Discuss Fire Protection.-A committee from the Sixtleth Precinct Improvement Association held a conference with Chief Campbell with reference to fire protec-tion and the establishment of a fire house at Mount Tabor where it would command the largest territory. Chief Campbell went over the district and favored locating the fire station at some point on the west slope of Mount Tabor, as it would also assist in covering the territory toalso assist in covering the territory to-ward East Thirty-fifth street, at Sunny-side and would also give service to Mount Tabor, Center Addition and Montavilla, as there would be a downhill run to all these points. It would also protect Monta-villa for the present. The association independ the recommendation of Chief Campbell.

FOOT RACE FOR TIMBER CLAIM.-A foo race, the stake of which was a timber claim, occurred on Yamhill street, from Second to the United States Land Office, in the Postoffice building, yesterday morn-ing. Edward N. Lovegreen, James P. Altizer, Will Patterson and two other men whose names were not learned, had been inspecting a piece of timber land on Eagle Creek in Clackamas County, and decided to take it up. All five came in on the same car from Oregon City, and on arriving at Second and Yamhili streets, the quintot hastily left the car and sprinted for the land office. Patterson came out victorious and succeeded in filing on the claim. Altizer and Lovegreen are timber cruisers in his employ.

NOT GAMBLERS, SAT CHINESE.-Detectives Price and Coleman last night raided a house, at $694 Fourth street, and ar-rested Seld Wah, Louis Quing, Ah Charley and Seld Way. The men were charged with playing the Chinese gambling game known as kow. It is played with domi-noes and dice and although played, for money the cash never appears on the table but chips are issued instead. In kow Chinese "cash" is used as chips. As there was no lawful money on the table at the time, the Chinese set up the pleas that they were not gambling. They were seld under the charge, however, and this point will be decided by the Municipal udge this morning.

SHERIFF BEATTY MAKES CLEVER CAPTURE.

H. E. Roberts Arrested on Suspicion of Being Man Who Blew Up Irons Boathouse.

H. E. Roberts, alias Sullivan, alias H. E. Roberts, alias Sullivan, alias Baker, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Beatty. Although charged only with carrying concealed weapons, Roberts is suspected of blowing up the boathouse of S. P. Irons, on the Columbia River, between the new Vancouver railroad bridge and the Willamette River Lighthouse, several nights ago. It is believed he was hired to do the job. Roberts was arrested after Denthe job. Roberts was arrested after Dep-uty Beatty had made a long chase after him. He was discovered in the loft of a farmhouse on the Washington side of the Columbia River, and was persuaded by the deputy to return to the Oregon shore, when he was shown the warrant and placed under arrest. As the two entered Roberts' cabin, he turned to Deputy Beatty and said, "You can search my cabin all you like, but you'll not find any dynamite." The deputy replied that Roberts was not charged with using dynamite, but with carrying a concealed

Irons, the owner of the boathouse, came to town Saturday to purchase some pro-visions. He arrived late and found the visions. He arrived late and found the stores closed. He then remained in town, returning home Sunday. Just before he arrived home the boathouse was blown up. He said if it had been a little later he would have been blown up with the house. Roberts is said to have been in the vicinity of the house at about the lime it was blown up, and to have been seen rowing away from it. He has been employed on the North Bank road as a "hammer man," as the dynamite handlers are called.

Irons has hade several attempts to talk

Irons has made several attempts to talk to Roberts about the affair, but whenever he would approach the cabin of the accused man, which is on the river bank, Roberts would row away across the river. On one of these occasions Irons followed him, whereupon Roberts drew a revolver. Irons then preferred the charge against Deputy Sheriff Beatty was given the Deputy Sheriff Beatty was given the warrant for Roberts' arrest yesterday morning. As he approached the cabin, Roberts saw him, and made for his boat. Beatty then rented another rowboat, and followed, later obtaining a launch. Roberts was apprehended in the loft of a farmhouse on the Washington side of the Columbia, across from Kaples' Landing. He refused at first to return with the Columbia, across from Kaples' Landing. He refused at first to return with the deputy, but Beatty stuck to his quarry, and at last persuaded him to return.

This is not the first time Roberts has been in jail, having been arrested January 25, 1905, by Deputy Sheriff Ed Woods, for robbing a store at Bridal Vell. That time he was taken into custody at The Dalles, and served one year in the County Jail for his offense. in the County Jail for his offense.
