The conditions in Clackamas are similar to those in other sections of the Willamette Valley, for there is a fight on Statement No. 1, many of the old-time Republicans believing that the Republican candidates for the nomination should sign only a modified statement, agreeing to support the Republican candidate for United States Senator who receives the highest number of the people's votes.

It will be the policy of the new management to encourage students to attend the normal nearest their place of residence.

At its meeting today the Board of Regents ordered the rewriting of the Ashland Normal and directed that an estimate be made of the improvements required, in order to enable the students at Ashland to maintain two effective fire-fighting companies.

Husband Married Her Under False Name—Purcell and Widow of the Late A. T. Vandevanter Registered as Man and Wife.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—Local society was thrown into a furor today by the news that Frank Purcell was yesterday sued for divorce by Mary A. Moss, who alleges that she was married to Purcell under the name of Pierce J. Moss.

The couple registered at the St. Francis Hotel as Mr. and Mrs. Purcell, but the marriage has since been denied by Purcell and by each of the women.

Mrs. Moss says that she was married to a man who called himself Pierce J. Moss, in Boston, October 20, 1895.

The woman states that two weeks after the wedding her husband confessed that he had deceived her as to his name and that he was really Patrick Frank Purcell.

The plaintiff alleges further that Purcell was divorced in Seattle from Mary P. Purcell, to whom he was married in Clonmel, Ireland, in 1888, and whom he abandoned in 1899.

She says she and Purcell lived together five years in Chicago at the Lexington Hotel, during which time Purcell conducted the Kentucky Stables, after that time he came to Seattle and was engaged in the liquor business in St. Louis and from there moved to Portland in 1904.

SALE OF TABLE SILVERWARE IN THE CROCKERY DEPARTMENT

HIGH-CLASS DRAPERY AND INTERIOR DECORATIVE WORK OUR SPECIALTY

A few days ago we had a dealer arrested and are now prosecuting him for putting another—cheaper—beer into our bottles and selling it as Schlitz.

Substitution robs you as well as us.

Our yeast is distinctive; no other brewery's is the same. It is developed from an original mother cell brought to this country by one of the founders of our business.

Our grain and our hops are selected from the best that is grown. We pay more than our "just as good" imitator to get a quality better than he thinks is "good enough" for his beer.

The theft of our name—giving you another beer when you think you are getting Schlitz—is what robs us.

You think you have had Schlitz—are disappointed and may not ask for it again—therefore, we are most anxious that you get our beer and not a substitute. So we say

Ask for the Brewery Bottling. See that the cork or crown is branded Schlitz.

Sherwood & Sherwood, 8 Front Street, Portland.
