MASS MEETINGS MANY

Great Demonstration for Universal Suffrage Threatens Turmoil in German Capital - Employers Will Lock Out Workmen.

BERLIN, March 17.-Frederick von Maltke the Prussian Minister of the interior, was questioned in the Diet today by Herr von Arnim, Conservative, regarding what the government proposed to do the matter of the Socialist suffragist demonstration planned for Berlin to row. The Minister replied that the government was fully awars of the intentions of the Socialists and that the police would be at their posts. Continuing, he appealed to the population to remain quiet tomorrow, which is the auniversary of the barricading and street fighting of the rev-clution of 1848. The Socialists have billed the city and its suburbs with calls to 15 mass meetings, where addresses on the suffrage willbe heard. Those in Berlin have been called for 2 o'clock in the afternoon, but in the suburbs the meetings will be held in the evening. Workmen are requested to cease labor at 3 o'clock in the afterto cease moor at a scrock in the atter-moon and assemble in the places agreed upon, where the motto of the day, "Prus-sia in 1888 and 1888," will be discussed. Notices have been posted at most of the factories of this city declaring that the workmen will be locked out until March of if they leave the factories before the usual loune of closing temorrow.

Diamond Company Will Market Gems Independently-Means War.

LONDON. March 17 .- Under pressure exerted by the Transvaal government, which is entitled to 60 per cent of the company's output, the Premier Diamond Mining Company has definitely refused to renew its agreement with the Diamond Syndicate. The Premier Company anrenew its agreement with the Diamond Syndicate. The Premier Company an-nounces that it will market its own output on the expiration of this month.

Up to the present time the syndicate has taken the output of both the Premier and De Beers companies. The fact that the agreement is not to be renewed means that war will be declared by the Premier Company against the De Beers Company and the general opinion is that diamonds will be cheaper. The syndicate has in the past practically controlled the world's

ANN ARBOR, Mich., March 17.—Fifteen of the students who spent last night in jail as the result of a riot in which the Star Theater was wrecked had to be led back to jail this morning handcuffed like common criminals before they could furnish the $1000 ball demanded by the court.
When local business men heard of their plight they came to the rescue with offers of bail, and tonight all the students locked up are at liberty. Three of those arrested pleaded guilty to a charge of loitering and were fined $4.55 each. The 15 who
