OFFICES ATTRACT MANY CANDIDATES

Statement No. 1 and Other Issues Almost Forgotten in the Scramble.

SEVERAL HOT CONTESTS

Six Republicans Fight for Nomination for District Attorney of Multnomah - Effects of Governor Chamberlain's Announcement.

Interest in Statement No. 1, and the interest in Statement No. 1, and the various proposed constitutional amendments and initiative measures, has almost been lost sight of in the strife among a small army of candidates for nomination to public office. With but few exceptions, there will be active contests in the April primary nominating election, particularly among the Republicans, for every office from United States Senator down to Constale. The Democrats have formed no ble. The Democrats have formed no definite programme and in the absence of any organization only a few scat-tering candidates have appeared among e minority

The advent of Governor Chamberlain a Senatorial candidate was not at unexpected. For the last two years has been regarded a likely aspirant the honor and it has been only a question as to when he would come out with his announcement. By em-bracing Statement No. I and maintain-ing that National issues are not in-volved in the nomination and election of a Senator, the Governor apparently expects, by binding Republican legis-lative candidates to that statement, to secure his election by a Republican Legislature, and has faith in his abilto defeat the Republican nomines n the June election.

In his announcement, the Governor direlity makes Statement No. 1 his only issue, declares for the direct primary, continues his advocacy "non-partisan" policy and lauds President Roosevelt and his policies.

Will Solidify Republicans.

The appearance of Governor Chamberiain as a candidate at this time, some Republicans think, will do much to solidify Republicans of the state and influence them to adopt a course that will not require them to elect a Democrat to the United States Senate Democrat to the United States Senate. The example of Republican county conventions in Mulnomah, Marlon, Lane and Tambili in calling on candidates for the Legislature to piedge support to the candidate of their party for United States Senator, is cited as having large influence.

In stultnomah County, aside from the nomination of a legislative ticket, he principal contest among the Re-publicans will be in selecting a nom-nee for District Attorney of the nee for District Attorney of the Fourth Judicial District. The sixth Republican to enter this race is James Cole, ex-Assistant United States At-Staturday. Others seeking this nom-ination are: Roger E. Sinnott, Gus C. Moser, George J. Cameron, J. N. Davis and Henry S. Westbrook, John Man-ning is the only Democratic candidate. Sheriff Stevens and County Clerk Fields apparently will not have any opposition in their candidacy for re-nomination. Tom Word will be nom-inated for Sheriff by the Democrats.

The contest for the nomination of two Justices of the Peace and one Constable will rival in interest the con-test for many of the other nominations William Reid and Fred L. Olson, pres ent Justices, and J. W. Bell are candi-lates. By the consolidation of the two Justice districts, the office of one Con-stable is abolished. There are five candidates for the Republican nominaion as follows: Lou Wagner, Charles Frischkorn and Joe Morak. No Democratic candidates have appeared.

Five Could Be Coroner.

Coroner Finley will not be a candidate for re-election, but there are five eager aspirants for the Republican nomination to this office. Each of the candidates is making a vigorous cam-paign. ## Inspect College Machine Shops.

CORVALLIS, Or., March is.—(Special.)

-Governor Chamberlain and Superintendent Ackerman were here this afternoon and inspecied the new machine shops, and the barn on the college farm. Both buildings were completed recently under direction of a committee of which thay and President Kerr are members. The new shop furnishes quarters for the carpenter and ironworking departments. The building is in the form of an L and

M rich and aplendid physique created havoc with the hearts of the fair show patrons during the days when he essayed the legitimate at the Baker Theater, is renewing his acquaintance with Portland at the Pantages Theater this week. That Mr. MacDowell has en-tered vandeville does not mean that he has deteriorated as a tragedian; far from it, for it can be truthfully said that his portrayal of the role of Marius, the serf, which is taken from the tragic drama "The Lady and the Serf," is fully demonstrative of the the Serl.' is fully demonstrative of the well-known actor's genius. Mr. Mac-Dowell is supported by Virginis Drew Trescott, who is an Oregon girl, and it must be said in justice to her that she has improved wonderfully since her last appearance in this city. Miss Trescott reads her difficult lines in the most artistic manner, and her emotional scene queen compelled by her oath to sub to marriage with a serf is startlingly

While Mr. MacDowell and Miss Tres cott overshadow the balance of programme in an artistic sense, it must be acknowledged that Mr. Johnson has secured some highly interesting acts to fill out the balance of the week's bill. One feature is the opportunity offered the public of judging the merit of the real colored specialty as compared to the counterpart essayed by the made-up negro. Carlisie and Baker are the real counterpart essayed by the made-up negro. Carlisie and Baker are the real article, and the Kauffman Brothers portray the made-up kind and to pick out the better duo will prove a hard task. The former couple introduce a singing and musical specialty, while the latter give a comedy exhibition of the most pleasing character.

Blanche Bishop has a pleasing person ality and receives generous applause. Will C. Matthews and Nellie Harris ren-der a comedy sketch entitled "Adam the Second" that takes well, and Jean Wil son sings a new illustrated song in his usual pleasing manner. The moving plc-tures are excellent. For genuine amuse-ment don't fail to take in the Pantages' bill this week.

