

JAIL SENTENCE FOR MCKINLEY

Francis J. Heney Asks Leniency for Notorious Land-Fraud Operator.

TELEGRAPHS THE COURT

Goes Over Head of United States Attorney Bristol, Who Asks That Penitentiary Term Be Ordered—Fine is $7500.

Thanks to an immunity bath, not a plunge, but a hasty dip, so to speak, Horace G. McKinley, convicted land-fraud operator, yesterday escaped a penitentiary sentence in the Federal Court.

The courtroom was crowded yesterday morning when Judge Wolverton took the bench. It was generally known that McKinley was to be sentenced.

Does Not Mince Matters.

United States Attorney Bristol did not mince matters when he arose to address the court.

This is the time appointed for the sentence of Horace G. McKinley, defendant in the case of the United States against Marie Ware and McKinley.

Lawyers Ask Mercy.

When Bristol had concluded, Judge Wolverton ordered McKinley to step forward.

Judge Wolverton then reviewed the indictment under which McKinley was convicted.

Court Reads Telegram.

After reading the telegram Judge Wolverton continued, saying: "It is commendable your part to be willing to testify on behalf of the Government."

That the fact that Mr. Heney had "gone over his head" and ordered an immunity bath for McKinley was a surprise to Mr. Bristol.

McKinley, together with S. A. D. Puter, was indicted and convicted in connection with the famous "H" case.

For three years he remained a fugitive from justice and it was not until a special arrangement had been made with China that steps for his extradition were taken.

Baby Burned to Death.

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 28.—Returning from a momentary visit to a sick neighbor, Mrs. Frank Hogue, of a block north of 11th and B streets, met her 2-year-old boy running to meet her, screaming that the baby was on fire.

MAKES LARGE INVESTMENT

Eastern Capitalists Pay $4,500,000 for Coast Timber Lands.

About 35,000 acres of timber lands in Northern California have been acquired by a syndicate of capitalists from York and Pennsylvania.

DAILY CITY STATISTICS

Deaths. SPENCER—At 460 Fourth street, February 26, Emma M. Spencer, a native of Nevada, aged 62.

Refused to Participate. Three months before laying the cornerstone of Mount Olive Church, Johnson was called a low, degrading name.

Stanford Shy a Boat

University of California Refuses to Lend Shell.

Oarsmen Believe Chances of Victory Would Be Lessened if Boat Were Rented to Stanford.

Warned of Trouble.

Building Permits.

Articles of Incorporation.

National Credit Association.

Marriage Licenses.

Knights of Columbus.

School Officers in Convention.

New World's Curling Champion.

THREATENS TO SUE

Rev. B. B. Johnson Calls Cannady's Charges Libel.

ANSWERS HIS ACCUSER

Issues Written Statement Contravening Accusations Made by the Editor of Advocate—Gives His Side of the Case.

Rev. Baker B. B. Johnson, pastor of the Mount Olive Baptist Church, who is accused by Ed. Cannady, editor of The Advocate, with having sought to discredit that paper by means of anonymous letters written to advertisers.

Who Mr. Johnson went by request of some of his members asking Mr. Cannady for third place in the paper, he was refused same.

I have never called on Mr. Cannady but the one time since coming to this city, and have never spoken of him in a public meeting but twice.

From April 1, 1907, to this date the Advocate has been indulging in unkind remarks about the negro preachers of Portland.

On Friday, the 21st, Johnson called on one of his members, who is a dear friend of the Advocate, and abs told Johnson that for three weeks past there had been talk of getting him to leave the town, and asked her to hold a private meeting and make him resign.

On the same evening, Johnson called on another of his members, whom just a few days before had some trouble with the Advocate, and she told Johnson how Mr. Cannady had served as one of the other preachers, and even J. C. Logan. She advised him to get out of the town, and Johnson thereupon called on the Chief of Police last Saturday morning to ask for permission to carry concealed weapons.

Police last Saturday morning to ask for permission to carry concealed weapons, and after he stated all the facts and told the whole history from start to finish, the Chief told him that he would investigate it and protect Johnson.

Since Johnson has been in this city or any other city he has never done his own writing of any business nature.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

Johnson has never made any attack on Mr. Cannady until last Friday and Saturday, when he heard through his deacons that Mr. Cannady had told them on Wednesday, the 19th, that Johnson must give up his church and leave the town at once.

STORE CLOSES ON SATURDAYS AT 6 O'CLOCK SATURDAY SPECIALS Today's bargain items will prove doubly attractive to the thrifty Saturday shopper—the following with the exception of one special being subject to delivery at our earliest convenience, and for which mail, telephone or C. O. D. orders will not be accepted.

FIFTY QUAIN STOOLS TODAY AT $1.65 One of the many attractive and popular pieces that from time to time have been offered in our Saturday sales.

WINDOW SHADES, EACH 50c Regular 85c quality; best oil opaque cloth; 3 ft. by 6 ft. 6 in. Today only in the Drapery Department—Sixth Floor.

"THE AMERICAN" WAFFLE IRONS TODAY AT 60c

The best Waffle Iron on the market; can be taken apart to clean; has long wood handles; no burning of hands; bakes to perfection.

SIXTH FLOOR SPECIALS TODAY IN DRAPERY DEPT.

- 5e Brass Extension Sash Rods, each 2 1/2c
15c Brass Extension Curtain Rods, each 5c
35e Brass Extension Curtain Rods, each 15c
15c quality Silkolines; plain and figured; 36 in. wide; per yard 9c
20c Curtain Swiss; 36 in. wide; per yard 10c

NAVAJO PATTERN RUGS TODAY AT $3.85

Made from the finest selected Donskoi wools; size 3 ft. by 6 ft. and reversible; in correctly reproduced Navajo patterns, guaranteed fast colorings.

TULL & GIBBS COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHERS

"THE MALLEABLE" RANGE RIVETED TOGETHER LIKE A BOILER—WILL LAST A LIFETIME

STANFORD SHY A BOAT

University of California Refuses to Lend Shell. Oarsmen Believe Chances of Victory Would Be Lessened if Boat Were Rented to Stanford.

Warned of Trouble.

Building Permits.

Articles of Incorporation.

National Credit Association.

Marriage Licenses.

Knights of Columbus.

School Officers in Convention.

New World's Curling Champion.

Baby Burned to Death.

Lawyers Ask Mercy.

Court Reads Telegram.

Does Not Mince Matters.

TELEGRAPHS THE COURT

Francis J. Heney Asks Leniency for Notorious Land-Fraud Operator.

MAKES LARGE INVESTMENT

THREATENS TO SUE

Rev. B. B. Johnson Calls Cannady's Charges Libel.

ANSWERS HIS ACCUSER

Issues Written Statement Contravening Accusations Made by the Editor of Advocate—Gives His Side of the Case.

Stanford Shy a Boat

University of California Refuses to Lend Shell.

Oarsmen Believe Chances of Victory Would Be Lessened if Boat Were Rented to Stanford.

Warned of Trouble.

Building Permits.

Articles of Incorporation.

National Credit Association.

Marriage Licenses.

Knights of Columbus.

School Officers in Convention.

New World's Curling Champion.

Baby Burned to Death.

Lawyers Ask Mercy.

Court Reads Telegram.

Does Not Mince Matters.

TELEGRAPHS THE COURT

Francis J. Heney Asks Leniency for Notorious Land-Fraud Operator.

MAKES LARGE INVESTMENT

THREATENS TO SUE

Rev. B. B. Johnson Calls Cannady's Charges Libel.

ANSWERS HIS ACCUSER