

MACEDONIA MAY CAUSE GREAT WAR

Minister Warns Parliament of Danger Ahead in Europe.

IF CONCERT BREAKS UP

Both Grey and Fitzmaurice Say Affairs Have Reached Crisis—Acceptable Turk for Governor Would Avert Trouble.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The Macedonia difficulty was raised in both houses of Parliament tonight. Sir Edward Grey, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, made a statement in the House of Commons on this subject, and Lord Fitzmaurice, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, did likewise in the House of Lords, the gist of both statements being that, because of the Porte's obduracy, matters had reached a critical pass; that the government deprecated any isolated action, but was doing its utmost to preserve the concert of powers and press Turkey to an acceptance of the reforms.

Sir Edward Grey said that in discussing the Macedonian question the government was not far from the Turkish question, which more than once had led to a European war. They were rapidly nearing a point, he said, where the concert of powers must either justify or stultify itself, and if the concert disappeared, it was impossible to foretell what misunderstanding might arise. If Macedonia continued to be neglected, he added, as a note of warning, it must sooner or later provoke a catastrophe.

DEMANDS JUST TREATMENT

Colonial Secretary Wants Natives Protected in German East Africa.

BERLIN, Feb. 25.—Colonial Secretary Dernburg, in discussing colonial reforms before the appropriations committee of the Reichstag today, said that one of the first necessities in the administration of German East Africa was the protection of native labor from the cruelties and oppressions of the planters, who in many instances almost paralleled the slave-hunting methods in vogue in the Congo Independent State. He said that the abuse of natives by traders in Southwest Africa was the ultimate cause of the recent uprising there and that if Germany's future was to be promoted in the German colonies the work must be inaugurated by just treatment of the natives.

That Father Leo lived a life of severe austerity is evidenced by a discovery by the coroner when he prepared the body for burial. Next to the skin wrapped about the waist and upper arms were heavy bands of linked steel chains, and to each link was attached a hook-eye, everyone sharpened to a needles' point in such a fashion that each move the priest made caused the hooks to pierce his flesh and remind him of the life and death of Him in whose steps he struggled to follow. Father Leo never spoke of his mode of penance even to his fellow clergy. Father Eusebius said that no one in the monastery surmised that the priest was undergoing such unusual and severe penance. His body and upper arms were calloused entirely, showing that when the pain became insupportable because of the toughened skin, he had taken the network of chain and adjusted them so that the pain might come again with renewed force.

Did Killing on Own Account.

Meanwhile, Alo, who is kept in jail at Colorado Springs in order to prevent any attempt at lynching, vehemently denies that he belongs to any anarchist body that wishes to murder priests or that there was any plot at the bottom of the shooting.

Most of the priests of the Catholic Church in this city believe that Father Leo Heinrichs, who was murdered by Giuseppe Alo, an Italian anarchist, while giving communion in St. Elizabeth's Church here Sunday morning last, was a marked man from the time he arrived in town last August, or even before.

The dead priest was stationed previously in Paterson, N. J., and it is believed he may have incurred the enmity of the anarchists there, and that a plot was laid to kill him, perhaps prior to his leaving Paterson, but that the machinery of the "Reds" failed to get into working order until Alo carried out orders Sunday.

tained in the bill for divorce filed by Hartje. The precept of Hartje, filed October 27, 1905, was also offered in evidence.

The defense won its first victory today, when the court refused to allow the indictment for perjury against Hooe to be placed in evidence. It was on this indictment that the negro was sent to prison for seven years. The court also admitted a statement which Edward Hartje, a brother of the accused, secured from Hooe, reflecting on the character of Mrs. Hartje. The testimony of Hartje's brother was dramatic. Mrs. Hartje is expected to testify tomorrow.
