BAUER-KREISLER CONCERT

At the Heilig Theater Next Tuesday Evening.

"Kreisier's playing is a delight and sets the audiences into demonstrative enthu-dasm," So began one of the well-known will play here with Harold Bauer, equally renowned and artistic. 'Kreisler has long since made it clear that his tastes take him back to the music of the earlier classics, and for him—and as he plays it this music is alive and appealing." Bauer, a real favorite with every music lover, local or out of town, stands without a peer as a master of the palnoforte. "Paderewski himself could not have pro-duced more ravishing effects of tone-color than Bauer did." wrote Finck re-
