FACES CHARGE OF INSUBORDINATION

Executive Board May Not Accept Captain Bruin's Resignation.

IN LINE FOR DISMISSAL

Rumor That Seems Well Founded Is That Police Inspector Will Be Punished for Assailing His Superiors.

Patrick Bruin, Captain of Detectives and Inspector of Police, may be dismissed from the Police Department for criticism of his superiors. To all intents and purposes Captain Bruin does not belong to the Department. In reality he does. His resignation not only has not been accepted, but there is a likelihood that it will not be acted upon favorably.

"I resign, said resignation to take effect immediately," the officer said, depositing a written statement at the police station late Wednesday night. He then prepared a column statement for publication, detailing his grievances against Mayor Lane and the Police Committee of the Executive Board. In his statement Bruin accused Mayor Lane, T. G. Greene and R. W. Montague of insincerity in the so-called reform policies of the present administration. He said favoritism was being shown among North End lawbreakers and that Chinese gambling was a subject of discrimination.

Asserting that he had been sincere in his endeavors to enforce the law, Bruin protested that his honest efforts in that direction had involved him in endless difficulties and marked disfavor with the powers-that-be. Such was the motive that led his assignment to command of the second night relief, where he would be practically isolated, he said.

Violates Department Rule.

All the time he was saying these things he was violating a strictly enforced rule of the department. "Thou shalt not criticise thy superiors or any of the acts thereof." It is one of the ten commandments of the department. And so it was pointed out in an authoritive source yesterday, Bruin is still amenable to the rules of the department.

He cannot be thrown in jail or sentenced to death for lese majeste because of saying the things he did about Lane, Greene and Montague. But he can be made to suffer such punishment as the code prescribes. For example, he can be dismissed dishonorably for the good of the service, and it was intimated yesterday by one directly in a position to know that such would be Bruin's fate.

Under the civil service regulations, Bruin's resignation must be accepted by the Executive Board before it can become effective. Two are required to make the bargain. Being under bond as an officer Bruin could not hand in his star and say he was "through." And if the Executive Board decides not to accept his resignation, but to prefer charges against him, Captain Bruin will have to stand trial.

Mayor Lane and Mr. Greene declined to make any reply to Bruin's charges yesterday, as the officer expected. Mr. Montague was out of the city and could not be seen. The Mayor laughed about the charges and said he really hadn't had time to look through them as yet. "But there's nothing I'll want to say about them," he added. "I haven't time to notice such things."

Greene Says Nothing.

Mr. Greene was equally noncommittal, but his attitude made it plain that he considered the Bruin statements unworthy of his attention, saying they were nothing but malicious generalities which would not hold water.

Captain Bruin did not see fit to give a second chapter of his troubles last night. He said he would await reply to his previous broadsides, in which event he will probably wait for some considerable time. He claims to have a mass of details connecting up the city administration leaders with shady deals and insincerity, but chooses to withhold these facts for the time being.

His sudden resignation caused much surprise in the police department yesterday, as well as in the city at large. Varied views were taken of his stand, many indorsing his attitude, while others declared he was guilty of ingratitude in attacking the men who gave him his position and fought with him when his official head was sought through the courts. Mr. Greene and Mr. Montague represented him in the Circuit Court when the validity of his appointment was contested, and although they devoted considerable time and energy to the case it is said they received no monetary consideration.

The matter of promotion to fill the vacancy which will be caused when Bruin's resignation is acted upon is a matter of much speculation among members of the department. It is likely that Captain George H. Bailey will be detailed to the place and that Sergeant Baty will be elevated to a Captaincy and placed in command of the second night relief. Or Baty may even fill Bruin's place.

Lost Nothing in Rank.

There is no difference in rank at either post and, in fact, Bruin was not degraded in rank. There is no such position as captain of detectives or inspector of police. An officer of the rank of Captain is detailed to this service, which corresponds to a staff position in the army. Bruin could have taken the second night relief, as directed, without losing anything in remuneration or rank. There are those who will contend that a relief Captain ranks an officer detailed as Captain of Detectives, even as a line officer feels himself somewhat superior to a staff officer in the army service.

Chit-Chat of Sporting World

BY WILL G. MAC RAE.

THERE seems to be something screwy about that $4000 forfeit that Tommy Burns has posted in London for a fight with Jack Johnson. America is the natural battle-ground for these pugs, and surely the pair would fight to a bigger gate on this side of the drink. What's the frame-up?

Claud Berry, the Philadelphia American League catcher, signed by the Seals, has written Danny Long that his contract is satisfactory. He will soon start for San Francisco.

Bill Squires, the Australian wheeze who did not win a fight in this country, is in Paris. Bill carried away with him $20,000 in American money, which goes to prove that a loser is sometimes a winner.