ONE of the most entertaining vandeville bills to be presented at the Grand Theater in some time was intro-duced for a week's run at the popular Washington-street showhouse yester-day afternoon. In fact, that week's day afternoon. In fact, that week's assortment of attractions constitute some of the best laugh-producing sketches that have ever visited this

May Redelle and her village cutups while billed as an added attraction, seem to be the real hit of the show, from a gloom-chasing point of view. This troupe consists of three very active young women garbed as rural damaels; two ludicrous impersonators of the male country bumpkin, a diminutive dog, a trained pig, which evinces a fondness for the lactest fluid contained in a bottle, and a docile speci-men of the goat family. This may be an error as far as the species is con-cerned, but Manager Jim Errickson said it was a goat, and he ought to At any rate, the conglomera know. tion of talent by their clever portrayal of farm life is decidedly amusing. The opening number on the bill serves to arouse the enthusiasm of the patrons, for it is a bicycle novelty act of more than passing merit. Armstrong and Levering are trick cyclists who have something new. Irone Hobson and Harry Sheldon epact a clever scene most pleasing manner. Miss Sadle Seaward, in the illustrated song. DEMUR ON NEW GROUNDS

Counsel for J. Thorburn Ross and Associates Pick Out Alleged Flaws in Indictments for Bank's Irregularities.

Counsel for J. Thorburn Ross, T. T. Burkhart, John E. Aitchison and George H. Hill, officials of the Title Guarantee & Trust Company, think they have discovered new grounds on which to throw out of court the indictments against their clients, and to that end have filed a new grist of demurrers with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. These do not differ materially in form from the demurrers that have preceded them, but they show that it is the intention of the attorneys to block the case at every turn on logal technicalities. Equally determined to secure the conviction of the officials is District Attorney John Manning.

Harrison Allen, appearing as counsel for Aitchison and Burkhart, demurred on four grounds, while Wallace McCamant, for Ross, raises three objections to two of the informations and four objections to the third. The lawyers believe the indictments should be thrown out on the following grounds: they have discovered new grounds on

Wolverton Sustains Statute Against Undesirable Foreign Women.

The law providing for the deportation of women who are found to be leading an immoral life within three years after eing admitted to this country, was su tained by Judge Wolverton in the United States Court yesterday. The case in-volved was that of Fora Durand, a French woman, for whose release her attorneys had filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus which was denied by the court. The petition alleged that the woman entered the United States while the act of March 3, 1908, was in force and prior to the act of February 20, 1907; that the latter act repeals the former without any saving clause adequate to its continuance in force as relating to the act of the petitioner in entering the Judge Wolverton held that the subsc Judge Woiverton neid that the succe-quent act embraced every essential pro-vision respecting the deportation of un-desirable allens that was included in the former statute. A number of other cases, proposing the deportation of allens from other countries, were pending in the court and the one decision will suffice for them all, since the only point to be decided was the sufficiency of the im-

TWO WIVES SUE FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. A. L. Stevens and Mrs. T. M. Watson the Plaintiffs.

In a suit for divorce, filed in the Circuit Court yesterday, Aduline Stevens says that her husband, Aaron L. Stevens, fol-lowed her to church one Sunday, when they lived in Newberg, and reprimanded her on the church steps for calling on a friend on her way to meeting. She says he also followed her home when church was out, much to her annoyance, and told her he had a mind to throw her and her daughter Ritta out of the house. She says he only supported her at rare intervals. The couple married at Bronson, Mich., December 18, 1886. Minnic Watson has filed suit to secure a divorce from T. M. Watson, on the ground on habitual drunkenness. She married him August 18, 1887.

SIMPLE PRESCRIPTION PRE-VENTS KIDNEY DISEASE.

Mix This Recipe at Home, as It Is Splendid for Urinary Troubles and Rheumatism.

More people succumb each year to some form of kidney trouble than any other cause. The slightest form of kidney derangement often develops into Bright's kidney disease, diabetes or dropsy. When either of these diseases are suspected the sufferer should at once seek the best medical attention possible. Consult only a good, first-class physician, leave patent medicines alone.

first-class physician, leave patent medicines alone.

There are many of the lesser symptoms of kidney trouble which can be treated at home is stated by a well-known authority. For some of these, such as backache, pain in the region of the kidneys, weak bladder, frequency (especially at night), painful scalding and other urinary troubles, try the fellowing simple home remedy: Fluid Extract Dandellon one-half ounce. Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple ingredients are harmless and can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and any one can mix them by shaking well in a bottle. A SAFE AND PROFITABLE INVESTMENT FOR PEOPLE OF LARGE OR SMALL MEANS

Many of the important railroads and public-service corporations are now issuing bonds in small denominations-$100 and upwards-in order to afford an investment within the reach of all classes of investors. Such bonds are being offered very widely by banking institutions and other reliable dealers in securities, thus giving the man or woman with a modest savings account an opportunity to lay aside their surplus earnings securely and at a fair rate of interest.

There are three important things which should be taken into consideration by everyone in purchasing bonds or securities of any character-the first and most essential being absolute safety of principal; second, assurance of a fixed and fair rate of interest; third, possibility of enhancement in value of the investment during a period of years.

It is generally conceded that these features are largely combined in the securities of a well-built, modern railroad, located in a substantially-settled and prosperous section of country, calculated to furnish a profitable volume of traffic for such a road.

The Ocean Shore Road, when entirely completed, will be one of the best built and equipped interurban railway lines on the Pacific Coast, tapping a rich and rapidly-developing section of California, from the City of San Francisco south.

OCEAN SHORE BONDS OF $100 EACH CAN BE PUR-CHASED FOR $92 AND INTEREST, CASH
