DAY OF FUNERALS AT COLLINWOOD

Grief-Stricken Village Buries Its Dead and Mangled Children.

ANGER HUSHED BY SORROW

Those Who Curse Janitor Silenced at Sight of Bowed Head—Inquest Shows Crush Made Help Unavailing.

CLEVELAND, O., March 6.—Funeral processions today began to wend their way toward the cemeteries, bearing the battered and charred bodies of some of the 167 children who perished in Wednesday morning's fire in the Lakeview school, Collinwood. From 9 o'clock in the morning until dark there was no cessation in the funeral corteges. Those who had no dead to mourn as a personal loss stood by in the streets with bare heads as the grim procession passed.

Grief Stills Anger.

One of the saddest funerals was that of the three children of Mr. Hirter, the janitor, held jointly with the services for three other little ones. Mutterings against the janitor could be heard about the village as grief-crazed parents sought an object upon which to wreak vengeance, forgetting that Mr. Hirter himself was walking with bowed head and broken heart behind the bodies of three of his beloved. A detail of police was placed about the Hirter home when the hour for the funeral came. Fully 500 persons had gathered, but when the coffins were carried to the doorway the crowd spread and opened the way for them without protest or expression of hostility.

Altogether there were 50 burials today, and tomorrow the grewsome task will be repeated. Sunday will witness the last of the individual burials and on Monday the bodies of all those who are unidentified will be laid to rest with one funeral. Tonight 28 of these bundles of flesh await claimants.

Could Not Have Been Saved.

Testimony describing the mad rush to death of the school children was given today at the continued session of the Coroner's inquest. Stories of heroism on the part of the women teachers were recited. F. P. Whitney, superintendent of the Collinwood schools, stated his belief that no Fire Department could have done any effective work after the fire had started. Two of the teachers told of their unavailing attempts to open one of the double doors at the rear, which they said was locked. The inquest also developed the fact that after the first crush at the door it was beyond human possibility to aid those whom the fire was devouring. The inquest will be resumed Monday.

In a statement today Chief Wallace of the Cleveland Fire Department, after an examination of the ruins of the Collinwood school, said it was his opinion that the loss of life would not have been so great had there been no partitions at the sides of the storm doors at the rear entrance. Two feet, eight inches had been taken off either side of the hall for the partitions. His examination developed that the doors opened outward.

With the appropriation of $25,000 today by the Ohio Legislature and the funds subscribed locally, there will be plenty of financial relief for the stricken families which are unable to bear the expense of the funerals.

Identified by Her Teeth.

The body of Miss Katherine Wheeler, one of the two teachers who lost their lives was positively identified by a dentist. The body is so terribly burned that it can hardly be distinguished from the bodies of the smaller girls. The identification was established by her gold-filled teeth upon description furnished by a Pittsburg dentist.

The body of Rosetta Machnich, a former pupil in the school, was identified by her shoes. When Mrs. Machnich was positive of the identification, she fell fainting upon the charred body of her little one.

LEAVE SCHOOL WITHOUT PANIC

Singing "America," 2000 New York Children Reach Safety.

NEW YORK, March 6.—A special call was sent into Fire Headquarters from the public school on One Hundred and Ninth street, between Amsterdam avenue and Broadway.

The children were marched from the school without panic or disorder. They were assembled in the yard and sent home. Parents who rushed to the building were prevented by the police from closing in the exits and sent away. The fire was on the top floor of the building, which is five stories high.

The 2000 pupils in the building were engaged in their morning singing exercise when the fire gong rang and they continued to sing "America" as they marched out of the building. There was no sign of panic at any time.

An examination showed that there were two distinct fires—one in a locker and another in a desk. The fire marshal is investigating on the possibility that the fires may have been started by an incendiary. He says, however, that it is possible that they may have been caused by spontaneous combustion.

No Panic in Michigan School.

ST. JOHNS, Mich., March 6.—While smoke came up the flues into the schoolrooms and the halls of the North Ward School today, the 125 pupils marched out without the vestige of a panic. The fire was extinguished before serious damage was done.

MAYOR TRIES TO "FIX" IT

Colonel Anderson Says Wright Sought to Win Over His Support.

TACOMA, Wash., March 6.—(Special.)—That Mayor Wright practically attempted to bribe Colonel J. J. Anderson to cease opposing his candidacy for re-election, on the occasion of the conference between the two men Tuesday afternoon, following the sensational Gilbert hall meeting, where Anderson asserted he believed wright a grafter, is the statement made by Colonel Anderson today. Anderson says:

"I was sent for by the Mayor and went to his office and we talked matters over for an hour. He asked me if I, at heart, believed him a grafter. I replied that was hardly a fair question, and asked him if he had not heard what I had said at Gilbert hall:

"He went on and praised my conduct while in the City Attorney's office and assured me he had always been my friend; that he was yet my friend.

