

SCALP SPECIALS
A WEEKLY TIME

To Indorse or Not to Indorse Legislative Candidates Is Stumbling Block.

FEW FOR STATEMENT NO. 1

Marion Political Leaders Believe It Bad Politics to Arouse Ill-Feeling and May Abandon the Plan of the Central Committee.

SALEM, Or., March 13.—(Special.)—A lively contest is expected in the Republican county convention tomorrow over the question whether a legislative ticket shall be indorsed. A few days ago the plan of indorsing a ticket of candidates opposed to Statement No. 1 had been abandoned, but today it was revived and the effort will be made to carry it out.
The effort will be opposed, not only by Statement No. 1 men, but also by some who are opposed to Statement No. 1.
The question presented will not be upon Statement No. 1, but upon the indorsement of candidates under any conditions.
It is conceded by all that in the control of Statement No. 1 will be in the control of the convention. In fact, it is asserted by men active in politics, that out of the 38 delegates less than ten are advocates of Statement No. 1.

Concessions to Country Precincts.
The county central committee ordered the convention held for the purpose of indorsing five legislative candidates who are unilaterally opposed to Statement No.
1. The convention will have the power to carry out the instruction if it desires, but there are many who believe it would be poor policy to do so. Because of this feeling, the plan was abandoned, but it has been taken up again on account of the announcement that there will be five Statement No. 1 candidates in the primaries in April.

So far as can be learned, there is no "programme" for the convention. It has been reported that the country people are dissatisfied with the convention idea, it is proposed that a delegate from the country be made chairman. It is also the intention of the city delegates to concede three of the five candidates to the country precincts, one to come from Silverton, one from Jefferson and one from the farming region near Salem.
The other two will be from the city. F.
A. Turner, of Salem; L. T. Reynolds, of Astoria, and J. H. Smith, of Clatskanie, are the only men whose names have been mentioned as candidates.

Effect on June Election.
The convention will meet at the city hall at 10 A. M. and after effecting a temporary organization, will probably adjourn until afternoon. There is a great interest in the meeting, and on account of what the convention may do, but because of the effect its action may have upon the primary election in April or the general election in June. Predictions have been frequent that the holding of a convention for indorsing candidates will prove a political mistake.

HARRIMAN MAY DEFEY ORDER Agents Likely to Continue to Do Business in Puget Sound.

TACOMA, Wash., March 13.—(Special.)— Late this afternoon it was reported that Harriman would defy the Interstate Commerce Commission and that his agents in the Hill territory had been ordered to continue soliciting passenger business as usual. Alec S. Gavin, director and assistant general auditor of the Oregon Short Line, and T. B. Dunn, traveling auditor for the Southern Pacific, have been in Tacoma three days giving the affairs of the local Harriman office a thorough checking which railroad men maintain is final.
Mr. Gavin said tonight: "I cannot make any statements yet as to what will be the outcome of this passenger controversy. We expect to hear from Portland tomorrow as to what action will be taken, and I will be in a position to make a statement concerning future business at that time."

Salooman Faces Charges.
PENDLETON, Or., March 13.—(Special.)— Information was filed in the Circuit court today charging Abbe Ogg with selling liquor on Sunday. He is the saloon proprietor who was recently fined $100 for permitting gambling in his place of business. It is probable that his license will now be revoked. The liquor is supposed to have been sold Sunday and was used to intoxicate a man in order that he might be the more easily robbed.

Banquet to Lieutenant Canfield.
ASTORIA, Or., March 13.—(Special.)— A banquet was given at Fort Stevens this evening by the officers stationed at the forts adjacent to the mouth of the river, to Lieutenant Canfield, who will be married on next Monday to Mrs. Bishop, formerly the wife of Captain Bishop, who was recently stationed at Fort Stevens, but is now at Fort Houston, Tex.

Bishop Paddock at Pendleton.
PENDLETON, Or., March 13.—(Special.)— Bishop R. L. Paddock, of the Eastern Oregon Episcopal diocese, late of New York, arrived this morning from La Grande and will be in Pendleton a week or more. The bishop says he will spend the next few months in traveling over his large district and has no idea as yet where he will make his permanent headquarters.

