF JOHN E. ERICKSON.—The funeral of John E. Erickson, foreman of the Portland Manufacturing Company, of St. John, who died Saturday at the age of 50 years, will be held at 10 o'clock this morning from Finley's Chapel. Mr. Erickson had been foreman of the venerable plant operated by the Portland Manufacturing Company, ever since it was established. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. J. E. Carlson.

DR. HEPPE TO SPEAK.—Rev. W. H. Heppie, D. D., pastor of Grace Church, will deliver an address on "The Greater Methodism," at the Methodist Episcopal Church, Third and Taylor streets, tonight at 8 o'clock. Special music by a male chorus, under the direction of Professor W. M. White. Admission free. Everybody invited. The affair will be under the auspices of the Men's Methodist Social Union.

WILLY BE TAKEN TO PRISON.—Mrs. J. J. Jones, who pleaded guilty to having given an aged miser the opportunity of depositing his money in her hand bag, and then going off with the money, and who was sentenced to one year in the Penitentiary, will be escorted to Salem this morning by Matron Cameron, of the County Jail.

BASKETBALL AT EXPOSITION RINK TONIGHT.—The H. M. A. boys will again meet the P. H. S. boys tonight in a basketball on skates. As this game is to decide the title it will no doubt be a hard-fought one. The game starts at 9 o'clock and there is to be skating before and after the game.

SUNNYSIDE IMPROVEMENT CLUB.—A meeting will be held Wednesday night in the assembly hall of the Sunnyside school for the purpose of perfecting a permanent organization of the Sunnyside Improvement Club.

WILL THE lady who took, by mistake, a goldhead, will meet the "M. M." at Women of Woodcraft Hall, on Sunday night, kindly return same to 516 Chamber of Commerce.

Rats Bring Good Price in San Francisco

City Offers Bounty of 20 Cents and Is in Danger of Becoming Central Market for Rodents. "RATS are worth 20 cents each in San Francisco," said A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent for the Northern Pacific, who has just returned from a trip through California. "If you bring in an extra large one, you get 50 cents for it. It is suspected that in the near-by towns, where rats are worth nothing, the residents are catching them and shipping the rodents to San Francisco and claiming the reward. At the price offered for them, it would pay enterprising citizens to establish a rat farm and raise rats for members of the San Francisco Society."

"The Nancy Hanks," at the Lyric

BY way of a variety the Allen Com-pany offers a ripping farce at the Lyric this week in "The Nancy Hanks." The piece has never before been seen here and although not the best bill the company has proffered it serves very well as an amusing means to drive dull care away for a couple of hours. The piece takes its title from a mine which is presumably a swindle and in which Richard Chandos played by Rupert Drum has invested his fortune. Chandos is an unsuccessful actor who is violently in love with Peri Dodo, a popular actress. Chandos has a friend and constant companion is an impetuous Frenchman, the Marquis de la Rochelle, who proves to be a very funny individual when portrayed by Forrest Saboury. The two men are at the end of their resources and the efforts they make to conceal their poverty would be pathetic were they not so amusing. To add to the complications a beautiful girl is left at their door which, out of the goodness of their hearts they adopt. Shortly afterward Chandos' prim old aunt comes back from the back country, bringing with her Zona, her grandchild. They are taken to the apartments of the actress by mistake and a very amusing situation ensues. Mrs. Clara Allen appears as the aunt and Ella Houghton as the grandchild. Irving Kennedy plays a small part and orders the actor's dresser and man Friday, very successfully while Charles Ayres, Marie Thompson, Roy Walling and Miss Mayberry fill the other minor orders. Miss Felton sings "Fairy Tales" acceptably in the second act and receives a number of recalls. The best features of the performance are the comedy of Forrest Saboury when he holds the stage alone for several minutes without saying a word and keeps his auditors laughing all the time, and the sweet, winsome acting of little Miss Houghton as the ingenious country girl. "The Nancy Hanks" bids fair to prove a popular attraction with the Lyric company this week. There will be a matinee to-day.

At the Vaudeville Theaters

Grand. THE offering at this popular home of vaudeville this week makes its principal bid for favor on the strength of a troupe of Hawaiian native singers who render a programme of native and English songs in the costume of their native islands. While Hawaiian singers are no longer a novelty here, these men succeed in commanding the attention of the audience and are greeted with more than one demonstration of approval in the form of applause. Their songs are the familiar "Aloha Oe," "Beautiful Eyes," "Answer," "Like No a Like," "I am Yours Truly," and "Arms" in addition to a new and very satisfactory one. It is an interesting bit of information to know that "Aloha Oe" was written by ex-Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii, which fact the programme duly apprises us. This is the best act on the list and will be found well worth a visit to the Grand.

