GIVES OPINION ON THE VEHICLE TAX

City Attorney Kavanaugh Holds That Ordinance Is Now in Effect.

NOT UNDER REFERENDUM

Municipality's Legal Adviser Also Asserts That Measure Cannot be Laid Before Voters—Kellaher Scoffs at the Ruling.

City Attorney Kavanaugh yesterday gave to City Auditor Eechar detailed opinion on the question whether the recently-enacted vehicle-tax ordinance, which was passed over the veto of Mayor Lane is now in force...

Notwithstanding the ruling, Councilman Kellaher, who is opposed to the ordinance and who fought it from committee room to final passage, declares that the referendum will be invoked; that he will pay no attention whatever to Mr. Kavanaugh's opinion...

"According to Mr. Kavanaugh's opinion, the referendum does not hold in the city," said Councilman Kellaher. "But Circuit Judge Cleland has just decided to the contrary. Therefore, regard to the opinion of Mr. Kavanaugh, we will proceed with the circulation of our petition for presentation of this vehicle-tax ordinance to be put up to the voters..."

Mr. Kavanaugh, in the concluding paragraphs of his written opinion, makes clear his ruling in the following language: "The provision allowing 90 days after the adjournment of the Legislature within which to file a referendum petition was evidently predicated upon section 28 of article IV of the Constitution of Oregon, which provides that 'No act shall take effect until 90 days from the end of the session at which the same shall have been passed, except in case of emergency...'"

It is also true that we are far behind time on our many filling contracts, but we believe that the $150,000 plant which we are erecting, and which is now nearing completion, is a sufficient guarantee of our intention to carry out these contracts as rapidly as possible...

"We do not consider ourselves a party election, such suspension would result in great inconvenience. This ordinance by its terms provides a new schedule of licenses, and repeals the former ordinance. The former ordinance is repealed by its own terms..."

SPEECH BY FATHER O'HARA

"Stephen Langton and His Times" Discussed by Priest.

Rev. Edwin N. O'Hara, of St. Mary's Cathedral, gave an address before the Sellwood Library Association last night on "Stephen Langton and His Times."

Stephen Langton's name is associated in the popular mind chiefly with the great triumph of English liberties at Runnymede—the wresting of the great charter from King John. Langton rose to the position of Archbishop of Canterbury by reason of his great abilities as a statesman and scholar. That historic act had been the home of a long list of distinguished archbishops, beginning with Augustine and including Saint Anselm and Saint Thomas

There is no means of ascertaining how many more chauffeurs there are in the city, as they have never been licensed heretofore.
