

JAPS RELEASED BY COURT ORDER

Immigration Test Case Will Be Carried at Once to the Court of Appeals.

TROUBLE STILL IN STORE

Japanese Who Entered British Columbia From Portland to Test Natal Act May Be Deported Under Former Statute.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 21.—Chief Justice Hunter today directed that the two Japanese now lying in New Westminster Jail for violating the recently passed natal act of the province should be immediately discharged from custody. On a demand being made by Robert Cassidy, K. C., representing the province, that a recognition be demanded from the prisoners pending the appeal, which was instantly taken, His Lordship refused to entertain the request and stated in comment on the matter that the two Japanese were peaceable subjects of Japan who had been illegally detained, as far as he could see they evidently had good action against somebody.

INVESTIGATE THE PROBLEM

Socialist Leader Asks for Royal Commission in England.

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 21.—Premier McBride favors the appointment of a royal commission in England for the full investigation of the Japanese problem. He has introduced a motion before the house to this effect asking that the imperial government be memorialized to appoint such a commission and this afternoon Premier McBride moved an amendment that the request be made to the imperial authorities through the Ottawa government. The motion was adjourned and will speak on the question on Monday, he being expected to favor the idea.

JAPANESE ARE RELEASED

Arrangements Made for Immediate Session of Court of Appeal.

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 21.—Following the receipt of a message from New Westminster that Chief Justice Hunter had declared the new British Columbia Immigration Act ultra vires of the Legislature and unconstitutional, the proceedings began against the Japanese landed from the steamer Tosa Maru have been dropped and steps are being arranged for the holding of a court of appeal at once to hear argument in appeal.

CHUNG-CHIN IS TO BE OPEN

Corea Invites Trade There Through Imperial Edict.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The State Department today announced the promulgation by Corea of "Imperial Ordinance No. 1," which opens to foreign trade on April 1 next the port of Chung-Chin. It is expected that this port will be tributary to the disputed timber and agricultural sections of Eastern Manchuria, commonly designated as the Kanto (Chento) district, which is claimed by China as part of its territory and which the Japanese resident-general, on behalf of the Corea government, asserts is a part of the empire of Corea.

DEAD OF THE NORTHWEST

W. F. Hendricson, Pioneer of 1845, Dies at the Age of 84.

ALBANY, Or., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—W. F. Hendricson, an Oregon pioneer of 1845 and resident of Linn County for more than half a century, died at his home in this city last night at the age of 84 years. He had been ill two weeks with pneumonia.

Mrs. H. L. Heath.

MEMPHIS, Or., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—Mrs. H. L. Heath, formerly of the Second Oregon, died at her home here this afternoon of apoplexy. Captain Heath, who has business interests in the Philippines, after a recent visit with his family, took his departure for Manila and is now on the steamer in mid-ocean and cannot be apprised of his wife's death. Mrs. Heath and her son and daughter returned from the Islands

FOUR FROM JUST ONE COUNTY

Whitman Holds Four Aspirants for Governor's Chair.

OAKESDALE, Wash., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—Thomas Goldsworthy is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor. He is a prominent farmer living near here, well known in Whitman County, where he has lived for 20 years. Mr. Goldsworthy has never before taken a prominent part in politics. He has accumulated a snug fortune by farming. He is a well-read man and takes a deep interest in current events. His friends here have practically secured his consent to enter the race.

GOLD HILL HAS CANDIDATE

Joseph L. Hammersly Wants to Go to the Legislature.

ASHLAND, Or., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—Only one legislative candidate has as yet placed his name in the ring in Jackson County. He is Joseph L. Hammersly of Gold Hill, who seeks the nomination for Representative on the Republican ticket. He signs a modified form of Statement No. 1 in which he declares he will support that Republican candidate for United States Senator, who shall receive the highest vote at the primary election.

PURCELL WEDS AGAIN

WIDOW OF LATE A. T. VANDE- VANTER NOW HIS WIFE.

Records in Clatsop County Show Seattle Couple Were Married in Astoria, January 7.

ASTORIA, Or., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—The records in the County Clerk's office show that Patrick P. Purcell, of New York, and Martha A. T. Vandevanter, who was said to be from San Francisco, were married at the Occident Hotel in this city on January 7 of this year. County Judge Trenchard officiating. Purcell is supposed to be the man against whom divorce proceedings have just been commenced in a Seattle court by a woman to whom he is alleged to have been married in Boston in 1886.

OREGON CITY, Or., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—W. S. U'Ren, who has been dubbed the step-father of the referendum, is apparently anxious to mount the public platform in defense of Statement No. 1. He tried Judge Stephen A. Lowell twice, but the Pendleton man saw nothing to be gained in a discussion and declined to take issue with Mr. U'Ren.

MEMPHISVILLE, Or., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—A large number of Republicans of this city and vicinity met here last evening and completed the organization of a County Republican Club. Dr. J. F. Calbreath was made president; C. C. Hammersly, vice-president; W. A. Branson, secretary, and G. S. Wright, treasurer. The object of the club is to promote harmony among Republicans, and for the advancement of Republican principles.

THILMAN FORD IS DYING.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—Thilman Ford, for many years the leading lawyer of the Willamette Valley, suffered a stroke of paralysis a few days ago and his death is expected at any hour.

REPUBLICAN CLUB IN YAMHILL.

GOOD THING IN PORTLAND MARKET

BY LILLIAN TINGLE.

