

WELL-ATTENDED CAMPAIGN RALLY HELD BY DEMOCRATS.

E. S. J. McALLISTER SPEAKS

Discusses Present-Day Political Situation, Accusing Republicans of Stealing Party Thunder—Bryan's Name Roundly Cheered.

Seemingly undismayed by the overwhelming strength of the Republican party in the matter of registered voters, the Democrats of Portland, or at least a larger percentage of them than has assembled in several years, met in Alley Hall last night and listened attentively to, and at times applauded with enthusiasm, a speech by E. S. J. McAllister, on the political situation.

Probably the most remarkable feature of the meeting was the fact that Alley Hall was crowded to the doors. It has been many months since the faithful have witnessed such a gathering of the clans. The speaker's remarks were frequently interrupted by applause, and when he concluded with a rising vote of thanks was tendered him by his audience.

Mr. McAllister spoke well, and commended his theories in taking fashion, for his auditors were visibly impressed by his exposition of the principles of the party, as advocated by William Jennings Bryan, and by the names of Cleveland, and Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri. Incidentally, mention of these three names brought forth rapturous applause.

The speaker occupied the floor for two solid hours, during which time he flayed the anti-Statement No. 1 candidates unmercifully, and advocated not only the election of Governor Chamberlain to the United States Senate, but also of a solid Democratic legislative ticket throughout the state.

John Montag acted as chairman until Mr. McAllister made his appearance, S. C. Armitage acted as secretary. The speaker was introduced by Mr. Montag, and in part spoke as follows:

Should Stand for Principle. I have longed for this opportunity to address you for some time, and am especially pleased to witness this large gathering. I say large advisedly, for I believe in a previous occasion, about a year ago, was introduced by Governor Chamberlain to the United States Senate, but also of a solid Democratic legislative ticket throughout the state.

AMENDMENT WILL BE PRESENT TO ADDRESS THE CLUB.

CANDIDATES EXCEED LIMIT

Marion Republicans Anxious to Get Into the Legislature.

SALEM, Or., March 19.—(Special.)—The rapidly with which candidates for the Legislature are coming to the front indicates that it will be difficult for either the Statement No. 1 advocates or their opponents to limit the number of candidates to five on a side, as desired. Already there are six anti and four Statement No. 1 men on record as candidates for Republican nomination, with five to elect. Those to have announced are: C. M. Crittenden, W. L. Simeral, S. D. Adkins, F. A. Turner, E. T. Reynolds.

PROTEST AGAINST PLANT

South Portland Club Opposes Packing-House in City.

Protests against the location of the Schwartzschild & Sulzberger packing plant on the Zimmerman site in South Portland were voiced by the executive committee of the South Portland Republican Club at a meeting last night. The committee formally voted that a petition will be submitted to the club at its meeting next Wednesday night in Jones Hall, corner of Front and Gibbs street.

Dr. F. H. Danmoch filed with the meeting and argued that the proposed establishment would be unsanitary, and W. L. Maher, a butcher, gave reasons why the plant would not be a benefit. The executive committee is composed of 15 members of the club, which has a membership covering the Fifth and Sixth wards. President Lillis, of the club, is chairman of the committee.

Bourne Asks New Trial.

WALLACE, Idaho, March 19.—(Special.)—Attorneys M. A. Polson, of Spokane, and A. H. Featherston, of Wallace, representing Senator Jonathan Bourne, Jr., have filed motion in the District Court asking for a new trial in the case of Senator Bourne against the Sierra Nevada Mining Company. The motion sets forth that the evidence did not justify the decision for defendant and also alleges errors in the trial. The suit involves rich ore bodies of the Ontario claim near Wardner, and is one of the biggest mining suits that has interested Idaho courts for some years. A suit involving the same question is pending in the Federal court, but no decision has been given in this.