A McKeesport, Pa., man the other day tore up his money and threw it to the winds. He must have harvested his coin in some fake prize fight that Jack the Confessor helped frame up.

San Francisco fight fans are going to get a chance to see the much-talked-of Packy McFarland in action. He will be matched to fight the winner of the Britt-Nelson bout. McFarland, it seems, hasn't any scruples against kicking a few dead ones out of his way during his upward march to a championship.

In Washington, D. C., they are going to put a tax on cats. Won't this make the feline fancier element of the feminine sporting world get real peevish?

There is one way to keep baseball players and prize fighters from drinking. Just put something in their booze that will make them candidates for the undertaker's solicitation.

"Hen Berry now has a full team," says a Los Angeles paper. If the team will stay "full" all season it will help McCredie's chances of grabbing the P. C. P.

WILL PLAY WITH WHITE SOX

Manager McCredie Arranges for Two Games in South.

The Portland baseball team will play two games with the crack Chicago American Leaguers at Santa Barbara, the dates being March 11 and 12. The final details of this arrangement were perfected yesterday, when Manager McCredie was notified that the White Sox were ready to sign the agreement.

The Portland manager is highly pleased over getting these early games with Chicago, for it will not only be an excellent workout for the Portland players, but will assist the club financially, as the fans of Santa Barbara and vicinity are said to be extremely anxious to see the two teams in action.

The Chicago Americans are already on their way to California and with them are traveling two of McCredie's recruits, Malloy and Walsh, both of whom live in Chicago and who were allowed to accompany the Comiskey outfit as a courtesy to the Portland management. The accommodating of these two players by the Chicago club was welcome news to McCredie, for it insures them a chance to practice on the way out and also that they will be well taken care of by the big leaguers. Most of the White Sox are acquainted with the youngsters and will give the two Portland players some valuable pointers. In addition, they will have an opportunity to participate in several games with the "Yannigans," or second team, which is to play a series of games in Arizona and other places before reaching Los Angeles.

Ed Pinance, the Chippewa Indian twirler secured by McCredie, has been sent his transportation and is probably now on his way from Michigan, where he lives, to California.

The only player who has not yet taken up his transportation is Ryan, but Manager McCredie is not worrying over his failure to do so, for he has been informed that the player is enjoying an outing in the woods. Ryan is expected to report at Santa Barbara within a week after the manager reaches his training quarters.

PLAY SEATTLE MEN TONIGHT

Lively Basketball Game Promised at Y. M. C. A.

The Portland Y. M. C. A. basketball five, who will play the Seattle team tonight, feel that their reputation is slightly tarnished, after the unlucky encounter with Multnomah, in which they finished six points to the bad. Every member of the team can now be seen almost any hour of the day practicing basket-tossing in order that there shall be no question of the kind of drubbing the Seattle men are to receive—whether they bring the "Seattle spirit" with them or not. The game will be played on the association floor.

As the Seattle men were well in the running for the Y. M. C. A. pennant, the game will likely be as exciting as the contest when the Canadians played here several weeks ago. The Seattleites vanquished the Portland men on their home floor by 22 to 20 points, and Manager Young predicts that the result will be reversed tonight.

The Y. M. C. A. directorate has not yet found a referee, but has hopes of persuading W. C. Moore to do the whistle blowing.

A preliminary game will be played between the Y. M. C. A. second and a team from Vancouver, Wash.

Johnson Will Fight Burns.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—"Jack" Johnson, the colored heavyweight pugilist, will accept the offer of a syndicate of British sportsmen for a match with "Tommy" Burns in England.

"If Burns can beat me I am willing to quit the game," Johnson is quoted as saying. "Any number of rounds will suit me, from one to a thousand. In fact, now that I have made up my mind to accept, Burns may name the terms."

Call for Distance Runners.

Manager Dan Bellinger of the distance runners of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club's track team, has issued a call for a meeting of the youngsters who are to try out for these events for tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. All the younger members of the club who are desirous of engaging in this branch of sport are requested to be on hand at the appointed time, for a preliminary run is to be held and various phases of the game discussed.

Masters Wins Handball Belt.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Palo Alto, Cal., Feb. 27.—By winning the Story handball belt twice, W. H. Masters, a Portlander, stands in a fair way to obtain permanent possession, provided he can find it, for no one now in college has seen it.

Hoagland Still in the Lead.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 27.—When the walkers in the six-day race stopped for the day at midnight tonight the score of the first four was: Hoagland, 198 miles 5 laps; Slater, 192 miles 11 laps; Messier, 191 miles 7 laps; Player, 187 miles 5 laps.