Uncle Sam's Feline Soldiers.
Exchange.
It is not generally known that the United States Government spends several thousands of dollars annually for the maintenance of cats, but the accounts of the United States Department of the Interior, in every storehouse there are from one to five of the animals, and their rations are provided as carefully and as regularly as those of any of the soldiers.
They are not fed on scraps, nor are their individual tastes disregarded, as are those of the enlisted men, but they are served as much as if they were human beings. In every storehouse there are

SEATTLE LEATHLETES
TAKE THREE EVENTS

Friday, Thirteenth, Proves a Hoodoo for Wearers of the Winged "M."

VENABLE DEFEATS FRANK

Speck Outclasses Dranga and Kelly Outpoints West—Smith Only Victor Among the Visitors—Over 1000 Attend the Smoker.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 13.—(Special.)— Friday, the 13th, proved a Jonah day for the athletes who represented the Multnomah Athletic Club of Portland, against the Seattle Athletic Club boxers and wrestlers at the smoker held last night at the S. A. C. gym. Three out of the four inter-club events were won by Seattle men, Smith, of Portland, being the only visitor to defeat a local wrestler. Venable defeated Edgar Frank in the main wrestling bout. Speck outclassed Dranga in the windup boxing event and Kelly defeated West after a fast mixup. The smoker was attended by nearly 1000 persons and was the best held in Seattle this year.
Speck, of the Seattle Athletic Club, sent the big crowd into fits of delight by the way in which he used his Dempsey left and punished Dranga, of Multnomah.
Dranga in a game, rugged youngster with a hard rap in either mitt, but he was unable to connect. Speck followed the instructions of Lonnie Austin to the letter and was invariably the first to connect in the clinch.

Venable Tumbles Frank.
The local boxer was never in danger at any stage and at the conclusion of the three rounds was hardly ruffled.
Dranga, on the other hand, had pumped into a multitude of straight lefts that caused his head to rock. He was greatly weakened and lacked accuracy when the bout ended.
Venable proved that he is easily the best wrestler of his weight in the Northwest. The lad went against the former champion without any training except what he had been able to secure himself. There was no professional tutor to coach him, and his victory is all his own. The bout was closely contested and pleased the crowd.
Venable won the first fall in 4 minutes and 30 seconds. He took the second drop in 12 minutes and 30 seconds. Both were flying falls, but Venable could have turned the second one into a pin fall had the bout continued.

Kelly Too Fast for West.
Kelly simply outboxed West, of Portland. Kelly was too fast and led from the first. West kept well covered and seemed content to wait and try for a knockout in a single punch. He uncorked several vicious ones, but Kelly was too fast and the Portlander was unable to connect. Had West followed his usual tactics and bored in from the gong, he might have been able to trim the local lad, but at the long-range boxing game the visitor had no chance to register.
Kincaid lost to Smith after the bouts.
The local lad was defeated in the first encounter, but annexed the second fall.
In the deciding turn his shoulders were plunged to the mat after 11 minutes of which he was unable to rise. Kincaid worked Kincaid and Smith wrestled for 30 minutes without going to the mat, but as both were trying hard, the crowd was pleased.

Tonight's smoker marked the close of the season in the Northwest, so far as interclub tournaments are concerned.

COULON DEFEATS M'GOVERN
"Young Terry" Outclassed Altogether by Clever Opponent.

LOS ANGELES, March 13.—Johnny Coulon, of Chicago, outclassed "Young Terry" McGovern, of Los Angeles, in their ten-round contest before the Pacific Athletic Club in this city tonight.
Coulon, by his clever defense and his hardness, kept his opponent continually on the defense and scored three knockdowns, once putting McGovern halfway through the ropes. Coulon showed strength and gameness never before introduced by a 105-pound fighter in this city. Several times McGovern was within a few seconds of the knockout, but was saved by the gong. The crowd was enthusiastic in approval of Coulon's clever defense. He followed McGovern unces-santly and managed to duck or step away from his opponent's swing and upper-cuts.

