SUIT AGAINST HIS FORMER CASHIER

E. W. Haines, Forest Grove Banker, Accuses Frank T. Kane of Fraud.

SHORTAGE OF $25,000

Claims He Appropriated Funds of Defunct Bank to Own Use and Juggled the Accounts to Cover Peculations.

HILLSBORO, Or., March 11 .- (Special.) -E. W. Haines, the Forst Grove banker who failed a few weeks ago, today filed a suit in the Circuit Court against F. T. Kane, his former cashier, alleging that the defendant, who worked for him prior the obtendant, who worked for him prior to November, 1905, was guilty of a system of fraud to the extent of nearly $25,000 while he was an official of the bank. Haines charges that Kane made erro-neous footings on both ledger and cash book and that when he left the bank's employ the coin make many all short of employ the coin sacks were all short of employ the coin sacks were all short of the amounts on the tags. Haines makes William Kane, the defendant's fathen and the Commercial Gold Mining Co., of Baker County, co-defendants and charges that the son assigned 74,000 shares of stock to the father to avoid litigation. Haines asks that Kane be brought into court, the books, committely experted court, the books completely experted and that a judgment against the mining

Reported Investigation Discloses

Bad Condition of Defunct Bank. FOREST GROVE, Or., March 11.-(Spe-cial.)-A climax was reached today in the affairs of the defunct E. W. Haines bank, which closed its doors on Febru-ary I, when suit was filed accusing Frank T. Kense the former backbackers and ary 1, when suit was filed accusing Frank T. Kane, the former bookkeeper and cashier, of stealing 25,000. The suit is the result of an examination of the books of the institution by Max Crandell, of Hillsboro, an expert accountant. When the bank was forced to close, a meeting of the depositors was held at which Mr. Haines made a statament that he had been robbed of some 30,000 and sseigned this as a reason for the bank's difficulties. A committee of nine repre-sentative cilizens was appointed to as-sist in the work of straightening out the affairs of the bank, and this committee affairs of the bank, and this committee named three of its members to act as an investigating committee. At a meeting of the committee of nine this morning. It is stated that the three reported that a shortage of at least $25,000 had already been discovered and it is stated out or een discovered, and it is given out on ood authority that this shortage will each $30,000. As a result of this meeting he present suit was instituted. The complaint sets forth that Kane began about April 25, 1898, to resort to a system of false entries and fradulent system of faise entries and fractient practices to obtain money from the bank to appropriate to his own use, and re-lates numerous schemes by which the cashier diverted funds to his own use. He is accused of wholesale jugglery of the backs of the institution and other the back books of the institution, and of taking from the sacks in the vault in which the unney was kept, various sums, the amounts listed on the tags not corres-ponding to the actual amount in the bags when he left the institution.
