

SEEK TO IMPEACH JUDGE WILFLEY

United States Judge for China Is Charged With Corrupt Conduct.

HOUSE RECEIVES PETITION

Declared That He Allowed Only Favorites to Practice in His Court by Disbarring Those Whom He Pleas.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—A petition for the impeachment of Judge L. R. Wilfley, of Shanghai, judge of the United States Court for China, signed by Lorrin Andrews, a resident of Shanghai, in his own behalf and for other citizens of the United States living there, was introduced in the House today by Mr. Walden of New York.

Charges are outlined. That Judge Wilfley was guilty of "oppression and misuse of his powers as judge," in disbarring attorneys Francis M. Brooks, Cecil Holcomb, William L. Rogers, Edwin H. Lammie, Harry L. Hart, Lorrin Andrews and W. L. Heen, "thereby ruining them in their standing and reputation in the community, depriving them of their livelihood, impoverishing them and leaving them, citizens of the United States, in a distant country without means of support for themselves, their wives and children."

That in defiance of the rules of the United States Supreme Court, Judge Wilfley made a rule of his own by which no citizen of the United States holding a lawyer's certificate to practice would be allowed to practice in the United States Court of China without first passing an examination to be held by Judge Wilfley himself.

Examination declared sham. That the said examination was a mere sham, without any intention other than to disbar and to ruin said attorneys whom he disfavored and to secure the whole practice of the law and business before the United States Court for China for his own favorites.

HOLCOMB IS PORTLAND MAN

Ex-Resident's Name Contained in Wilfley Petition.

Cecil Holcomb, who was one of the American lawyers disbarred by Judge Wilfley, is well known in Portland, where he gained some prominence as a lawyer and a man about town.

While at Manila it is said that Mr. Holcomb made considerable money. From Manila he went to China. Mr. Holcomb paid Portland a visit two years ago.

WHY?

THE BEST CATHARTIC REDUCES TO A MINIMUM THE PROSTRATION AND WEAKNESS CHARACTERISTIC OF THIS PREVALENT DISEASE.

WHAT THE ATTACKED SHOULD DO.

IT HAS BEEN FOUND BY THE EXPERIENCE OF A GREAT MANY PEOPLE THAT THE BEST CATHARTIC TO TAKE IN CASES OF THE GRIP, where there is commonly great weakness and prostration, is the tonic cathartic, Hood's Pills, which do not weaken but

STRENGTHEN THE SYSTEM AS THEY DO THEIR SPECIAL WORK. They are "easy to take, easy to operate." If attacked by the grip, take them at once, for a free movement of the bowels, and begin treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla for the elimination of the grip poison from the blood and the renewal of health and strength.

COMPLETELY RESTORED—I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills and believe they have saved my life. I had the grip and it left me so weak I did not think I could live. In one week after beginning to take these medicines I gained wonderfully, and was soon completely restored." Stanford C. Horton, Bristol, Wis.

NEVER-FAILING REMEDIES—I had the grip and became so weak I could not walk across the room without sweating profusely. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills and they did me so much good I regard them as never-failing remedies." Mrs. Anna B. Cooper, Titusville, N. J.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA IS SOLD EVERYWHERE. In the usual liquid or in the new form called Sarsatabs—One hundred doses one dollar.