Harry Zedo, who professes to have been the original "fery dragon" with "The Gingerbread Man," is a more than usually flexible contortionist. That he manages to make a stereotyped turn an interesting exhibition is significant of the actor's ability. He ties knots in himself in the same old way, but has a few accomplishments that are new. He is a contortionist might learn with profit to themselves. Joe Byron and May Blanch open the show by a sketch in "Matrimonial Sweets in a Family Jar" which pleased as well as need be and are followed by Joseph K. Thompson, the ballad singer, who renders "With You in Gentry." Fred Primrose is a blackface comedian of some ability even if he does ostensibly hail from a London music hall, while Horton and La Triks have a comedy sketch called "Messenger Clown and the Human Doll." Zined and Boutell in a comedy singing stunt and some excellent moving pictures, which together comprise the remainder of the entertainment.

PARK BOARD TO ATTEND

Will Accept Rose Donations on Behalf of the City. A special meeting of the Park Board was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of meeting a committee from the Rose Festival Association to arrange for the planting of roses on Saturday. The committee was headed by E. W. Rowe and Emmet Drake. After a brief session the Board voted to attend the exercises in a body. They will meet at the Park block between Salmon and Main streets, where the formal acceptance of the thousands of roses will be made at 2 P. M. Mayor Lane has accepted the invitation of the Festival management to deliver a brief address in behalf of the city. The committee offered to provide automobiles for the convenience of the members of the Park Board, but the members were modest to such an extent that they declined the offer with thanks. Mr. Rowe told the Park Board that all the roses are to be furnished by one firm and will be uniform in size and of the best stock obtainable. The Third Regiment, O. N. G., which together with the regimental band, will act as military escort for the school children in the "procession of the roses," will assemble at the Armory and meet the flower-bearers at the Park block designated. Although no holiday will be observed, the exercises will be held in the afternoon and it is believed that most of the business houses of the city will close at noon, so that their employees may be able to witness the novel midwinter re-planting celebration—an event, entirely unique in the history of the Northwest.

EAST SIDE LIBRARY OPEN

Public Will Today Be Admitted to Important Branch. The East Side Branch Library, at East Eleventh and East Alder streets, will be opened for the first time today from 2 to 9:30 o'clock. A general invitation has been extended to the public to visit the handsome new quarters. Miss Millard will be present and tell a story to children at 4 P. M. In order that the room may not be over-crowded at other times children under 15 years of age are particularly invited to visit the building at that hour. Several short addresses will be given tonight. Tomorrow and thereafter the library will be kept open from 12:30 to 9:30 P. M., excepting Saturdays, when the hours will be from 9 A. M. to 9:30 P. M. Miss Elizabeth Clark, who is thoroughly competent and a graduate of a library school, will be in charge. She will be assisted by Miss Edith W. Miss Frances Ison, of the Portland Library, announced yesterday that the East Side branch will have 2000 new books to start with. There will also be a messenger service with the main library on the West Side, so other books may be had. Catalogues of the Portland Library will also be available.

MAIL ORDERS FOR PIANIST

Big Demand for Seats at the Paderevski Recital. The world's greatest pianist, Paderevski, will be heard in a grand concert recital at the Heilig Theater, Fourteenth and Washington streets, next Monday night, February 24, under the direction of the Heilig Theater management. Mail orders from Portland and out of town have been received since last Friday and will continue to be until next Friday, February 21, when the remaining seats will be placed on sale at the box office of the theater.

In ordering seats, order either the lower floor or the gallery, as the balcony has been practically sold out. Address letters to the box office, 1400 Broadway, or payable to W. T. Pangle, manager Heilig Theater. Enclose a self-addressed envelope to help insure safe return. Please mention "Theater" for any information desired.

WANT POLICE TO SEARCH

Missing Ex-Treasurer of Eastern Company Badly Wanted.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Preparations were made by the Brooklyn police today to send out a general request to the police throughout the country to arrest Henry S. Snow, ex-treasurer of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company, who was indicted on charges of grand larceny last Friday. It is alleged that Snow obtained a loan on $120,000 worth of the stock of the company, for which he had not paid and some of the company's securities which were in his custody have disappeared. He has been missing from his home in Brooklyn since Thursday and is alleged to be a fugitive from justice.
