Secretary Taft Puts in Busy Day and Makes Speeches in Connecticut.

PRAISES FOREIGN POLICY

Says No Man Has Made So Much for Peace Among the Nations as Roosevelt-Is Clieered as the Next President.

CONCORD, N. H., Feb. 18.-Secretary of War Taft had a few spare moments from the time of his arrival in New Hampshire this afternoon until a late hour tonight. He was met at Boston early in the morning by a committee of the Taft Club of Concord and driven to the State House, where he was received by Governor Floyd. A reception at the Eagle Hotel followed. This lasted an hour and at 1.20 P. M. Mr. Taft was entertained at hincheon by the Taft Association of New Hampshire, at which 100 members were present. At 2 o'clock he addressed a mass meeting.

Phoenix Hall was well filled. As Mr. Taft arose to begin his address some one in the gallery cried: "Three cheers for our next President," and the hall rank with the response.

Mr. Taft's address was what he termed a "Short History of the Republican Party." He said, among other things:

The time has come when the Dingley tariff should be re-examined with a view to be revision on a nursely protective. to its revision on a purely protective

Republican Party One of Expansion Secretary Taft said the Republican party is the party of expansion and world-influence. "For the time we are an Asiatic power," said he. "We cannot remain isolated and it is our business to see that our world-influence is good."

At this point, for the first time in his speech, Mr. Taft mentioned the name of President Roosevelt.

"No man ever has made so much for No man ever has made so much for rightcourness and peace among nations as has Theodore Roosevelt," he said, and a storm of applause broke forth Further applause greeted his statement of the belief that the Nation was behind the President in his foreign policy. With reference in the Pacific voyage of the reference to the Pacific voyage of the fleet Mr. Taft said:

"With the Orientals it is necessary to fill the measure of the eye in order to be convincing. It is no one's business where that fleet is going." This sentiment pleased the audience greatly.

More Entertainment Follows. .

Following the mass meeting the Secretary went to Manchester, where he was the guest of honor at a reception given by the Derryfield Club and shortly after-ward was entertained at a dinner. Fol-lowing this function the Secretary and his party were driven to the Calumet Club, where a reception was held. Mr. Taft then went to the state armory, there he was received with honor by the National Guard and Spanish War Veterans. He made a brief address to the sol-diers and then left the armory for Me-chanics Hall. Here a public meeting was held and Mr. Taft delivered his second-extended address of the day. At the close of the meeting he became the guest of Governor Floyd, who took him to his residence for the night. Tomorrow the Sec-

Goes Out and Addresses Those Who Cannot Get in Hall.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Feb. 18.-When Secretary Taft arrived here from Co. today hundreds were at the station "t greet him. His principal address was made at Mechanics' hall, where over 1500 people had been unable to gain admission to the hall and Mr. Taft insisted on going out and talking to them for 15 minutes. Speaking from an automobile, Mr. Taft congratulated Manchester upon the thrift of the city, where, he had learned, notwithstanding the financial panic, the working people in the mills were now re-ceiving pay for full time. He then re-entered the hall. When Mr.

Taft stepped to the front of the stage he was applauded for several minutes. Fils address was almost identical with the one delivered at Phoenix hall, Concord, in Bryan Says These Are Issues of the Coming Campaign.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 18.-William J. Bryan, in an interview here today, said:
"I can't say just how much President
Roosevelt's attitude has had to do with the present financial disturbances. If his investigations or recommendations have tended to squeeze the water out of watered stock the blame should fall not on him but on those who have watered the stock. My criticism would be that he did not commence soon enough to storm the fort.

"The great questions to share the attention of voters in the coming campaign. I believe," said Mr. Bryan, "are the trusts, the tariff and the railroad questions. But one issue runs through all of these, however, and that is, shall the Government be administered in belief of all the provide or for the heavest.

portion of Oregon. This is the very evil which the provisions of the grant were destined to avert. Yet that condition now exists, with the assertion of a legal right to make it permanent.
"It is confidently believed that substantial remedies exist in favor of the Government. It is the purpose of the Government. It is the purpose of the Department of Justice to enforce these remedies. It is respectfully suggested, however, that discussion of their form be deferred for presentation before the court to which the cause shall hereafter be addressed."

SENATE DEBATES LAND GRANT

Fulton Leads in Movement to Have Sult Began.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 .- The fact that the Department of Justice has made all preparations to begin a suit to enforce the terms of Government land grants in the State of Oregon was brought out in the Senate today, when Fulfon, of the committee on judiciary, reported a resolu-tion authorizing the department to bring such suits and asked for its immediate adoption. Heyburn asserts that hundreds of millions would be found to be involved if the proceeding were made general. The resolution was generally discussed by Senators, the only objection urged against it being based upon the idea that the Attorney-General was now empow-ared by law to do all that is sought by During the discussion Fulton announced

No Doubt of Violation.

The resolution also applies to the grant made for the construction of a telegraph line from Portland to Ontario and Mc-Minnville, Or., under the act of May 4, 1870. The resolution authorizes the Attorney-General to ascertain and enforce all the rights in favor of the United States, if it appears that the lands are forfeited to the United States by the violation of the conditions of these acts. lation of the conditions of these acts.
Fulton said there was no question that the roads had violated the terms of these grants, as the violation had been admit-ted before the subcommittee.

Tillman explained that he had intro-duced the original resolution in view of what he had learned while on a visit to the Pacific Coast. He was satisfied railroads are now holding land from settle-ment worth millions of dollare.

The propriety and necessity of passing such a resolution was questioned by For-years the railroads, he said, had refused to comply with the terms of these grants. The settler could not proceed against the railroads to force them to comply with the terms of their grants to the land, because the proceeding could only be brought by the Government, which gave the grant.

"This question," he added, "Involves millions of acres of land, worth hundreds of millions of dollars."

In reply to a question by Dixon, Heyburn said he thought the same limitation existed in the land grant of the Northern Pacific Railroad. Dixon, Fulton and Nelson did not agree with him in that state-

The resolution, drawn by the Department of Justice to satisfy any doubt that might be raised as fo its authority to proceed against the railroads, was offered as a substitute for the resolution recently offered by Senator Tillman. Questions Affecting Navy Will Be Gone Into Thoroughly. Gone Into Thoroughly.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Charges that there have been serious defects in the construction of the battleships will be considered at a special meeting of the Senate committee on naval affairs February 25. It is probable that Rear-Admiral Converse, retired, president of the Board of Construction, and Rear-Admiral Capps, Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair, who recently proposed extensive replies to the various criticisms in magazine articles and elsewhere, will be called before the committee. The decision of the committee to enter upon an investigation of these matters is expected to result in a general inquiry into many naval matters which recently attracted wide notice.
