Davidson took the stand in his own behalf late yesterday afternoon. He admitted having taken a drink or two of liquor on December 4, the day the ceacloth was discovered in his pocket. It was for this that he was being repri-manded by members of the firm, he said. He told them he wanted his salsaid. He told them he wanted his sal-ary; that he was going to guit. Then, he said, he pulled the teacloth from his pocket and handed it to Mr. Meier. He said he explained at the time that it was a sample which he had intended to show to a friend who was visiting at his home, but that Mr. Meier be-layed that he intended to steal it, and

Lane County Jury Gives $45,-000 in Damage Case.

AWARD AGAINST RAILROAD

Verdict Largest Ever Rendered in State in Case of Like Character - Southern Pacific Will Anneal.

The verdict of $45,000 damages that was returned by a Lane County jury at Il o'clock Tuesday night in favor of M. J. Doyle was the largest award of personal damages ever awarded in this state. Doyle was struck by an engine at Granite, Lane County, on the morning of October 24, 1996, and both legs were cut off near the hips. He almost miracu-lously escaped with his life and is now a helpless cripple. The railroad company is preparing to file a motion for a new trial, contending that the award is excessive. Should another trial be denied the corporation will take an appeal to the Supreme Court.

At the time of the accident, Doyle, then 32 years old, was employed as timekeeper for the Southern Pacific Company, being for the Southern Pacific Company, being stationed at Divide, Lane County. He was receiving $85 a month and board, and kept the time of a crew of about 50 Greeks, who were employed on the railroad. On the morning the accident happened Doyle was checking over the gang of Greeks, who were standing on a sidetrack at Divide. While he was performing this clerical work a double-headed freight train pulled into the station on the main track.

Having been located at Divide but three

Having been located at Divide but three days, the evidence at the trial of the case showed. Doyle was not familiar with the movements of trains at that station, where it was customary for double-headers to switch one of their engines to the passing track preliminary to returning to Roseburg.

The testimony of Doyle and the Greek workmen was to the effect that the first engine was detached from the train, which stood on a curve, and was backed into the passing track without warning. Doyle being struck, knocked down and horribly mangled. The testimony of Doyle and his witnesses was to the effect that the engine was backed into the feet that the engine was backed into the switch at high speed, while the members of the train crew declared that every precaution was taken to prevent the accident, the whistle being sounded while accident, the whistle being sounded while the bell was rung constantly. The jury accepted the story of the crippled plaintiff and his witnesses and after four hours' deliberation returned a verdiet for $45,000 suit having been brought for $150,000. The trial was closely contested. Roger B. Sinnott, of this city, Judge A. S. Bennett, of The Dalles, and A. C. Woodcock, of Eugene, were associated in the case for the plaintiff, the railroad company being represented by W. D. Fenton, of this city, assisted by John Pipes, of Eugene. The case was called before Judge Harris Thursday morning, and the trial was not concluded until about 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, when it went to the jury. The next largest amount of damages The next largest amount of damages awarded by a jury in this state for per-sonal damages was that in the case of the Witherow child, who suffered the loss of both legs about 20 years ago loss of both legs about 20 years ago near Lafayette, Yamhili County. In that case, the jury gave a verdiet for $40,000. A similar verdiet was re-turned in the State of Washington about 15 years ago, when an engineer named Walker lost his life when his engine crashed through a rotten bridge.

In this case an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court, which reduced the

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Nearly every woman would feel better for a Cascaret every day. Women exercise less than men. That's why they need help most.

A woman moved into a new flat with a bath room, and she said to a visitor: "You don't know how anxious I am for Saturday night. I want to take a bath."

That's what some of us do with our bowels. We get into the habit of periodical cleansing. And we never realize how much better it is to give a little help every day.

That's the reason for Cascarets. To give you a convenient vest-pocket laxative, the action of which is as natural and gentle as the action of laxative foods.

We took them only when we were forced to. We let matters run until the bowels were clogged, and we were miserable. Today we keep at our best. The way is to take one Cascaret just as soon as you know that you need it. The results are as pleasant as the dose.

They are not like the old-time physics-castor oil, salts and cathartics.

Those who exercise enough, and eat coarse food and plenty of fruit, don't need them. All others do need them. Cascarets do just what Nature does for those who live in a natural way.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure you get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50 cents, 25 cents and