RECHECK BAGGAGE HERE

Extra Fare Required on Through Tickets to Puget Sound Points.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 27.(Special.)—By a new ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission, word of which has just reached the State Railroad Commission, railroads will no longer be able to receive and check baggage over lines with which they have no baggage carrying agreement. The State Commission some time ago filed a formal complaint with the Interstate Commission in regard to this matter. Numerous complaints were made to the Commission that the O. R. & N. was receiving and checking baggage through from points along their lines to Puget Sound, coming over the Northern Pacific from Portland. The O. R. & N. has no baggage agreement with the Northern Pacific and this road refused to take up the baggage until it had been rechecked over their road from Portland. Many travelers would arrive at Puget Sound points and find that their baggage had been refused at Portland.

This decision by the Interstate Commerce Commission has already been published in The Oregonian. Its effect is that travelers must recheck their baggage at Portland for Puget Sound points, since the Commission does not allow the Harriman lines to sell through tickets to Puget Sound via the Huntington gateway unless the local rate from Portland to the Sound be added to the price of the ticket. This gives the Hill lines the long haul from the East. The Hill lines would not concur in the agreement to sell tickets via Portland to Puget Sound.

The effect of this, it is said, will be to divert travel to Puget Sound to the Hill lines instead of through Portland.

GOOD HOME-MADE REMEDY

ESPECIALLY VALUED BY THE ELDERLY PEOPLE HERE.

Prescription for Rheumatism and Kidneys Said to Relieve Nearly All Cases.

A large New York health publication tells its readers of a number of simple and safe prescriptions that can be made at home. The following, however, for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles receives the greatest praise, viz., Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumblerful of water after each dose. It is further stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and urinary difficulties, especially of the elderly people, and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic afflictions, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings.

A well-known local druggist states that this mixture acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys; cleanses these spongelike organs and gives them power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood which is the cause of rheumatism.

Cut this out and hand to some sufferer which would certainly be an act of humanity.

STOPS SUICIDE; IS KILLED

Adams County Farmer Grapples With Friend and Meets Death.

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 27.—(Special.)—Frank Sherman, a farmer living about four miles from Othello, Adams County, was killed this morning by E. A. Sperling, who, with his wife, lived with Sherman. H. W. Kraus, a business man of Othello, says that he and Dr. Judah, railroad surgeon, went to the Sherman place in response to a call. They found Sherman lying on the ground in a pool of blood between the house and the stable. Sperling said that he and his wife had been quarreling and that he had left the house, taking the shotgun, intending to kill himself. Sherman, who was in the stable, came out and tried to take the gun away from him. In the struggle Sperling says the weapon was discharged and Sherman was killed. The Sperlings have been living with Sherman, who is a widower, for about a year. Sherman brought them to Washington from Minnesota, paying their fare.

MANY CHANGES IN SCHOOLS

Superintendents Favor Special Teaching for Immigrants.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The seventh annual convention of the department of superintendence of the National Educational Association closed last night.

At the afternoon session there was a lively debate over a motion to leave the question of the next meeting place to the executive committee, although the convention yesterday selected Oklahoma City. A motion by Augustus Downing, of New York, authorizing the executive committee to investigate the conditions as to accommodations and, if necessary, to select another place for the convention, was adopted.

Resolutions were adopted in favor of the study of agricultural subjects in the schools of the rural districts; granting Federal aid to the state normal schools for the training of teachers in agriculture, manual training and home economics; the maintenance in all large cities of schools for the special care of backward children; the opening of large ungraded rooms in large cities for the instruction of children of immigrants unable to speak the English language; the maintenance of evening schools for the instruction of adult immigrants in the English language and the duties of citizenship; urging an increased appropriation for the National Bureau of Education and commending the action of the National Civic Federation in the adoption of the plan for sending American teachers to Europe.

ALWAYS HUNGRY

Ordinary Food Never Satisfied Her.

A young lady in Minn. writes of her experience:

"After a disheartening struggle for five years against the ills attendant on malassimilation of food, I am at last on the high road to recovery and feel impelled to give credit where it is due.

"Some years ago I had a long illness due to stomach trouble. Every meal I ate caused me either excruciating pain or a dull heavy misery that was even worse. I weighed but 90 lbs., was almost hopeless as I found that a poorly nourished body means lack of brain power and ambition.

"I was always ravenously hungry and while I could not eat the appetizing dishes on the table, I longed for them. That longing is what prompted me to try Grape-Nuts. The food had a flavour that I liked—rich without being heavy.

"I left off my daily laxative as I found I did not need it for Grape-Nuts was so easily digested, constipation soon disappeared. I found, too, that I did not grow tired of Grape-Nuts and continued to eat it.

"It forms my breakfast exclusively and I also eat it with eggs and fruit for my other meals. I have gained 13 pounds in less than a year and that is nothing compared with my gain in strength and courage.

"I can now eat a hearty meal which satisfies my appetite and it does not leave me, as formerly, feeling as thoughed I had dined on tacks." "There's a reason."