Cautezizing a Leopard's Tail.
Paris Cable to the New York Herald.
A novel surgical operation has just been performed on a leopard, Paul, at Pezon's menagerie by Professor Dranzard, of the Military Veterinary College. The animal recently while eating his dinner also bit his tail, gangrene set in, and it became necessary to amputate a portion of the tail to save his life. The leopard was lashed, thrown on its back, a piece of soft wood was given it to gnaw, and while the animal was held by ten men the veterinary proceeded with the amputation of a portion of the tail and cautezized the wound. The animal roared considerably, but the operation was declared successful.

Weak Little Boys
may become fine strong men.
Some of the strong men of today were sickly boys years ago. Many of them received Scott's Emulsion at their mother's knee. This had a power in it that changed them from weak, delicate boys into strong, robust boys.
It has the same power to-day.
Boys and girls who are pale and weak get food and energy out of SCOTT'S EMULSION.
It makes children grow. : : :

THE BEVERIDGE BRAND
Indiana Senator's Sweetness "Like a Pound of Candy."
Joel Chandler Harris in Uncle Remus' Magazine.
"An' whar will we find anything happer than to call to mind, for one blissful moment—I hope I've got it right, but it been so long since I quoted anything warm from the poets that I aint right certain an' shore-whar will we get any bigger gob of happiness than can be found in that restless bunch of sweetness, Albert Beveridge?" asked Billy Saunders.
"His very name is as satisfyin' to me as a cold bottle of beer right out'n a prohibition locker, an' when I dwell on Albert in my thoughts, I feel like I had allowed a pound of candy—which is a sufficient plenty for me any time. The last I heerd of Albert, he was dert in a dispute w' Bryan about the gentel an' providential natur' of the trusts. This dispute began Summer before last, an' I reckon it's a-gwine on yet. The last I seen on it, Bryan was talkin' about onthing an' Albert about another, but the dispute was jest as hot. Bryan kin scoop up language like a steam shovel scoop up dirt, an' the only advantage he had was that he kin scoop it up like two steam shovels.
"Whether writin' or speakin', all Albert has to do is to turn on the phonograph, an' you'll hear a speech or read a piece long enough to stretch across the bosim of the ragin' Pacific; an' he'll keep it up until the police remind him that people that aint natchel orators have got for to rest an' sleep. Albert is both young an' smart; I reckon he must 'a' went through out of our public school systems whar they keep grammars an' dictionaries, an' they're still fresh in his mind. He knows a heap of things that the most on us have done gone an' clean forgot; but I never shall forgit his article that run through seven issues of the Congressional Record. Its entitlement was 'A Brief View of the Earth When She Was Nineteen Years of Age.' It was chockfull of good advice to young men, telling them that it aint wuth while to do nothin' bad do it is to git the'r respected an' respectable names before the Republican convention when the delegates aint too slobber."

Sawdust is turned into transportable fuel power machine can turn out 10,000 bricks a day.

Scalp Specialists
Use and Recommend NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

"I am sending you my photograph to show what Newbro's Herpicide has done for me.
"Since I first tried Herpicide upon my hair I have used it exclusively in giving scalp treatments to others, and I would not think of trying to get along without it." (Signed) MRS. ANNA CONNER.
2807 Archer Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Hundreds of lady scalp specialists and hair dressers use and recommend Newbro's Herpicide, instead of products of their own manufacture upon which a much larger profit could be made. They claim that the Herpicide makes friends for them and gives much better satisfaction. Some hair dressers use Herpicide for obstinate cases only, but why not use the best first?
Herpicide is a delightful dressing that can be used when there is no disease of the hair or scalp, and as an actual remedy for dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair it stands in a class singularly its own.
Many ladies object to a gummy and sticky hair dressing, or one that is full of sedimentary chemicals intended to dye the hair. The marked preference for a clean and dainty preparation, particularly one that overcomes excessive oiliness and leaves the hair light and fluffy, is reflected in the enormous sale of Newbro's Herpicide. Discriminating ladies become enthusiastic over its refreshing quality and exquisite fragrance. It stops itching of the scalp almost instantly.

Two sizes, 50c and $1.00, at Drugstores. Send 10c in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Dept. N., Detroit, Michigan, for a sample. Guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906. Serial No. 915.
Some druggists boast of their ability to sell substitutes to mid-mannered customers. Get Herpicide.
FOR SALE AT ALL DRUGSTORES. Applications at prominent barbershops.
