M'COURT NOT YET NAMED

Hopes for Nomination as District Attorney Today.

John McCourt, possible successor to United States Attorney Bristol, left last night for his home at Pendleton, after spending two days in this city. Yesterday he called at the Federal building, visiting the office of the District Attorney. While no news regarding his nomination by President Roosevelt was received during the day from Washington, Mr. McCourt is hopeful the chief executive will send his name to the Senate today. With the unanimous endorsement of the Oregon delegation, Mr. McCourt feels reasonably confident that he will be nominated, believing that there is nothing in his brief political experience that will serve to obstruct his candidacy. The fact remains that the name of Christian Schuchel, the original appointee to succeed Bristol, is still before the Senate, where it was sent several weeks ago.

INDECENT PHOTOS SHOWN

Fred Fritz Arrested on Charge of Exhibiting Them in Machines.

Fred Fritz, proprietor of a notorious Burnside-street saloon, was arrested yesterday. The time he was taken in because of an unlawful plan to wrest penicils from the hundreds of laborers and North End habitues that frequent his big resort. He had installed a "peeny arcade" in which even the names of the moving picture films are unfit for mention. The machines were doing a rushing business when Chief Gritzmacher heard of the new arcade and sent an officer to investigate. The salacious hordes were simply fighting for a chance to see the indecent pictures, and the officer had some trouble making his investigation. After looking the pictures over he reported on what he had seen and Fritz was arrested and his machines confiscated. After viewing the pictures at the station the Chief had the offender's bail fixed at $50. The penalty for exhibiting indecent pictures is very heavy, ranging from $50 to $500. The smallest possible penalty that can be inflicted is a fine of $50.