THE fish section is the most interesting and satisfactory part of the market just at present, and a particularly large variety of fish was to be seen yesterday—a variety highly appreciated by housekeepers from inland districts. The cooking and serving of fish is quite an art in itself, though, as far as my experience goes, it is less studied in this country than in some parts of Europe, where one may find, perhaps, fewer kinds of fish but greater variety in the fish dishes and sauces served. Except for clam chowder and oyster soup, you find, for instance, very few fish soups in general use in America; though there are many other good kinds that are worth trying as well as those dishes that are half soup, half stew, such as Dutch "water soupy," "houllabaisse a la Provencale," Neapolitan shellfish soup or Swedish fish soup with dumplings. Jellied fish salad such as you get in some parts of Germany is something exceedingly good to eat and not hard to prepare.

A savory fish pie is a Lenten dish for which a certain English abbey used to be famous, and which, as I ate it, certainly did not belie the abbey's traditions of good living—tradition and this recipe being almost all that is left of the place nowadays. But this is not telling you about the fish in Portland markets—though it may, perhaps, suggest some ways of serving them. Black bass has not been in lately, but was to be had yesterday at 25 cents a pound. There were also very fine striped bass and sea trout at the same price. Smelt were lower in price again—three pounds for 25 cents; and Chinook salmon was also slightly lower than last week—two pounds for 25 cents. Rock trout, the first I have seen for a long time, were to be had at 12 1/2 cents, and there were some very fine fresh red rock cod at 15 cents. Sturgeon and croppies cost 20 cents a pound; tomcod, shrimps, California smelt, sole and catfish cost 15 cents; halibut and black cod, 12 1/2 cents; perch, flounder and herring, 10 cents a pound. Lobsters are higher in price than last week—25 cents a pound; and frogs' legs lower, at 25 cents a dozen. Crabs, clams and mussels are plentiful and unchanged in price. Poultry prices are also unchanged, but there are new one and two-pound broilers in, at 65 and 75 cents each.

As regards fruit, there is still little variety beyond our usual winter fruits—apples, grapes, grapefruit, bananas and nuts; but I saw some nice-looking peaches at 40 cents a dozen, and a few fairly good grapes at 25 cents a pound. Pineapples cost 60 and 75 cents, and alligator pears 25 cents each. Rhubarb is more plentiful and averages 12 1/2 cents a pound. There is some very good spinach to be seen just now—from Walla Walla. It is of course, provided you don't dislike "the roe of roots" in any form. Tomatoes can be had at 25 to 50 cents a pound, and hot-house cucumbers at 25 and 30 cents. Brussels sprouts are very good just now at 12 1/2 cents, and so is celery. The two combine rather prettily in a cooked salad. There are very few peas and green beans. Large, fresh-looking eggplant costs 20 cents a pound, and so do green peppers. Radishes, field lettuce and chicory were all particularly nice and fresh looking. Cauliflowers are still pretty good at 15 and 20 cents each; and there are nice young carrots from California at 10 cents a bunch. Kale and Savoy cabbage, as well as the hard white and red cabbage, are supposed to be very wholesome at this time of the year and can be served in quite a number of different ways.

state, and by the same vote instruct members of the Legislature. I am fully conscious of my risk in challenging a man of your ability and ripe experience as a public speaker and debater, but I am sure my cause is just. While I shall not be able to put the reasons for selection by the people so beautifully and plausibly as you can state your own position, I have not a doubt that the people of this State will prevail, notwithstanding the weakness of its advocates. I shall be pleased to meet you at any time to arrange for such discussion or for several such meetings. Mr. U'ren this afternoon reaffirmed his declaration not to be a candidate for United States Senator, although he is not in entire harmony with Mr. Calkins. He said he had not changed his mind. "When I do I will tell you," he said.

U'REN ISSUES CHALLENGE

TO DEBATE STATEMENT NO. 1 WITH JUDGE WILLIAMS.

Confident He Can Justify His Doctrine—Denies Again He Is Candidate to Succeed Fulton.

OREGON CITY, Or., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—W. S. U'Ren, who has been dubbed the step-father of the referendum, is apparently anxious to mount the public platform in defense of Statement No. 1. He tried Judge Stephen A. Lowell twice, but the Pendleton man saw nothing to be gained in a discussion and declined to take issue with Mr. U'Ren.

SECURE ONE CONVICTION

Anti-Saloon League Fights Violators of Sunday Closing at Aberdeen.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—In the actions brought for violation of the Sunday law by the Anti-Saloon League, there has been one conviction, one disagreement and several saloon men who forfeited bail. O. G. Vammen, one saloonkeeper who had stood trial, was arrested on three charges. He was found guilty on the first charge last week and a jury in the second case today disagreed.

A can full of real dollars

This limerick lacks one line of completion—we will give a half pound Ghirardelli's Cocoa as full of silver dollars (93) for the best line submitted to complete it. In case more than one person submits the line selected as best the money will be divided pro rata.

One person may send as many solutions as they wish, there is no limit. The correct answer may be sent in any form, but we prefer that it be written upon the back of a label taken from any size can of Ghirardelli's Cocoa. Answers must be mailed on or before April 1, plainly addressed to GHIRARDELLI'S Cocoa Department, 20 Montgomery St., S. F. Here's the "Limerick":

A sickly young student at Yale
Tried to strengthen himself upon ale,
But a wise "Older Widow" said,
"Cut it out, Kiddeo."