"'And now,' said he, getting down to the real reason for calling me to his office, 'Colonel, we are going to elect William Jennings Bryan President,' and, he added, 'Colonel, J. J. Anderson is going to be an aspirant for office.'

"'That,' I replied, 'is right where Colonel J. J. is going to fool you. I have buried every political ambition I've ever had. I knew the day that I went into this matter that I had dug my political grave, and I did it deliberately.'

"But he insisted that I was yet young enough and energetic enough to be a candidate for some office and that he wanted to be in a position to help me. He wanted to 'fix' me by promising me support toward securing a Federal appointment if I would quit opposing him. That is the sum and substance of it."

GIVES TO FRIENDS

Tilmon Ford Remembers Two Score With Gold Watches.

LIBERAL WITH HIS WEALTH

Educational Institution and Lodges Are Included—Names of Those Who Receive $125 Presents for Personal Keepsakes.

SALEM, Or., March 6.—(Special.)—As an example of the magnanimity and trait of mind to treasure up and reward personal kindnesses and favors, the last will and testament of the late Tilmon Ford stands out as a written testimony when he devotes nearly $5000 of his fortune of approximately over $200,000 to the bequeathal of gifts to nearly two score of his most intimate friends and acquaintances, to be expended as keepsakes. To each of 39 relatives, friends and acquaintances he set aside $125 in cash, to be expended for a gold watch and chain, diamond ring or scarf pin, according to the choosing of the beneficiary.

Kaiser and Mrs. Dr. Angie Warren, of Portland, his cousin and sister, respectively, who are named as co-executors of the will, to construct a vault in the cemetery, at a cost of not to exceed $4000, to receive the remains of himself and surviving relatives.

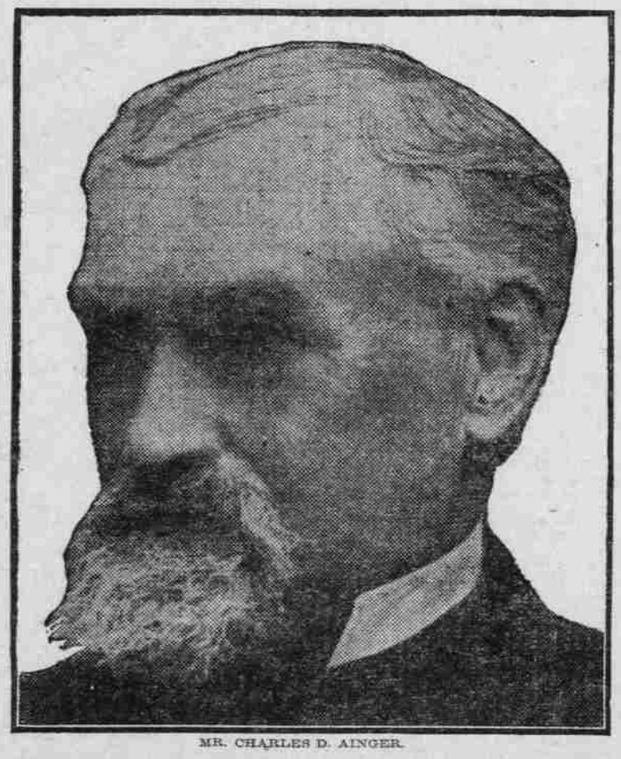
Prominent Prohibition Lawyer Praises the Elixir of Life



MR. CHARLES D. AINGER.

Mr. Charles D. Ainger, a well-known lawyer of Andover, Ohio, who has just celebrated his 81st birthday and manages an extensive business, has been completely cured of acute dyspepsia and indigestion by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Mr. Ainger is a Prohibitionist and is opposed to the sale and use of intoxicants, but says he can conscientiously recommend Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a great medicine.

Mr. Ainger writes: I am 81 years old and am still attending to an extensive business without any assistance whatever. I have been all my life opposed to the sale and use of intoxicants. I have been a sufferer from acute dyspepsia and indigestion. I have recently commenced the use of Duffy's Malt Whiskey as a medicine. I know that it has been very beneficial to my health and firmly believe that it has prolonged my existence. I can conscientiously recommend its use as a medicine.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as a family medicine everywhere.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1. Write Dr. R.
